Part of County Tour

This is Bayville Farms in Princess Anne County. The brick and frame Georgian house was built in 1826 by Peter Singleton. It will be open to the public on the Princess Anne Garden tour during Historic Garden Week later this month. The present owner is C. F. Burroughs.

Antiques Being Featured on Beach Garden Tour April 21

By JOSEPHINE PAYNE MILLER
The Virginia Beach Garden Club during Historic Garden Week, will open on April 21st, to the house-and-garden, conscious public, six examples of the variety of tastes in architecture, decoration and landscaping to be found at Virginia Beach.

One of the most charming among these houses is that of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Herman Cohn, planned for easy living for a retired couple. It is situated on one of the highest ridges at the beach, overlooking the Princess Anne golf course. Though three blocks back, one can get a nice view of the ocean while sitting under the handsome old pines.

The house is painted white and the newly detailed trim is painted in two tones of gray. One enters by a curved brick path, up to a broad set of steps made of cut granite slabs. The entrance steps, flanked by box bushes, is wide, comfortable and inviting with an iron rail on each side.

Before entering one must tell you that this small but very complete house is chock-full of interesting possessions, mostly traditional and practically all collected in Tidewater. Although the furniture and bric-a-brac is traditional, Mrs. Cohn herself is an artist with a terrific flair for grouping and couraging her things in a charmingly original fashion. She has not hesitated to depart from the usual manner of arrangement, and has thereby achieved a tremendously interesting effect.

The walls of the entrance hall are painted a warm shade of yellow to furnish a nice background for the collection of black and white engravings which decorate it all the way up the stairs.

There are so many fine pieces in the living room that it is impossible to do justice to them all. The mantelpiece came from the home of a great aunt in Somerset County on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. One of the earliest pieces in the room is a round Queen Anne birdcage table, dating back to 1700; and a grandfather's clock with the date 1720.

Mrs. Cohn's bedroom is one of the most beautifully comfortable rooms one could imagine. Every piece of furniture in it is a family piece, and the lovely terra cotta colorings show the furniture to a splendid advantage. The pink, cocoa and terra cotta dressing room and bath is a gem of color perfection.

Looking out of any of the large windows forming a beautiful bay, one can see an old iron fence at the top of the back. All along the inside of the fence are 125 box bushes brought here by the Cohns from Somerset County. This might mention is no small garden.

Health Center Beautified

Mrs. E. M. Hardy, president of the Virginia Beach Garden Club, is shown admiring part of the new shrubbery planted around the Lillian Ashley Health Center here. The arrangement and planting was accomplished through the efforts of Mrs. Hardy and members of the club. Members made a study of the building and grounds before planting was started.

Annual Easter Seal Campaign Falling Short

Contributions to the 1959 Easter Seal campaign now total $1,400, R. H. Owen, president of the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach Chapter of the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, reported today. This is approximately $500 less than had been received at the same time last year.

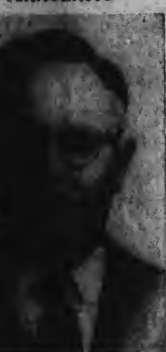

"We are optimistic," Owen said, "but contributions from many more public-spirited citizens are needed to insure the continuation and growth of the Easter Seal program for the crippled."

Owen pointed out that with the campaign closing on Easter Sunday, the next few days are important ones. He urged those who have not as yet contributed to be as generous as possible to insure help for crippled children in this area.

"We have a big job before us," Owen said, "and I am sure that everyone realizes how expensive it is to provide the services that crippled children need. While we have a policy of assisting only those who are unable to pay, few persons of average means can long afford the expense of the extensive period of treatment required for so many crippled children. The Easter Seal campaign is a community effort for the general welfare of the community at large. I am confident that every civilized person will do his share toward maintaining these highly important services to the handicapped."

Anyone who may have failed to receive Easter Seals in the mails may send a contribution to Cndr. N. A. Brown, Treasurer of the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach Chapter, or to "Crippled Children" in care of the local post office.

Veteran Will Seek Re-Election To Va. Assembly

Delegate Harry B. Davis Wednesday announced that he will seek re-election to the Virginia General Assembly representing Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, subject to the July 14 Democratic primary election.

Davis is one of the senior members of the House of Delegates. He has served thirteen consecutive terms in the General Assembly.

The veteran legislator is a member of many important committees. He is presently serving as vice-chairman of the Perrow Commission which was named by Gov. J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., to study and recommend to the General Assembly a public school policy for the Commonwealth.

In addition, Davis is chairman of the Education Committee, a member of the appropriations committee, the Chesapeake and Its Tributaries and the Executive Expenditures committees.

The incumbent delegate issued the following statement: "I take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for re-election to the House of Delegates. The citizens of Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach have been kind and generous in electing and re-electing me for 13 consecutive terms, and I assure them I shall use my seniority and experience to further and protect their interest in all matters that come before the General Assembly."

"I shall, if elected, follow my usual custom of earnestly seeking help and advice in order to properly represent my county, city and the Commonwealth," Harry B. Davis said.

Full Program Closes Holy Week

The Star of the Sea Choir joyfully sang out "Alleluia" and also the beautiful Vigil Mass, as these Easter vigil services concluded the mourning of Holy Week and began the joyful celebration of the principal feast in the Catholic Church calendar.

The services began with the blessing of new fire outside the church. The celebrant, Father Habets, lighted the Paschal candle, symbol of Christ, the Light of the World, from the new fire and then proceeded into the darkened church to the altar.

Other candles were lit from the Paschal candle and the lights in the church were put out and the only remaining light in the church came from each individual candle of the congregation.

This was followed by blessing of the palms. The palms were renewed in English, then in Latin. The litany of the Saints followed and upon its conclusion, the choir sang out as the mass celebration of the mass began.

Flowers were placed on the altar, and the organ, silent since Holy Thursday, was once more used as the choir sang, rejoicing in the Resurrection of Christ. Again at 11 o'clock Mass they sang "Mass in G."

The special Easter music for this extraordinary ceremony performed by the Star of the Sea Choir, was taught by Olga Ferrigno, conducted by Frank Ferrigno, and accompanied by Tom McGarvey on the organ.

CARRIER DIVISION FOUR NOW STATIONED AT OCEANA NAS. Carrier Division Four, which is commanded by Rear Adm. Roy L. Johnson, USN, moved its headquarters from the Naval Base Norfolk to this air station on March 25th.

CARDIV Four, which has been stationed aboard the USS Forrestal, returned to the Norfolk area two weeks ago after a six-month deployment to the Mediterranean.

The staff of Admiral Johnson is comprised of 60 enlisted personnel, which includes a band, and some 20 officers.

Little Theatre Ticket Sale Is Good for Finale

"The Moon Is Blue," the final play of the season of the Virginia Beach Little Theatre, will be presented at the Virginia Beach High School on April 14 and 15. Tickets will be available at the box office.

The cast includes actors well known to Beach audiences. The part of David Slater, a sophisticated New York man-about-town, will be played by Angie Alexander. As a partner in the firm of Alexander-Beagle, he is well known to the business world of the Beach, but for many years he has been equally well known to Beach audiences.

He has appeared often with former Little Theatre productions, as well as in the Follies, and in various club acts.

Appearing with Mr. Alexander will be Dolores East, Lon Backman and Ashlye Haycox. Mrs. Ruth Masury will direct the play and production and set design is being done by Neil Thomas and Bill Britton.

Plan Annual Minstrel Show

John S. McFall, left, and D. Murray Malbon, both members of the Princess Anne Ruritan Club, are serving as director and general chairman, respectively, of the forthcoming annual minstrel show sponsored by the club. The minstrel show is scheduled for the nights of April 17 and 18 at the Princess Anne High School.

As the Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel practice continues to improve, one change stands out in that the "Can Can Dance" of past years will be presented this year as an old-time minstrel dance, i.e., an old time "Eddie Jackson" soft shoe routine.

This act alone should be worth the admission price and leave each member of the audience feeling quite a bit younger.

These gentlemen dancers will be an assorted variety of ages and should enable each member of the audience to pick out one for comparison with his or herself while indulging in some nostalgic dreaming.

I am sure that members of the audience will recognize these dancers as quiet next door neighbors who can really let loose when the occasion so indicates.

Don't forget this minstrel at 8 p.m. on April 17th and 18th at the Princess Anne High School for an evening of youthful laughter and enjoyment. Knowing that the proceeds will be used for charitable purposes in the county.

Another preview next week.

Auto Accidents Cause Injury To Three Men

Three persons were injured Monday in a three-car collision on Virginia Beach boulevard east of Thalia, police said.

The hospitalized were identified as:

Frank A. Reid Jr., 23, 1200 Sun set Dr., back injury.

Lindwood Garret, 26, Petersburg, severe face lacerations. He was a passenger in a car driven by Wesley Vik Jr., 41, also of Petersburg.

Robert Savage, 20, VF-84, NAS Oceana, was taken to the Naval Hospital with a minor scalp injury. He was in a car driven by Donald Featherston, 21, same address.

Patrolman K. W. Jones said Reid was going east toward Virginia Beach at 4:50 p.m. on a slippery road in rainy weather. Reid lost control when he hit a puddle and his car roared across the 25-foot island, the policeman said.

It went in front of a car driven by Featherston and a pickup truck driven by Vik. Both vehicles struck Reid's car broadside and jolted it into a highway guard rail, police said.

Patrolman Jones said the crash appeared unavoidable. He said, however, that three drivers were charged with reckless driving in keeping with county procedure in personal injury accidents.

P. A. Singers

Six members of the A Capella Choir at Princess Anne High School were chosen from the Eastern Division of All-State Chorus held recently at Hampton High School.

These students, the highest in number compared to other participating high schools, will represent Princess Anne High School at the Music Educators National Conference-Southern Division in Nashville on Sunday afternoon, April 5, 1959. They will sing for music teachers from 11 southeastern states.

This is an honor received by only 120 young singers in Virginia. Thirty of these were chosen from All State Chorus at Hampton and six of these 30 attend Princess Anne High School. They have been chosen from among thousands of high school pupils who are in choral groups in their high schools.

Those from Princess Anne are: Linda Harris, soprano; Robinette Henderson, alto; Bob Reese, tenor; Tom McGarvey, tenor; Bob Fitzgerald, bass; Deryl Harpist, bass.

The A Capella Choir at Princess Anne High School is under the direction of Clark Graves, who will also attend this conference along with George Bailey, band conductor at Princess Anne.

It is all a part of the observance of April as clean-up month and Saturday as Clean-up day in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

PROCLAMATION

I, Mayor Frank Dusch, today proclaim April as Clean Up Month and April 4th as Clean Up Day in the City of Virginia Beach. I urge every citizen in the city and in Princess Anne County to participate in this program.

The aims of this campaign will benefit everyone: prevention of fire, safeguarding health, promotion of safety, building the ideals of good citizenship and improvement of property.

In asking the cooperation of every citizen, I remind you that this is the time to take stock of our community's appearance. If everyone puts forth and all-out effort, our community will retain and increase its reputation as a progressive City—one that is a safe, beautiful and healthy place in which to live.

The specific program for yourself, your family, and your city is this: Come out April 4th and pick up trash on your lot and that of any vacant adjoining property. Our Boy and Girl Scouts, Cubs and Brownies will be out on their blocks. The results of the campaign are in your hands.

Let's keep our community clean and beautiful the year round and make it a place we will all be proud of.

ARAGONA GARDEN CLUB PLANS BEAUTIFICATION PROJECT

Spring appears to be approaching in a gentle and carefree manner this year—and the lawns and flower beds of Aragona Village show that our gardeners have not been too far behind Mr. Weatherman. Trees and shrubs have been tended, bulbs are blooming and birds are singing which all goes to show that our garden club will have a rich field for members this year.

At a recent meeting of the Aragona Garden Club plans were made for beautifying the entrance to the Village, a schedule for future events, and a grand plan of interesting activities is under way. ## CUB PACK 378 OF ARAGONA VERY ACTIVE DURING MARCH

The month of March was a busy one for Boy Scouting in the Village. There were cookouts, campouts, Blue and Gold Award celebrations and window displays by the Fire Scouts.

The March theme for Cub Scouting "Candy-Land of the Mountains" helped set the pace for the pack meeting held in March at Aragona Village School. A Royal Mountain color guard called the group to order and there were various displays of dog sleds, snow shoes, boundary markers and totem poles, all made by Cub members. For graduating four Webelos into the troop, an impressive Indian ceremony was performed by the Scouts. Scoutmaster Rucker of Troop 378 received tenderfoot Scouts Gregory Evans, Mark Gomez, David Johnson and Richard Smith into the troop.

Honored guests at the pack meeting included Mr. Earl Hansen, president of Aragona Civic League; Mrs. Vance DeFur who received a plaque honoring her for two years as den mother; and parents of the Cubs. After presentation of awards, a Navy film and refreshments were enjoyed by all present.

How Big Is A Country?

To a pioneer in a new land, the nation he envisions is as broad as the sweep of his eyes permits.

To a lanned surveyor bent to his transit in the broiling sun, the dimensions rest in a sweat-stained notebook.

To the man in the hard hat the face of the country is measured by a string of empty explosive cases.

A salesman's country is the tally of a month's mileage, the number of new friends made and the number of warm handshakes left behind.

To his boss, the nation is a jigsaw puzzle of marketing areas, kaleidoscoping with the shifts of population and distribution.

For each of these and for all who abide in a nation the size of the land has a special, personal meaning.

To the farmer turning homeward at twilight or later, his land may be all too broad and wearying. But the country he depends on is diminishing. City has coalesced with suburb and raced on to the next city, swallowing first the farmland on its way. Once seeded with homes, factories and highways, there is little chance that the land will ever again respond to the plow or nourish a root or an animal. Yet there are more people to feed and clothe than ever before. This doesn't mean that the farmer must abandon his profession, but it does mean that less land must yield more, that agriculture must intensify its efforts to a business and a science to do more with what remains.

The farmer must farm better and campaign against drought, weather and pest with every weapon the industry can supply him. One of the great arenas of production is the aluminum industry, represented by members of The Aluminum Association. The metal and commodities these members produce constitute a tremendous task force in support of agriculture. In shelter, storage, transportation, in nurturing and protecting crops and stock—in countless ways—aluminum serves to stretch the shrinking land and make it more bountiful. Thus, agriculture's land is a little larger than it seems—larger because industry has allied itself with the farmer to increase the fruits of his labor.

Oceana P-TA To Sponsor Spaghetti Supper

The Oceana P-TA will sponsor a family spaghetti dinner April 2 in the school cafeteria from 5 to 7 p.m. The admission price will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children. The money raised will purchase science equipment for the school. At the March meeting the P-TA went on record as favoring the proposed state legislative program, which was presented by Robert E. Day, president. Lt. Raymond F. Racine of the Norfolk Police Department was the speaker and he pointed out that most of today's young people are law-abiding citizens. Only four per cent are delinquent according to Racine. He described three kinds of delinquent parents: the cordoning parent, who has always given his child everything he asked; the brutal parent, who beats his child because he is drunk or because he doesn't love his offspring; and the indifferent parent, who doesn't bother to find out where his child is, who his companions are and what he is doing. Senior Girl Scout Troop 600 of Oceana presented the flag ceremony at the opening of the meeting.

A YOUNG . . . Angie Dickson and John Rayner's wedding lady in a new movie has been named "The Girl Who Ties Up Men."

Webbon Attends County Officials Meeting in D.C.

Richard J. Webbon, Executive Secretary, Board of Supervisors, of Bay Mills, is in Washington attending the Urban County Congress sponsored by the National Association of County Officials.

Executive Secretary Richard J. Webbon, heard four United States Senators, Kennedy of Massachusetts, Carlson of Kansas, Hruska of Nebraska and McNamara of Chicago, discuss at length many of the key problems and workable approaches to the urban area problem as it particularly pertains to the Urban Counties. Vice-President Nixon appeared at the opening general session.

Nearly 1,000 delegates, including county officials, leaders of all levels of government, Congressmen and public administration study groups, are spending three days at the Congress seeking practical solutions to the urban problem.

Delegates heard Judge C. Beverly Briley, of Nashville's Davidson County, discuss the conference when he said, "I believe that the mass might of the American suburbanite (now living in urban counties) American's greatest consumer, and also producer, will act as the new balancing force (in political power)." He also foresaw the counties as fully capable of solving their vast new range of problems dictated by the move of Americans to the suburbs.

Inter-County Cooperation was discussed by Edward Connor, Supervisor of Wayne County, Mich. He is one of the recognized national leaders in the field of multi-lateral cooperation and planning among local governing bodies.

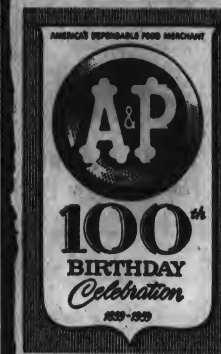

General Conference Chairman was Judge C. Beverly Briley, of Davidson County, Tenn., Chairman of NACCO's Urban Areas Committee and presiding officer of one of the most progressive urban counties in the South.

In a Congress dedicated to finding practical solutions to stressing problems, the accent was upon discussion groups, each headed by an authoritative discussion leader. There were six of these, and they in turn were broken down into three closely related panels. The discussion groups, covered the fields of Urban Transportation, County Administration, Social Welfare, County Finance, Community Facilities, and County Planning. Each will be explored in all its ramifications, touching upon virtually every aspect of American urban living.

The Urban County Congress will be a milestone in local government administration and the attempts to combat the "urban problem" because it will bring about a free and abundant exchange of information among those closest to the problem, the actual governmental officials concerned. More and more the "urban problem" has become the county problem because by their very nature urban development has overthrown the rigid yet artificial barriers of city limits, spilling into the adjacent counties who have inherited many new services which they sometimes have not had the legal, administrative or financial machinery to handle. Their awakening in the face of this challenge has been one of the amazing phenomena on the American scene.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Clean-Up Time At Hand

While we feel that clean-up time is all the time and should be practiced every day of every year we nevertheless are now entering the month of April which is designated as Clean-Up Month in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

Members of the garden clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County preach and practice clean-up and beautification the year-round and they have indicated they will not stop their campaign until everyone is thoroughly educated in the practice of keeping their city and county clean. These ladies are a determined group and our hats are off to them.

The Council of Garden Clubs will again this year sponsor the clean-up campaign in local schools with the winning school receiving the R. Lee Page trophy. This is an annual contest among the schools and should reflect itself in fewer litterbugs as today's youngsters become tomorrow's adults.

The ladies this year stole a march on spring with their huge trash basket displays on Laskin Road and Virginia Beach boulevard showing the amount of litter to be found on and along our roadways in a matter of a few blocks. It is a good visual lesson in what the litterbug does to keep our area dirty.

While the garden club members relentlessly attack the litterbug and continue to spearhead the year-round effort of cleaning up it is up to each and every individual to do his part in making our area clean and keeping it beautiful. Each of us must cooperate in order to make the program a success. We especially commend the ladies and the members of the Council of Garden Clubs in this undertaking.

YWCA to Sponsor Coffee Hour

The Virginia Beach Y.W.C.A. will sponsor a coffee hour in honor of the 100th anniversary of the Y.W.C.A. series, recently completed. Classes were held at the Dunes and Traymore hotels under the guidance of the following teachers—VED, who taught Art; Anne Edlin, Bridges; Mike and Peggy Pedlin, Dances; Executive, Mrs. Carl Barron; Flower Arrangement, Mrs. Malcolm Todd; Millinery, Mrs. C. C. Utley; Parilla Mental Law, Mrs. Donald Funk; and Speech, Florida Pelote Harrington; Chorus Class, Miss Amber Rau.

The coffee will be held at the Princess Anne Country Club on Monday, April 13 from 10 to 12 noon. All members and interested persons are invited.

The exercise group will begin an interim series of classes at the Dunes next Tuesday, April 7 at 10:30 A.M.

Other classes will be resumed in the fall.

London Bridge HD Club Meets

The London Bridge Home Demonstration Club met in the London Bridge Baptist Church for its March meeting with 25 members present. Mrs. J. C. Darden called the meeting to order and the flag, Mrs. M. E. Evans led the group in an Easter devotion.

One of the interesting reports of the meeting was the result of the work of the Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. R. W. Ashworth. The president reported a large attendance of the club members and guests at the Boy's Breakfast. The club had the largest attendance at this interesting radio broadcast and received the bonus prize for the week in addition to the amount realized through the sale of tickets. The other club committee chairmen had interesting reports as well as profitable ones to make. Mrs. Curtis Reid, Program of Works chairman presented the monthly work of beautification around the home and told of club participation in the planting of bulbs around the Agricultural building at Princess Anne Court House.

We were privileged to have with us one of our own members who is the District President of the Home Demonstration Clubs, Mrs. T. C. Hunter, Sr. Mrs. Hunter announced the Tidewater District meeting to be held in Graceland April 14 and many members indicated their intention of attending.

Mrs. Fred Leman gave the demonstration, "Better nutrition for less money" in the place of Mrs. Annie Macdon, who is moving to California, and Mrs. Virginia Powell who was unable to attend.

Mrs. Flo Couch, special interests chairman announced the textile painting class, to be held April 4 at the church and is open to all who desire this interesting form of a hobby.

Grace Brethren Church to Break Ground Sunday

The ground-breaking service will be conducted Sunday April 5, 3:30 p.m. for the new Grace Brethren Church, located on Great Neck Road at Hilltop at the entrance to Laurel Manor. In the event of rain, the service will be conducted in Grace Chapel located on the building lots.

Chaplin Lloyd W. Letten, United States Navy, will be the guest speaker. Chaplain Letten, who is now serving aboard the USS Bulcan, is a graduate of Wheaton College and of Dallas Theological Seminary. Before entering the Navy Chaplaincy, the speaker served as pastor in the Southern Presbyterian Church, Dr. L. L. Grubb, director of the Brethren Home Missions Council, is also expected to be present for the service, along with other local pastors.

The Rev. Harold Arrington, pastor of the church, stated that the initial unit will provide a chapel with seating capacity of approximately 300, and facilities for a departmentalized Sunday School. The fellowship hall is expected to be one of the most popular provisions in the church. Plans are already on paper for a future main sanctuary which will seat approximately 600.

The brick structure, which will be a combination of conventional and semi-contemporary architecture, was designed by Robert E. Polts, Brethren Home Missions Architect, and will be erected by crew No. 3 of the Brethren Construction Company, a division of the Brethren Home Mission Council. Construction is expected to begin about April 10.

Rev. Arrington announced that the public is cordially invited to attend the service.

Independent Telephone Firms Serve 11,000 Areas

The 3,847 Independent (non-Bell) telephone companies of America, of which the Princess Anne Telephone Company is one, and which serve 11,000 communities and more than half of the service area of the country, now operate 10,184,000 of the 60,943,800 telephones in the United States, its territories and possessions, and have a total plant investment of $4,077,076,800.

According to Kermit S. Land Sr., president of the Princess Anne Telephone Co., Inc., figures released by the United States Independent Telephone Association reflect the continuing growth and progress of the industry, which has been expanding at an accelerated pace during the past 13 years to meet the unprecedented demands for telephone service, occasioned by population growth, increased usage, and a prosperous economy. While the country's population increased 36 per cent during the 23-year period from 1935 to 1958, the number of independent telephones soared from 3,185,000 to 10,184,800 or 220 per cent, the Association said.

The independent telephone industry, through its operating companies, equipment manufacturers, and suppliers, serves approximately 11,000 communities in the United States, which is many more than the number served by the Bell System. However, because Bell companies operate in most of the larger metropolitan areas, they have by far the larger number of telephones (36,759,000).

The independent industry has introduced a number of major technical advances in the telephone field, including the first practical dial switching system, which was invented by Almon Brown Strowger, a Kansas City undertaker. Its first commercial application was in the form of an independent exchange at La Porte, Indiana. A few years later, the independents introduced the first dial telephones in a number of exchanges in various parts of the country. Today, many independents are installing direct distance numbers without the assistance of an operator. Nearly 80 per cent of all independent telephone lines are now operated.

On the turn of the century independents introduced dial telephone systems in such large cities as Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Omaha, which cities are now served exclusively by the Bell System. Some of the cities in which the independents operate include Tampa and St. Petersburg, Florida; Lincoln, Nebraska; Rochester and Jamestown, New York; Long Beach, Santa Monica, and the entire suburban area of Los Angeles, California; Fort Wayne and Terre Haute, Indiana; Durham, North Carolina; Sumter, South Carolina; Erie, Pennsylvania; and Lexington, Kentucky.

The nation's long distance service is furnished primarily by the Bell System toll network. All long distance facilities are interconnected with independent telephone companies lines. Long distance traffic between the two segments of the industry is freely interchanged. Agreements are in effect covering routings and divisions of revenues on the interconnected business. Many independent companies themselves own and operate a large mileage of toll lines, mostly regional in character, all interconnected with the Bell network and with the toll facilities of neighboring independent companies.

Historic Lighthouse Part of P. A. Garden Tour April 25

The sight of the two lighthouses at Cape Henry is a familiar one to all living in this area. The old lighthouse, pinkish grey and weathered, stands like a monument to man's constant struggle with the elements. It rises on one of the highest dunes 120 feet high. Simple and timeless, it is unconquered by the roaring gales and the treacherous shifting sand. Thanks to the funds and the efforts of the Norfolk Branch of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, the old lighthouse has been fully restored. The most recent work was the restoring of the cupola which is modelled as closely as possible after the original.

Designed by John McComb Jr., it was built in 1791 of Potomac sandstone. In the first Congress of the United States a law was enacted for "Establishment and Support of Lighthouses, Beacons, Buoys, Public Piers." The only location specifically mentioned was "That a lighthouse shall be erected near Chesapeake Bay." Thus, the Cape Henry Lighthouse was the first built by the new government.

The need for a lighthouse near Chesapeake Bay had been obvious from the time of the first shipping in 1600. Captain William Owen was ordered to "maintain good and sufficient beacons."

From 1720 to 1774 committees and resolutions were constantly set up dealing with the construction of a lighthouse, but it was not until 1774 years later after the War for Independence when the first Congress met.

Common lamps in which whale oil was burned were used for the light. The whale oil was stored in copper tanks occupying the recesses in the base of the light house. In 1812 the common lamps were replaced by Argand lamps with metal reflectors. These lamps produced a light equal to that of gas or electricity.

In December 1883 the "new" lighthouse took over the lighting of mariners in and out of Chesapeake Bay. It stands 100 yards from the old lighthouse. Its checkered, black and white column is made of cast iron plates. It is the tallest fully enclosed lighthouse in the country, with a visible 10 miles at sea. The lens is 150 feet high and is of the first order or of the largest type.

Though the light runs automatically once it is started, it has to be turned on and off manually. This lighthouse was electrified in 1920. The foghorn which has been a part of the equipment since 1885, is put into operation when the visibility is less than 5 miles. In addition to the foghorn and light, the radio beacon is of prime importance and is a class A beacon of the longest range.

Both lighthouses will be open for inspection Saturday, April 25, as part of Virginia's Historic Garden Week. The ladies of the Princess Anne Garden Club will act as hostesses and guides.

Consistent with the new world trends, Ocean View Amusement Park also has gone into outer space to get one of their new amusement attractions. If you have never seen a Sputnik you can do so by merely taking a trip to the park where five are on display, each exhibiting two paths. These teeth may be "pushed back" by throwing balls successfully at them. If you succeed in knocking their teeth out, you will be awarded a keepsake doll or a plush teddy bear as your reward.

FIGHTER SQUADRON 21 CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

Fighter Squadron Twenty-One, based at the U.S. Naval Air Station Oceana, celebrated its 14th birthday on March 25 when officers and men were feted at the station mess hall with an anniversary dinner.

The approximate 450 men of Fighting 21, which is commanded by Cmdr. W. G. Coulter, USN, were treated to T-Bone Steaks and all the trimmings during the noon meal.

After the meal, and with the assistance of Chief Aviation Ordnanceman D. L. Pratt, the squadron executive officer, Cmdr. W. P. Kiser, USN, cut and passed out the anniversary cake.

VF-21 came into being on 1 April, 1945 as Fighter Squadron 74 "A" at Naval Air Station, Oak Field Camp Edwards, Mass. During its career, it has passed through several redesignations as did the Air Group of which it was a part, and was transferred three times to other air groups.

With the primary mission of developing and furnishing fleet ready pilots for other squadrons, the "March Buster" Squadron is one of the units comprising the newly formed "Replacement Air Group Four" (RCVG-4). Squadrons attached to RCVG-4 are charged with the task of transforming pilots into 100% qualified fleet aviators. VF-21 is established in F1G or A1G and thorough training cycle to bring the pilots qualifications and readiness to the desired level.

The training syllabus involves about 100 hours in the air, 80 of which are flown in the Grumman F1G is being replaced by the Douglas A4D "Skyhawk."

The pilot-in-training, upon reporting to the squadron is funnelled into an all-weather instrument phase, where he completes approximately 20 hours flight time. In this phase of training he sharpens up his instrument proficiency with both local and cross-country hops.

One of the ground work has been laid the trainee is then systematically prepared for all phases of fleet operation, including combat tactics, gunnery, alidewind missile delivery, controlled intercept, inflight refueling and day-night carrier qualifications.

Upon completion of this training, Fighter Squadron Twenty-One releases to the fleet, a thoroughly qualified pilot, the end product of our months of intensive training.

C&P Telephone Company Releases Annual Report

Today, The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia released its Annual Report for the year 1958. Among other phases of its operations, the Report described the following aspects of its activities during the past year:

Although telephone demand declined noticeably during the early months of 1958, growth during the last half of the year was gratifyingly greater than for the same period in 1957.

An expanded merchandising program helped in the overall effort to increase revenues and meet customers' needs for more adequate service.

An average of $144,000 was spent every working day to improve and expand telephone facilities for a total of $37.5 million for the year.

Twelve more exchanges were converted to the 2 letter-5 numeral Nationwide Numbering Plan. Almost $6 million was devoted to the provision of additional facilities for wider range calling in many areas throughout its state operations. This extension of local calling areas permitted more than half of our customers to communicate with others at adjacent exchanges without a toll charge where calling patterns indicated such a need.

Earnings of the Company were ahead of 1957 due in part to increased sales activities, the increase in rates placed in effect in January, 1958, and as a result of increased operational efficiencies. However, the current rate of earnings, when related to the money invested in the business, is less than 6%.

The total tax burden on each C&P customer for the year amounted to $59.08—an increase of $10.72 over 1957. Contributing heavily to this tax load is the unfair Federal Excise Tax. Electricity, gas and telephones are all looked upon as household necessities, yet telephone service is the only one bearing this peculiar form of taxation.

Some of the new and exciting services in store for the telephone users of tomorrow were also described in the Report. To attain its objectives and long term goals, the Report pointed out, the Company must have steady and adequate earnings. It then said, "We will be able to operate for the long pull in better serving its users."

MAN will land on the moon, possibly within two years, a Columbia University astrophysicist predicts.

Dr. Lloyd Motz said in an interview that the landings—which most likely will be made by the Russians—will signal the beginning of life on the moon and exploration of other planets.

The scientist said the successful firing of America's Pioneer IV rocket and the earlier launching of the Russian satellite "launched us on the moon and exploration of other planets."

He said his viewpoint was optimistic while others, with more conservative ideas, predicted a landing within five years.

The association of astronomy said he disagreed with the opinion of some other U. S. scientists that Pioneer IV put the U. S. in "the same league" with the Russians.

Referring to the difference between the physicists of the American and Russian moon rockets (13 pounds vs. 750 pounds), he said "The energy required to launch the Russian satellite was more than 100 times greater."

Our brief instruments cannot make up for such a difference in power."

The Russians could have hit the moon with their last attempt, he believes. The launch apparently was intended to deliberately miss the moon and go into orbit around the sun, since the fourth stage of the rocket was not fired until the satellite was within the moon's gravitational field.

Atmospheric conditions different from those on earth will require the first men who travel to the moon to carry water, oxygen, and nitrogen with them. But soon after the first landing, Motz says, laboratories are likely to be erected to make use of the many minerals on the moon.

Dr. Motz said scientists expect to find abundant amounts of uranium-235—the fuel for atomic reactors—on the moon. Atomic factories could be built to make oxygen, nitrogen, water and even soil so that a permanent community could be established on the moon, he said.

He also predicted man will explore Venus, Mercury and Jupiter but noted that each presents difficult problems for establishing life on them.

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCIE CLARK

SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and tidbits... the weekly, down-to-earth recipes that bring you the best of the kitchen, read "The Mixing Bowl" by Lucie Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

In Italy, when the neighbors see young Romeo hurrying along with a sprig of basil in his hair, they know he's headed for Juliet's house with matrimony in mind. This bit of green, they say, is a token of love, but perhaps it has a much more practical purpose: If her eyes light up appreciatively when she sees the basil sprig, he can be sure he's getting a good cook!

In this country the use of basil has increased right along with the popularity of Italian dishes. The tomato-basil combination is world-famous, but don't stop there, for the "herb" royal has many uses: A pinch of dried basil (about a quarter teaspoon) gives a delightful flavor-boost to meat, fish, eggs and cheese dishes. Use it in stews, sausage, dressings, sauces, vegetable salads. You'll like it too with snap beans, peas, beets, Swiss chard, squash, potatoes.

The Greeks, who always had a word for everything, named this popular herb "basilikon," meaning

"royal," or the king herb. A native of India and Persia, it is cultivated on the North Mediterranean shore, and a great deal is now grown commercially in the U.S. There are at least a half dozen types of basil, differing in flavor and fragrance, as well as in size and leaf color. It's a member of the mint family, though its sweet aroma suggests cloves to some people, licorice to others. All good cooks agree, however, that its flavor is sweet and warm, with a pungent undertone. It should be used subtly but often.

Basil is an excellent seasoning for fish and seafood. It is useful in preparing many main dishes. From the test kitchen of the American Spice Trade Association come these seafood dishes fit to please the King of your household.

Herbed Tuna Porcupines are fish balls baked in an appetizing tomato sauce. Baked Fish Croquettes are another good choice for Seafood lovers. ## Your Social Security

By EARL W. TRINKLE
Field Representative

Employers of domestic (household) workers, such as maids, baby sitters, cooks, gardeners, laundresses and chauffeurs, are reminded that social security tax reports on the cash wages paid their employees in the first quarter of 1959 are due by midnight, April 30, 1959.

Taxes must be paid in every case where the employee is paid $50.00 or more in cash wages during a calendar quarter by one employer in a calendar quarter.

If the domestic employee is paid less than $50.00 in cash wages during a calendar quarter these wages are not covered by social security and should not be reported.

The tax rate for wages paid in 1959 is 2½%, paid by the employer, plus 2½% paid by the employee.

Reports, together with the taxes, should be sent to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Richmond, Virginia.

The report must show the employee's social security account number, his name, and the amount of cash wages paid to him during the quarter.

There is a special simplified report form (Form 942) designed specifically for reporting domestic employees. It is available from any Internal Revenue office. Also available for the asking is an informational pamphlet, OASI-21, covering the reporting requirements on household employees.

For further information, assistance or guidance, call or visit your Internal Revenue or social security office.

REMEMBER?

BY THE WAY...

From Ray Lotzok, Minneapolis, Minn.: I remember from my old home town: the first open window that let the sound of the birds and the warm south winds into the house. My father spading the garden with my mother and me taking out the cloths, and mother digging a twist pea trench and tenderly planting the seeds. Lugging the living room and dining room rugs out to a spot on the back lawn where the grass was long enough and green enough to lay them. And then the laborious task of beating them with a rug beater until my knuckles were red and raw and winter's dust permeated my nostrils.

The business of removing the storm windows and carrying them to the woodshed for replacement with screens, many of which had been marked for the proper window. Also bringing the canary in his cage out to the back porch for his first exposure to the sunshine of spring.

Spring also meant removing the hard coal burner from the living room and the dismantling of the sections of stove pipe that led from the stove to the chimney. I can still see my mother with a white dust cloth wrapped around her head laying newspapers on the floor under the stove and hear her squawking to father when he carelessly let some soot fall from the stove pipe section.

It was a happy day for me each spring when the hard coal burner was relegated to the woodshed. It meant that for six months I would not have to carry in the coal and carry out the ashes.

Fine Arts Week Being Observed By Women's Clubs

The Tidewater District of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs are observing Fine Arts Week—March 29th through April 4th—by a district-wide exhibition of products of the creative talents of clubwomen. Exhibits will be placed in store windows, grocery stores and other public buildings in all counties and cities in the district. (Tidewater District consists of approximately 5,400 members in 61 clubs in Accomac, Northampton, Princess Anne, York and Norfolk Counties, and the cities of Newport News, Portsmouth, Norfolk, South Norfolk and Williamsburg.) All items displayed were entered in the annual fine arts competition on March 11th at the Hotel Chamberlin, Old Point Comfort, in which 253 entries covering all media of drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, metal crafts, fine sewing, knitting, crocheting, embroidery, rug making, and weaving, these entries having been previously judged winners on a club level.

The Fine Arts exhibits mark the end of work for a year that included 42 club-sponsored study groups in art, 38 study groups in music, and community service that provided art classes for school children in 10 communities, in hospitals in seven communities, in three children's homes, in nine homes for the aged, three schools for the mentally retarded and in hospitals for veterans and the mentally ill which are located in the Tidewater District.

As a public service the Artmobile, a maximum sized trailer-truck traveling art gallery, was again sponsored by the FVWC, and visits were made to all parts of Virginia showing this year's exhibit of Italian Renaissance art which belongs entirely to the people of Virginia through the Virginia Museum of Fine Art. If the Artmobile did not reach a community this year, it will travel to that community in future years under a rotating circuit plan. Previous to local visits educational film strips and program material on Italy and Renaissance art were distributed through the public school systems. The Artmobile is accompanied by a professional curator. All work and expense in the operation is borne by clubwomen.

Two new projects initiated by Tidewater District this year were the Creative Writers' Workshop, directed by Phyllis Henson, author and poet, and the district-wide study of art and culture of other countries. In the study of foreign art, correspondence with clubs in other countries affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs was emphasized.

Museums, public libraries, concert and symphony groups, Little Theatres and similar groups received volunteer and financial aid from all clubs in the district. One regional public library was established under the sponsorship of local clubs. Club reports reveal that church choirs alone received the regular services of 616 members.

INTERESTING

Some people believe that flush markers are a departure from traditions, while they are, in fact, a revival of an old custom, according to biblical scholars. The oldest cemetery in the world—on the Mount of Olives, in Jerusalem—has flush slabs for markers.

Stones are eventually destroyed by the elements which attack them. They will chip, crack and crumble away—whereas bronze will endure and become more beautiful as time goes on.

The use of flush memorials means a substantial saving to the purchaser. Memorial Garden type cemeteries can sell lots at a lower price because the perpetual care cost less on this type of cemetery.

An irrevocable trust fund can never be touched. Only the income from it can be used, solely for the purpose of maintaining the park.

Going "Steady" Has Disadvantages

A young girl of sixteen considers herself burdened with quite a problem. She dates two boys, regularly and each one has asked her to go "steady" (with him only, that is).

Her problem is not as big as she thinks it is, however. She says that she isn't sure, but "maybe" she likes one boy a little bit better than she does the other. But she isn't sure. We think it would be quite foolish for this young lady to agree to "go steady" with either boy. Apparently she enjoys the company of both and accordingly there is no reason for her to have to stop dating one boy in order to please the other one.

To be perfectly truthful about the situation, some boys believe in "going steady" because it's pretty convenient—they don't have to worry about getting a date for the next prom or social affair. This doesn't mean that they don't care anything about the girl—to the contrary, they do, or they wouldn't enjoy her company or want to be with her most of the time. But sometimes they enjoy the convenience of not having to worry about getting dates as much as they enjoy the companionship of their "steady."

The girl (or boy) who is popular and attractive sacrifices some of that popularity by going "steady." It's not that people like her (or him) any less—but the boy and girl who go "steady" lose their individuality in the minds of their friends and become a "team." Where you see one, you see the other. Invite one to a party, invite the other. Don't ask either one for a date—they're going steady.

There comes the time when every boy and girl feels that the "right one" has finally come along. Then it's time to start going "steady" and determine if this is the one "for life." Sound advice: Have fun while you are young; don't go "steady" until you are ready.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation in your neighborhood, write to: LETTERS TO TEENAGERS, NATION, 400 NEWSPAPER BLDG., WASHINGTON, D.C. 20001.

Bank Deposits In Virginia Show Increase

Deposits in four Virginia banks passed the $10 million mark during 1958, raising to 50 the number of banks in the state with deposits in excess of $10 million, according to the Virginia Bankers Association.

The amount of deposits is an accepted measure of bank size. Nine of Virginia's more than 300 banks have deposits of $30 million or more and five banks hold deposits of $100 million or more, according to figures based on the December 31, 1958 statements of condition.

There has been a general growth in the commercial banking structure during recent years, but the essential banking services are provided in most communities by the smaller bank. More than 250 banks in the state have deposits of less than $10 million.

On the national scene the same ratio of large to small banks holds true. The 1958 figures show that 2,447 banks in the United States have deposits of more than $10 million and that 11,000 have deposits under $10 million.

Illinois has the largest number of $10 million-plus banks, 225, and Arizona has the fewest, 4. Every state has at least one bank with more than $10 million in deposits.

Child, Family Service to Meet April 15 in Norfolk

Dudley DuB. Cooke, President of Child and Family Service, has issued invitations to the Annual Meeting of the Agency on April 15, 1959, to be held at Wesleyman Hall of Epworth Methodist Church in Norfolk.

Commenting on the Annual Report of Child and Family Service, Mr. Cooke called attention to the amount of service the Agency gave in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach in 1958. Sixteen children were placed for adoption, 38 marriage counseling cases were handled, eight parent-child relations, five children received foster care and three unmarried mothers were aided in plans for their maternity care and placement for their babies. There are three foster homes in use by this Agency located in Princess Anne County.

Members of Child and Family Service Board and Staff have given talks to Church and Civic groups in the County. In addition to this service to Princess Anne County, the Board membership of the Agency has the following members living in Princess Anne County:

LONG SERMON

A visitor to Oak Grove Baptist Church arrived late, but made up for it by listening attentively to a long, drawn-out sermon. Finally he turned to his neighbor, John Wilson, to ask how long the minister had been preaching.

"Four years," John whispered. "I'll wait then," the visitor replied. "He should be through before long."

POULTRY SCHOOL SUCCESS

The second annual Poultry School for Norfolk and Princess Anne Counties held March 25 was most successful. Sixty-three producers, professional workers and agricultural businessmen were in attendance. Excellent information was presented by the five speakers and the panel on various aspects of the poultry business that affects our producers in this area. Denny Bragg of VPI pointed out that we must start thinking in terms of more started pullets, produced for producers that wish to buy pullets ready to lay.

One and half hours was devoted to housing, automatic housing, and automatic equipment. Three representatives were present—two from Hg Dutchman Automatic Equipment Company and one from Jamesway Automatic Equipment Company to discuss this type of poultry operation. This is something that will probably come about in years to come. After a very fine barbecue lunch served by the women of the church where we met, Mr. Giles Miller of the Culpepper National Bank discussed financing of Layer Enterprises. Present to hear this discussion and other discussions of the day were five banker representatives. Mr. Miller told the Culpepper story of how in the last two years 50,000 layers have been put into the County.

Dr. L. W. Price of Hale and Hunter Feed Co. discussed the Prevention and Control of Disease. From the questions directed to the panel in the afternoon, it was evident that this topic was of extreme importance to the producers present.

The Alfalfa Weevil is a very serious insect pest to alfalfa in Princess Anne. Almost every field of Alfalfa has been known to be infested with the weevil at one time or another, however, it is almost an absolute necessity to apply one of the three control measures.

It is already too late to use the granulated heptachlor or heptachlor mixed with the fertilizer application. Therefore, the only treatment that you can make now is to spray.

1. Material to use: Mix one (1) pint of heptachlor with sufficient water to get good coverage.

2. Time to apply the spray: When MOST of the plant tops show some feeding injury apply the insecticide. Watch carefully from April to May.

If you have trouble with the Pea Aphid on Alfalfa, Malathion applied at 1 to 1 1/2 pounds of the actual chemical (11-2 pints) per acre will give control.

If I can be of any help to you, please feel free to call on me.

PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY CORN RECOMMENDATION FOR 1959

1-Plant only recommended varieties. Early: VPI 428; Ohio C54; Pochontas; Funk G91. Medium early: VPI 648; VPI 646; Funk G134; U.S. 583. Full season: VPI 635; Wood V-1; Funk G704. Late: Pioneer 308A. Promising: Pioneer 301A; Pioneer 363; Funk G144, Va. 338; Va. 1287. Dekalb 600; Dekalb 863A.

2. Planting rates. Early: 18,000 to 20,000 stalks per acre. Medium early: 16,000 to 18,000 stalks per acre. Full season: 14,000 to 16,000 stalks per acre. Late: 12,000 to 14,000 stalks per acre. The final stand is expected to be 10-20 per cent less than number of seed planted.

3. Determining stalks per acre.

Dist. in Row	Width of Rows	40-in.	42-in.
6-in.	29,040	26,276	24,801
9-in.	21,708	19,708	18,609
12-in.	14,500	13,132	12,446
14-in.	12,453	11,261	10,674
16-in.	10,833	9,757	9,337
18-in.	9,679	8,779	8,297

Check planter on hard ground before planting.

4. Use ample fertilizer. Use 600 to 900 pounds of 5-10-10, 2-12-12, or 4-12-12, based on a soil test. In addition, apply sufficient Nitrogen as a side-dress at last cultivation to bring the total pounds of nitrogen to 100. Ideal plant food is 100 pounds each of actual nitrogen, phosphorus, and potash.

5. Don't let weeds compete for plant food. Spray with 2,4-D.

1. Pre-emergence (before corn comes up) 1 to 1 1/2 pounds per acre. If the material you buy contains four pounds of active ingredient per gallon, use two to three pints per acre.

2. Post-emergence (after corn comes up) use 1 pound per acre. One pint of the same material used for pre-emergence.

3. Some farmers are using a combination of these, pre-emergence, and after last cultivation or side-dressing. Whichever you use, best control is received by waiting as long as possible before cultivating.

P.A. COUNTY GRAIN SORGHUM RECOMMENDATION FOR 1959

Varieties—Plainman, Martin's Combine.

Planting rates. A pound of grain sorghum contains from 13,000 to 20,000 seeds depending on the variety. This necessitates different rates of seeding which will vary from four to seven pounds per acre. Plants should be spaced four to six inches apart in the row.

Small seed use four pounds per acre. Large seed use seven pounds per acre.

Row width can vary from 24 to 42 inches. A grain drill can be used by stopping up holes in the drill to make the desired spacing. Broadcasting is not recommended because of the weed hazard.

Date of seeding. Plant no sooner than one to two weeks after corn. Planting period may range from May 15 to June 15. Be careful not to plant too late. It may not mature before frost.

Fertilization—Either of the two methods listed below are satisfactory. 400 to 700 pounds of 10-10-10 at planting time, or 400 to 700 pounds of 5-10-10 or 4-12-12 plus enough nitrogen side-dressing to bring total nitrogen to 60 to 70 pounds. Side-dress when plants are 25 to 35 days old. Ideal plant food for sorghum is from 40 to 70 pounds each of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash.

Chemical weed control. Same as for corn.

SNEAD-LITTLER

ABC-TV ALL-STAR GOLF MATCH

At the Miami Country Club, Sam Snead and Gene Littler battled, nip and tuck, all the way through the 14th hole. Then, Mr. Snead lived up to his nickname of "Slamming" Sam and poked a 295 yard drive right down the middle of the fairway, 15th hole fairway. At this point, Sam made the shot that decided the match. His second shot, a beautiful arching 3-wood, came to rest five feet from the pin, giving him an excellent chance for an eagle.

You know the rest of the story. Sam never seems to miss on All-Star Golf, particularly if there is a $500 bonus involved. He sank his putt for an eagle 3, giving him a margin of two strokes over Littler with only 3 holes to go.

On the first nine, Snead scored a one under par 34 with 3 birdies, offset by 2 bogeys. His driving was sensational. One drive was over 300 yards, and four drives were over 275 yards. The rest were at least 260. Gene Littler birdied 2 holes on the first round, but had putting gave him two bogeys for a par 35.

Gene then evened the match on the 10th with a wonderful 4-iron shot for a birdie 3. On the 12th, Littler's drive put him into real trouble, but a fabulous wedge shot which he poked between a narrow tree opening put him on the green 15 feet from the pin. However, Gene's putting again got him into trouble and he 3-putted to go one down.

On the 13th, he came fighting back with a great wedge shot for his birdie 4 to even the match . . . but from there on in, as I described above, it was all Sam Snead.

Sam finished with a 3 under par 67 against Gene's par 70, maintaining Snead's average of 67 strokes for 10 rounds on All-Star Golf.

This brings Sam's TV earnings to $21,500, and next week he will be matched against Jackie Burke, Jr., a fellow member of mine on the Munsingwear Sports Advisory Board. Jack is a sound workman at this game, and perhaps he will be the one to stop "Old Man" Snead from rolling relentlessly on . . . and on . . . and on.

State Conference Of Social Work Set To Start April 28

The Virginia Conference of Social Work is scheduled to start Tuesday, April 28, in Roanoke, Virginia. R. Franklin Hough, Jr., conference president announced today.

The four day session will meet in the Hotel Roanoke.

Twelve specialized technical programs or institutes and three general programs are being planned this year, Hough said. The general programs begin Thursday, April 30.

"Actual details of these will be announced as they are settled," Hough said. "But I can say now the conference promises to be one of the best we've seen in Virginia."

"Prominent leaders from all over the country are being asked to serve in this year's conference designed to keep interested Virginians abreast of the health and welfare life of the state and nation," said Hough.

"The conference is open to the general public and many health and welfare personnel are expected to attend. Many representatives of civic clubs and interested individuals throughout the state are also expected to be on hand," Hough said.

"There will be nominal admission fees to the conference," continued Hough, "these are to offset the actual costs incurred in organizing the conference which operates strictly on a non-profit basis."

Hough, is present superintendent of the Virginia Baptist Children's Home, Salem, Virginia, born in North Carolina, he studied at Mars-Hill College, North Carolina, University of Richmond and Richmond Polytechnic Institute.

Regular investment in United States Savings Bonds is the most effective action individuals may take during this emergency to relieve inflationary price pressures and help strengthen the National Economy.

Miss Fort Story Contest Slated

Plans have been made at Fort Story to choose a Miss Fort Story from girls submitted by the units of this Transportation Corps installation.

Story's two battalions, the 10th and 14th will each submit twenty girls and Headquarters Company will be allowed one entry.

Contestants must be 16 years of age or older and live either at Fort Story or in the Tidewater area. They need not be dependents of Story personnel.

Each unit will submit a name and the battalions will choose their final entries from those submitted. Then the five finalists will be chosen at a show to be held at the Post Theater on April 27th.

Major General Norman H. Vlasering, Commanding General of the Transportation Training Command, is scheduled to present the winning trophy on that night.

Virginia Beach Little Theatre Presenting Final Play of Season April 14 and 15

The play will be given on April 14 and 15 at 8:30 at the Virginia Beach High School. Tickets will be available at the box office, and at the Alexander Beagle shop on 31st Street.

Women's Clubs of Virginia Open Meeting Here Monday

The fifty-second annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs is scheduled to open on April 14 and continue through April 16.

The three day meeting of the Virginia clubs will divide its program between the Convention Center and the Cavalier Hotel.

A pre-convention program has also been arranged for Monday, April 13. The budget and finance committee is scheduled to meet on Monday and a reception for the executive committee is planned in the home of Mrs. H. E. Savage in Birdneck Point.

On Tuesday the Kempville, Little Creek, Chesapeake Beach and Ocean Park Women's Clubs will serve as joint hostesses to the convention's executive groups at a luncheon at the Cavalier Hotel.

Much of Wednesday's program is slated for the Convention Center and a luncheon will be served there. Wednesday afternoon's program will be devoted chiefly to health matters.

The Juniors will have a banquet Wednesday night at the Cavalier and Junior Night will be observed in the Convention Center followed by the Junior Party.

Thursday, the convention's final day, will be featured by a fashion show at the Cavalier Hotel with W. G. Swartz furnishing the newest fashions.

A special NATO program at the Convention Center will conclude the annual meeting.

Ruritan Minstrel Enter Final Rehearsals for Show Next Week

The Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrels practice last Tuesday night following the regular monthly meeting of the club, continues to show improvement and polish.

Maury Riganto has almost completed his "Miss Ruritan" beauty contest, and out of several thousand contestants (the number is loosely used). He expects to eliminate all except a dozen or so outstanding contestants.

These finalists, who have given their all in figure and fortune, will still be in the contest when April 17 and 18 arrives and will be presented to the audiences of the Ruritan Minstrels on these nights at the Princess Anne High School at 8:00 p.m. for Final Judgement.

Efforts to find out more about this "Miss Ruritan" contest and especially obtain some information on the probable finalists was not too successful. Maury Riganto mentioned that he was a bit suspicious of personal talent previews in that they tended to disturb the sensitive and tender nature of his contestants which he felt should reach top form for the finals during the minstrels. He urged that all come and see themselves in the persons of these outstanding finalists.

Wilder House on Tour

The home of Mrs. William S. Wilder located on 52nd street shown above will be included in places to see on the Virginia Beach Garden tour scheduled for April 21.

Beach High School Graduates Excell in College Prep Test

From annual surveys by the Guidance Department, it has been established that 80% to 70% of the Virginia Beach High School graduates go to college. This is possibly the highest percentage of any public high school in Tidewater, so the local school administrators have placed special emphasis on the preparation of the students to do college work.

Virginia Beach High School is relatively young, only five classes have graduated and most of those students who entered college have done well, but school officials are very proud of the most recent class which graduated in June 1958.

The class of 1958 had 59 graduates, 36 of this number are now enrolled in 15 colleges in North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, the District of Columbia and Ohio.

Eight of these students are at Norfolk Division of William and Mary, five are at V.P.E. and Mary Washington has four, Duke, V.M.I. and William and Mary in Williamsburg have three each. Two attend Goucher College in Baltimore, and the following colleges have one each: University of Virginia, Radford, Louisiana, Trinity, Mount Vernon, Ohio University, Virginia Intermont and the University of Richmond.

Of the 36 students who are now in college, eight or 23% of them had a "B" average or better at the end of their mid-year examinations. Twenty-three or 66% of these students maintained a good "C" average and eight of the 23 were within one point of a "B" average. Only four of the 36 were in the "D" average category.

Although most college failures and drop outs occur in the first semester of college work, only five students failed a subject and none maintained an average low enough to be placed on academic probation.

The best average for any one college was Duke University, where all three students attending maintained a "B" average or better.

The survey from which these statistics were secured is made annually by Virginia Beach High School to determine the success of its graduates in college. It also serves as a means of identifying departmental weaknesses so that the school may continue to alter its curriculum and faculty to fit the needs of the students.

Even though the school does emphasize college preparatory work, the curriculum is broad enough to serve the needs of those students who do not plan to go to college.

President

Four men announced Tuesday their intention of seeking election in the July 14th Democratic primary for seats representing Princess Anne County or the City of Virginia Beach.

All four men announcing Tuesday stated that they were running for public office as independents. The first to announce was a Pungo farmer, Arva D. Malbone, 40, who is seeking the Pungo District seat on the County Board of Supervisors. Malbone is seeking the seat now held by Kenneth E. Whitehurst, who has served the district for the past eight years and who is also seeking re-election.

Late Tuesday three men, all under 40 years of age, announced for political office. They are Rhias W. Adams, Dudley D. Cocks and James L. Kitchin.

Rhias W. Adams, 30, Croatan Beach, who was chosen "Outstanding Young Man in Virginia Beach" by the State Junior Chamber of Commerce, will run for the board of supervisors for the Lynn Haven District. He will oppose the incumbent James Darden.

Dudley D. Cocks, 37, of Princess Anne Hills, who is president of the Child and Family Service, Norfolk, is running for the Virginia House of Delegates. He will oppose Harry Davis, the incumbent, who has held his seat for 27 years.

James L. Kitchin, 38, Liniker a partner in Jarvis and Kitchin Insurance Agency and past president of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce, is running for the State Senate. This seat is now held by R. Alvin Ames, of Eastern Shore.

All three stated they were running as "independents" and that they were not affiliated with any party or group, "said the statement issued by the trio."

Adams, a native of Oregon, has lived at Virginia Beach since 1953. He is head of Em-Rhase Motors, a Ford agency. He attended Davidson College and is a lieutenant in the Air Force Reserve.

He served as president of the Virginia Junior Chamber of Commerce for 1956-58 and was chosen Outstanding Young Man in Virginia in 1958 by an independent committee for the Jaycees.

Cocks, a Norfolk attorney, is a native of Birmingham, Ala., and has lived in the Norfolk area since he was nine years old. He was educated at the Episcopal High School, the University of North Carolina and received his law degree in 1948 from the University of Virginia Law School.

He served in the Navy in World War II and in the Korean War and is a lieutenant commander in the reserve.

Kitchin is a native of Scotland Neck, N.C. and was educated at North Carolina State College. He has lived in the Virginia Beach area since 1936.

He served in World War II as a paratrooper.

The trio issued the following statement:

"The three of us are announcing for the respective offices which we are seeking as independent candidates in every sense of the word 'independent.' We are obligated to no individual or group and our only desire is to provide the citizens of our community with true representative government.

"We sincerely feel that by our announcement we are fulfilling an obligation which all citizens owe to their community to provide the best possible government, and we hope that by our willingness to run for public office we will encourage all qualified men and women to do likewise. We feel that the progress of every community is reflected in the willingness of its citizens to participate in government affairs.

"We earnestly request and solicit the aid and assistance of all persons who like us are interested in these principles."

Malbone, who is active in county agricultural affairs, issued the statement:

"I believe the people of the district are entitled to services commensurate with the tax increases levied on them during the past few years. . . I do not believe they are getting this at present."

The Princess Anne board of supervisors, S. Paul Brown, Baynard Pollock, James Darden, Carroll Clough, Kenneth Whitlatch and James E. Snyder, all have announced, as have the county commissioners.

'Cinderella House' Name Given Beach Home on April Tour

Were we to name the Virginia Beach Garden Tour choice at 211 7th Street in Virginia Beach, we'd call it "The Cinderella House," for its owner, Mrs. Virginia Glennan Slason has wrought a most magical transformation with a minimum of money and a maximum of imagination. This house is one of six to be open for the tour on Tuesday, April 21st.

When Virginia Slason bought this property in 1950, a white asbestos single salt box house sat between two magnificent spreading live oaks. To the rear of the house there was another wonderful oak, but nothing else except sand.

Today a pleasant barnyard red rambling house stretches between the two oaks in the front and it's hard to realize how lengthening the salt box and face lifting its exterior can make such a difference.

Walking through the part of the house which was the original you appreciate the flair that has been shown in creating an easy delightfully informal atmosphere, but it is not until you reach the screened living porch on the back that you stop in amazement.

Here is a patio that transports you to California or the Caribbean—here is Utopia or Shangri-la. Flowers are everywhere, in tiers of pots against the tall cypress fence, in beds that border the brick-paved area where a jewel-like pool sparkles live, around the magnificent live oak that hangs over casual pool-side furniture.

Everything about the Slason house wears an air of casual, inviting charm so perfect for year-round resort living at the Beach; and difficult it is to reconcile it with the photo of the property before Virginia Slason waved her magic wand.

Your Social Security

By KARL W. TRINKLE
Field Representative
Protection under the social security program has been made available to severely disabled people who are unable to work because of a childhood disability which began before they attained age 18. This protection enables this payment of benefits to disabled children of insured workers who are receiving old-age insurance benefits, or who died while insured since 1938.

Many such children who received a child's benefit until they attained age 18 are now eligible for the childhood disability benefits. Other children who were over 18 years of age when their parents qualified for retirement benefits, or died, are now qualified to receive monthly benefit payments.

Many children who might be eligible to receive such payments are confined to medical institutions and are unable to make inquiry on their own behalf. Close friends or relatives should check with their social security office to make certain that steps have been taken to safeguard the rights of these children. Many children are qualified to file on their own behalf for these disability benefits and should contact their social security office as soon as possible for that purpose. A claim must be filed before entitlement to these benefits can be established.

Childhood disability benefits are paid to qualified persons who are 18 years of age or over. The law has previously protected the child under 18, whether or not he was disabled.

The amount of the benefit for the disabled child is figured the same way as though the child were under 18 and qualified for benefits. Anyone who wants information on this or any other phase of the social security law should contact his social security office located at 220 W. Brambleton Avenue, Norfolk 10, Virginia.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Beach Boulevard Hazards Need Correction

Just a few years ago as the new highway between Virginia Beach and Norfolk was nearing completion it was hailed as the latest and safest type highway known to exist. It was soon learned that it, too, had its unsafe features.

It is generally conceded that during the first part of its life the new highway had an accident rate so great that it was considered the second worst accident producer among Virginia's highways.

Some measure of safety has been provided and the accident rate has fallen, we understand, since the introduction of the cut off points for making turns and the prohibition of left turns along much of this highway. However, it is still a busy highway and one that demands one hundred percent of the motorist's attention.

It is true that the highway link between Virginia Beach and Norfolk is one of the most heavily traveled in the State, but the figures relating to the accident rate also takes this fact into account.

Recently some publicity has been given to that section of this highway at Thalia. There is a particular area in this location where the highway curves and in damp or wet weather the motorist may lose control of his vehicle because of the slippery condition of the roadway.

We believe that something can be done at the Thalia location to greatly minimize the danger that now exists. To begin with we believe the State Highway Department should place adequate warning signs at the approaches to this area to warn the motorist.

Statistics will show that an alarming number of non-collision accidents have resulted from the condition of the highway at Thalia. Local motorists have become aware of this but in an area such as this with the thousands upon thousands of tourists coming into Virginia Beach this stretch of the highway presents a dangerous and serious situation.

It might be well too for the highway department to look into the matter of treating the road surface with another type of material. It would appear that the type now employed by the highway department becomes extremely slippery in wet weather.

The Thalia location is not the only trouble spot or areas on the Beach Boulevard road. Another serious condition is the stretch of the highway as the motorist enters and leaves the Virginia Beach city limits on Laskin Road. This has become a very rough stretch of road since it was laid a few years ago.

It is understandable that the Laskin Road stretch presents quite a problem, since much of the land was reclaimed and has a tendency to sink. However, the present road has become increasingly uneven and in some areas it is very dangerous since the speed limit is 55 miles per hour and the dips may easily cause loss of control of an automobile and result in a serious accident and possibly loss of life.

We believe that now is the time for the State Highway Department to make a complete survey of the Virginia Beach-Norfolk highway and to take corrective measures to eliminate these hazards. Certainly the Thalia location and the condition of Laskin Road just west of the Virginia Beach city limits should be remedied before the summer season of heavy highway traffic.

BAYSIDE NEWS

BAYSIDE LIONS CLUB NEWS

The Bayside Lions Club held their regular meeting Wednesday night, April 1, at Shore Drive Inn with the president, William D. Nagg, presiding.

Capt. Ronald K. Irving, a member of the Bayside Lions Club, was the speaker. Captain Irving, who is commanding officer of the U.S.S. Wyandott, recently returned from a mission to Antarctica.

He gave an interesting account of some of the places where his ship called. The ship stopped for a few days at Auckland, New Zealand, and Sydney, Australia, on the return voyage. On each occasion Captain Irving made contact with officials and members of the local Lions Clubs and exchanged greetings.

According to Captain Irving, the people of New Zealand and Australia are very hospitable. While there is quite a difference in some of the activities of the Lions Clubs in these countries the underlying purpose, that of lending a helping hand to those in need, is an evidence.

After leaving Sydney the ship proceeded to the Panama Canal and called at Panama City, Chile, where Captain Irving entertained some of the local Lions aboard the Wyandott. He told of some difficulties he had in arranging this affair because of language barriers, but had a very pleasant time with these Lions.

Captain Irving used maps which he prepared to give a picture of the ports he visited.

Acting as a "good will ambassador" on behalf of the Bayside Lions Club in these distant places was a very gratifying experience for Captain Irving. He brought back several mementoes which he presented to the club. He will report on some of his experiences in Antarctica at a future meeting.

Vice president Eugene Caldwell told the club that plans have been completed for the club's participation in the annual Lions Round Table to be held in Norfolk, Virginia, on May 12. This is the principal fund raising project of the club and is expected to be the most successful sale yet held by the Bayside Club.

Baseball Facts To Be Flying With Opening of Season

Any baseball fan can tell you the number of home runs Mickey Vernon belted a year or the salary of Ted Williams. But can he tell you who were the first baseball glove? Or what player was the first to catch a ball dropped from the Washington Monument? Statistics will be flying thick and fast now that the baseball season is here. But for those who really want to impress their wives or girlfriends, here are some baseball facts compiled by the research department of The World Book Encyclopedia.

The first clash between a player and his arch-enemy—the umpire—occurred June 10, 1846, when the Knickerbocker Club of New York played the New York Baseball Club at Elysian Fields in Hoboken, N.J. A player named Davis was fined six cents for causing the umpire to be Alexander Cartwright, a leading player for the Knicks, who had chosen to umpire instead.

That game was also the first instance of team baseball as we know it. The New York club won 23 to 1 after four innings.

The Knickerbocker Club formed in 1845, was the first regular baseball organization. And in their third season, the members donned blue and white uniforms to become the first team uniformly outfitted. The breach of baseball etiquette made Al Reach the first paid ball player. In 1864, it was considered unethical for a player to "jump" from one team to another. Reach, deserted the Brooklyn Atlantics when he was offered money by the Philadelphia Athletics.

Five years later, the Cincinnati Red Stockings turned professional and became the first salaried team. In those days, baseball was far from the gentlemanly game the Knickerbockers had played. A player might leave the field bleeding or unconscious after stepping a fast ball, but he refused to baby himself by wearing protective equipment.

In 1875, however, Charles Walter, first baseman for Boston, put on a glove—flesh-colored, so the fans wouldn't notice it. A. G. Spalding finally wore a dark brown glove, adding stuffing to it a little at a time.

The first catcher's mask was developed in 1878 for a Harvard player who preferred being called a slayer to have his fine Barrymore profile smashed.

Still wondering about the Washington Monument? Well, Billy "Pop" Schriver of a Chicago ball club caught a ball dropped from the 600-foot level of the memorial in 1921.

Just a grandstander, but—that's baseball.

Sea Breeze Farm Again on P.A. County Garden Tour April 25

Four seasons in the garden of Sea Breeze Farm on the Lynnhaven river have been celebrated by Miss Evelyn Collins Hill, botanist, horticulturist and test gardenier. Her acres of rare blooms are evidence that Miss Hill met the challenge and won. Five sisters and one brother stood on the edge of an abandoned potato field on an April day in 1915 and had the courage and vision to combat the wilderness and produce what is now a nationally recognized show place.

The camellias gathered between the trees are Miss Hill's pride. "How camellias behaved through two snowstorms in Virginia in 1948" is again cited in the 1958 American Camellia Yearbook, quoting the author, Evelyn Collins Hill.

Fifty-two hardy varieties grown by Miss Hill in her garden on the Lynnhaven river are mentioned by H. Harold Hume in his book, "Camellias in America." Miss Hill's list is indicative of the behavior of camellias at or near their northern limits of outdoor culture in the east, according to Mr. Hume. More than 300 hardy camellias are now grown at Sea Breeze.

Roses are another specialty of Miss Hill, who has tested specimens for such firms as Jackson Perkins. "The Rockwell's most recent book, 'Complete Book on Roses,' includes a colored plate inscribed: 'The lovely semi formal rose garden of the Hill sisters (at Lynnhaven, Va.) whose exhibits of outdoor grown shrubs and flowers have been for many years a feature at the New York annual spring International Flower Show.'"

This rose garden bordered by rosemary is reached by one of the many paths through Sea Breeze Farm. Markers are helpful for identifying the bushes not in bloom. Hollies have been the subject of research by Miss Hill, who proves their adaptability to Tidewater in her Holly Quadrangle. Chinese, Japanese and English hollies mingle with the native species. A specimen in the garden is pictured in his book, "Hollies," by H. Harold Hume.

Across the driveway from the hollies is a collection of hybrid rhododendrons. These plants near the old windmill were brought from Southampton, England. Lilacs in their feathery sweetness again prove the all inclusive nature of Sea Breeze gardens. Their fragrance mingles with that of the banana shrub. Gardenias give promise of greater glory, while the hollyhocks, tulips and tree peonies are at their best for Garden Week visitors.

Azaleas and camellias virtually form a forest to challenge the lowliest dogwood, dogwood and giant pottedcactus. One may become lost trying to reach the log cabin near the Lynnhaven shore. Here, the family have enjoyed oyster roasts, and entertained gardeners from all over the world. These horticulturists have awarded Evelyn Collins Hill many trophies for her outstanding achievements.

Sea Breeze Farm is a garden, not only to see, but to study. For outstanding educational exhibits, the New York Horticultural Society awarded to Miss Hill this year the Behator Thomas C. Desmond Trophy.

A path was blazed for progress in the new world when the first court in Virginia was held on the spot where Sea Breeze Farm now stands. The Hill family have followed that path. It is open to visitors on April 25 during Historic Garden Week.

Dean Curtis, recording secretary; Mrs. Elmer Tarrill, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. M. E. Tibbort, treasurer.

Mrs. Tibbort spoke to the club on the purpose of the Council of Garden Clubs and enumerated some of the accomplishments of the past. The club voted to purchase some azaleas to be planted in the triangles in Linkhorn Park for further beautification of these plots.

Ribbons were awarded to the following: Blue, Mrs. L. R. Cole, for arrangement in the Japanese garden; Red, Mrs. L. B. Rose, Mrs. Elmer Tarrill, and Mrs. W. B. Lobaugh, for arrangements of spring flowers. Blue ribbons were won by Mrs. Lobaugh and Mrs. Tarrill for horticultural specimens.

April Cancer Society Month

Great DeMille Movie Coming To Bayne Theatre April 14

The big film news in town is that the much-talked-about, greatly acclaimed spectacle, Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments," arrives April 14 at the Bayne Theatre, every minute of its three-hour-thirty-nine-minutes of entertainment intact, exactly as it ran in previous, special engagements throughout the country.

The Technicolor Paramount production, in VistaVision, stars Yul Brynner as Moses; Anne Baxter as the seductive throne Princess Neferet, who loves Moses but when rejected turns against him; Edward G. Robinson as Dathan, tricky over-seer of the Hebrew slaves; Yvonne De Carlo as Sephora, Moses' faithful wife; Debra Paget as the gentle water girl, Lilia; and John Derek as Joshua, Moses' trusted lieutenant throughout the Exodus.

Starring also are topliners Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Nina Foch, Martha Scott, Judith Anderson and Vincent Price. Supporting roles are filled by a dozen more famous performers, and the number of extras in the tremendous bondage-in-Egypt, Exodus and Golden Calf orgy scenes tops 25,000—the greatest number ever employed in one film in the history of motion pictures.

"The Ten Commandments" is the account of the life of Moses from his infancy when his mother set him afloat on the Nile, through his years as a young man, a mighty general in the Pharaoh's army, to his betrayal and exile to the desert, and finally his deliverance of the Israelites and his receiving God's Commandments. Many scenes were filmed on Mount Sinai itself, on the shores of the Red Sea and on the very desert sands that Moses trod.

From its premiere performance on, the film has been receiving extraordinary acclaim by critics and public alike, many fans returning to see the picture again and finding in it ever-fresh excitement and inspiration.

Emerson Scott to Present Wildlife Motion Picture

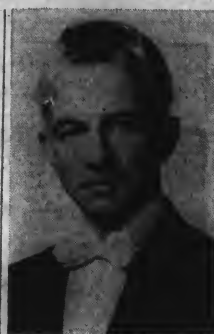

Emerson Scott, experienced outdoors man and wildlife photographer, will present his color motion picture "Rocky Mountain Rambles" on Thursday, April 23, in the Virginia Beach High School Auditorium at 8:00 P.M. This is the last feature of this year's Audubon Screen Tours Series, and is sponsored by the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County and the National Audubon Society.

High in the rugged peaks of Colorado and among the short-grass foothills Emerson Scott has explored seldom-traveled paths of the Rockies and now brings to Screen Tour audiences a beautiful and fascinating color film record of his Rocky Mountain rambling.

Bighorn sheep with their lamb's graze flower-carpeted slopes and jump the rimrocks. Sharp-tailed grouse and prairie chickens strut and dance a ritual all their own. Herds of lordly elk feed on the velvet green of a valley floor and drink from trout-filled streams.

This is a land of changing vistas, from the turbulent rapids of canyon rivers to the lofty peaks of snow-capped mountain ranges... a land of wide horizons challenging enough to satisfy the deepest wanderlust. Among the many ramblings there are two especially outstanding: one, a visit to Sand Dune National Monument—a portrayal of shifting sand and shadows that ranks as a work of art; the other, an exciting trek in huge flexible boats down the rapids and deep quiet stretches of the Yampa River in Dinosaur National Monument. This area was saved from flooding by vigilant conservationists who opposed the proposed dam.

Parmigan and dusky grouse with chicks, songbirds of many varieties, brilliant wild flowers of the alpine tundra, prairie dogs, bison and antelope... the living color that is unforgettable Colorado... all captured in film to provide a stimulating experience of arm-chair adventure, an effort to reach the heart's desire of seeing the world's most beautiful places. Tickets for this lecture and color motion picture may be obtained at the door, and the public is cordially invited to attend this educational and entertaining event. Mr. Scott will be seen by Norfolk audiences on Friday, April 24 at the Northside Junior High School.

Braithwaite came to VMI in September, 1957, following his graduation from Hargrave Military Academy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braithwaite, of Lake Shore Drive, Virginia Beach.

Cast Announced For Oceana Operetta April 17

A combined cast and chorus of 120 sixth and seventh grade students will participate in the production of "The Sorcerer's Apprentice" by the Oceana Elementary School on Friday, April 17, 8 p.m., in the School Auditorium. This operetta by Ed Bradley and Don Wilson, is a modern adaptation of the classic Goethe ballad which was musically immortalized by Paul Dukas in his tone poem of the same name.

The curtain rises on the village of Begonia where the inhabitants are characterized by their laziness and complacency toward industry. Raimon, played by Walter Pittman, determines to do something about the economic status of his village and apprentices himself to the Sorcerer of the Dark Wood for a period of 20 years. SANDWICH WEARY?
TRY ASPARAGUS AU GRATIN BROIL

Formula for good eating: Take one glass of tomato, well salted and sweetened with a tangy chili sauce-treated mix; top with a generous portion of asparagus, white cottage cheese and several bright asparagus spears; sprinkle with cracker crumbs and Cheddar cheese shreds; place under broiler until cheese melts and set with gusto.

The Story of Asparagus

From Cato to Canned Soup

Mother Nature produced a bonus baby last spring—a vintage asparagus crop, magnificent both in quantity and quality. And this soup-makers were able to pick and choose, selecting the finest stalks for processing. Canned cream of asparagus soup is one of the top-notch products we can enjoy, months after the harvest, at a budget-stretching price. This good fortune leads us to ponder... and thence to the library for a bit of research.

It was long before the beginning of the Christian era that some adventurous soul discovered asparagus was good to eat. It has been regarded as a vegetable delicacy ever since, although in some parts of the world asparagus seeds have been used to make a coffee-like beverage.

The cultivation of asparagus was practiced successfully by the Ancient Romans—so successfully, in fact, that one is asked to believe that the asparagus beds of Ravenna produced spears weighing three pounds each, and in the colony of Libya, stalks grew twelve feet high! Our methods of asparagus cultivation today are similar to those described by the Roman statesman and historian, Cato the Elder, in "On Farming."

Three quarters of our domestic asparagus is grown in two states—California, which accounts for fully half the crop, and New Jersey, which produces about one-fourth of the nation's total. Approximately 26% of United States asparagus is sold on the fresh-vegetable market; the remainder, nearly 72%, is grown for processing. The Ancient Romans had learned to preserve asparagus by drying the stalks; modern methods of preservation also include the freezing and canning of condensed cream of asparagus soup.

The cream of asparagus soup "put up" here by a famous soup-maker is a smooth puree to which is added a profusion of one-inch cuts of tender tips. It's a condensed product, which makes it a "triple threat"—as a soup, a sauce, or a recipe ingredient.

Blend with an equal amount of milk or water for a creamy-smooth soup with a delicate delectable flavor that brings springtime to the table all year 'round. Watchtime waiters will be interested in knowing that a serving of the soup contains about 52 calories when it's made with water; and only 120 calories when made with whole milk.

For a sauce, blend the canned condensed cream of asparagus soup with 1/2 cup milk; use it over meat, fish, vegetables. As a recipe ingredient, use it "straight," whenever a flavored cream sauce is called for—in a casserole, creamed seafood or vegetable or what-have-you.

Asparagus Soup Tips

Here's a main dish that comes quickly and easily from the pantry shelf: drained 1 can (10 3/4 oz.) condensed cream of asparagus soup and 1 cup milk in a saucepan. Add 1 cup cubed luncheon meat and 2 sliced hard-boiled eggs; heat. Serve over 6 soft biscuits.

Want to top off the soup? Cream of asparagus soup (1 can of the condensed soup and 1 can milk) topped with chopped pineapple, parsley or green pepper... shredded cheese... poppy or curaway seeds... sour cream or salted whipped cream... wheat germ... popcorn.

Cream of asparagus soup is a good team-mate, too. Combine with another canned condensed soup for a new soup with a different flavor. Serve it as a beverage, in mugs or oversized cups. Use these formulas:

- 1 can asparagus + 1 can cream of celery + 1 1/2 cans milk equal 8 servings
- 1 can asparagus + 1 can cream of mushroom + 2 cans milk equal 8 servings
- 1 can asparagus + 2 cans of cream of chicken + 3 cans milk equal 8 servings
- 2 cans asparagus + 1 can tomato + 1 can milk + 2 cans water equal 8 servings

Rich flavorful asparagus sauce whisks together in a trice. Use 1 can (10 3/4 oz.) condensed cream of asparagus soup and 1/2 cup milk.

If you like, add shredded cheese, poppy seeds, or a favorite herb or condiment. Serve over vegetables, fish, leftover meat or poultry. Don't these sound tempting? Try them and you'll see. Bye-Now—

Cancer Society
Releases Report

In its annual report, recently released, speaking of "noteworthy advances in all areas" of cancer control, the American Cancer Society calls attention to "a coordinated program of professional and public education aimed at sharply reducing the number of deaths from cancers of the colon and rectum."

Commenting on the report, William Perkins, Jr., Lynchburg, President of the Virginia Division, said the Society is now an organization of 250,000 volunteers who have the cohesion of cancer as their ultimate aim. Their immediate goal is the saving of as many lives as possible. He said more than 75,000 additional lives each year can be saved with present medical skills if the public is informed about the dangers of cancer and seeks advice from recognized sources.

The American Cancer Society estimates that as many as 77 per cent of the cases having cancer of the colon and rectum can be saved with early and proper treatment. However, less than 30 per cent is being saved today.

The first step in the Society's program to emphasize the possible cure rate in such cancers will be to engage the support of state and county medical societies.

The Society reports progress in its efforts to detect cancer early and states that uterine cancer could be virtually wiped out if all women had a simple cervical cell examination once a year.

Among research gains cited by the Society were the development of exfoliative cytology as an aid to early detection; the utilization of radioactive chemicals for diagnosis and treatment; improvement in surgical and supportive surgical techniques and devices; the employment of various chemicals such as estrogens, androgens, ACTH, and cortisone for treatment; and, additives to the scientific knowledge regarding basic biological and chemical processes relating to cancer.

Despite gains made against cancer, the Society reported that costs of the disease in 1948 were staggering. Business and industry lost nearly 50,000 man years due to cancer disability among workers. The total medical cost of cancer was 66 per cent higher than the average cost of other prolonged illness. An average hospital patient spent about $1,025 for diagnosis and treatment.

The American Cancer Society is currently supporting 548 research projects at a cost of $12,462,360. In 1938, $1,500,000 was devoted to research in leukemia, a cancer of the blood-forming organs.

The report listed some research needs which will be met with funds to be raised during the April 1950 Crusade.

Local units of the American Cancer Society can make reports available to interested persons. The Annual Review, a condensed form of the total report, is available also.

Varied and Interesting Gardens on View for Virginia Beach Tour

By EMMA H. TURNBULL
(Editor's Note: Residents of the Norfolk, Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach area will be interested to know that this year the proceeds of the Historic Garden Week in Virginia tours throughout the state, will go towards the organization's current project of creating an authentic garden of the Tidewater house. The house has recently been restored by the Adam Thorngood Foundation.)

The six gardens of the homes selected for the Annual Tour of the Virginia Beach Garden Club on April 21 are as refreshingly varied as they are beautiful and interesting. Each has been planned to incorporate the particular beauty or native growth of the Tidewater landscape.

Be it contemporary or traditional, formal or naturalistic, specialized for color, or designed for outdoor living, each garden has some unique aspect to enchant the visitor.

The garden of the Lambe House in Bird Neck Point is specialized for color—all white. The contemporary house of pink brick, and bluish gray frame is the perfect foil for the sloping beds of white azaleas, white iris and white tulips that delineate the length of the house on the front.

In the rear native maples, bay and myrtle have been left artistically undisturbed to enhance the wooded view of a lagoon which borders the back garden. The color scheme is again repeated with groups of white azaleas on the margin of the water.

One striking clump of bamboo at the right extremity of the house emphasizes the contemporary design of the Lambe residence.

The garden of the Edward Herrman Cohn residence on Holly Road takes full advantage of a pine-clad hill. Groups of brilliantly colored tulips, cottage, parrot and Darwin highlight the natural pine needed slope to the north of the house. A border of flowering shrubs, camellias and azaleas enjoys the filtered light of pine trees to the south. It is when the visitor arrives at the back of the house that the traditional aspect of the garden becomes apparent.

The brow of a natural declivity, overlooking the Princess Anne Golf Course, is outlined with old English box—125 all told. When the box was moved from the Cohn's former home in Princess Anne, Maryland, Mrs. Cohn and "transplanted" a charming old wrought iron fence as a proper companion for her cherished box.

A first glance at the grounds and garden of the Richardson's House, located on Lake Shore Drive in Bay Colony, reflects an atmosphere of the "well tended" traditional. The lovely white house situated on a knoll overlooks the waters of Crystal Lake.

A curving driveway, neatly bordered with azaleas and spring flowering bulbs, sweeps past an ample boat dock, to a side entrance of the house. From this vantage point it is hard to distinguish the front from the back grounds.

The velvet green lawn, skillfully planted with tidily-pruned evergreens, magnolias and flowering fruit trees, slopes gradually to the water's edge on three sides. Five wind-swept pines silhouetted against the sky at the far end of this garden peninsula silently acclaim the Richardson's garden as Tidewater's own.

There is more than meets the eye for the visitor who enters the tall wide gates of "Greystone," the Wilder estate at the foot of 52nd Street. The three storied house, in the distance, is seen through an open park planted with large magnolias, hollies, fruit trees and one unexpected specimen of California Redwood.

Two majestic white oaks shade either end of the imposing residence of balanced perfection. The capricious waters of Crystal Lake outline the spacious grounds on the south and west. To the north, a high green wall of broadleaf evergreens, running the entire length of the property beckons the visitor for closer inspection. And what is the structure, dripping with lavender wisteria that towers beyond and above the evergreen wall? Could it possibly be a windmill? In fact it is. However it was not the idea of a landscape architect, but that of Mr. Wilder's father who conceived this novel way of combining utility, beauty and sentiment in the garden picture.

A real pleasure is in store for the visitor who enjoys the serenity and quietness of a cloistered retreat. A large pyramidal English holly marks the entrance to such a spot within the confines of the evergreen border. A wide grass walk bordered with box and dwarf azaleas leads past groups of rose bushes to an island planting of specimen camellias, where it divided to circle the planting on either side.

To the right of the island is another entrance to the garden, sheltered by two rare specimens of weeping redleaf Japanese maple. From this entrance, the garden path entices the visitor still farther. On either side, the contrasting texture of juniper and arbutus focuses attention upon the unusual size and number of camellias, photinia, yaupeon and Burford Holly. Upon inquiring concerning the number of shrubs contained in the garden, Mrs. Wilder commented that she counted over one hundred and fifty camellias alone when they were fertilized recently.

At the end of the garden vista is a wide-branched apple tree. It is interesting to note that Mrs. Wilder has chosen this spot to dramatize her fondness for "real fruit" trees.

No doubt the visitor will want to rest a moment upon the curved white bench nestled against a group of "trees". There to contemplate with an exultant figure the pattern of light and shadow cast by the apple tree upon the surface of a quiet pool.

The garden of the home of Mrs. Virginia Glennan Stason at 76th Street has been charmingly designed for privacy and outdoor living. The long narrow house situated midway across the deep lot seems more of an accessory than the principal structure.

Live oaks and wild cherries grow at random in the open front lawn. Out-of-the-ordinary evergreens, podocarpus, hemlock, mahonia, cleyra and daphne interplanted along azaleas and sasanquas give a refreshing distinction to the foundation planting.

Nevertheless it is the spacious out-door living-room in the back area that particularly invites the visitor to the Stason home. A weathered stockade fence, six feet high, makes the walls on three sides. The house and screened porch insure privacy on the fourth. The ceiling of this intriguing living room is formed by the interlacing branches of live oak trees. The floor is carpeted with brick, patterned in wide walkways and beds of dwarf azaleas, illex, helier, hardy ferns and periwinkle.

According to Mrs. Stason, her "friendship patio" built by friends, "just grew a few bricks at a time" till it now encompasses the 65-foot spread of her largest live oak.

The most conspicuous feature of the room, filling the left hand corner, is a kidney-shaped swimming pool. As a striking background for the pool, Mrs. Stason features bold-leaved foliage plants, castor bean, fatia, coleus and Pfizers and dwarf cannas planted in redwood tubs. Potted flowering plants "arranged" on a series of shelves attached to the high weathered fence, add a vivid splash of color when reflected in the pool.

The garden of the F. Reid Ervin House at 77th Street, half a block from the ocean, is typically "seaside colonial". Wide picket gates, punctuated by a colonial lamp and post at the left, invite the visitor to enter an "old brick" driveway. At the garage, the driveway branches to the side in a curving walk which leads around a porch to the house itself. Dwarf azaleas, lilac and creeping phlox fill the brick-edged bed bordering the porch. The foundation planting of azaleas and broadleaf evergreens flank each side of the doorway.

A most unusual path fashioned from round flint stones leads from the breezeway to the fenced-in back area and patio.

However it is the abundance of beautiful old live oak trees that dominate the garden picture of the Ervin home. There are 19 in all, casting their filtered shadows over the sloping green lawn.

One venerable specimen, seemingly with nine trunks, where sand has accumulated through the years as the tree grew, has a leaf spread of over 60 feet.

Yee talk

DOW FINSTERWALD gives you the inside story on the
ABC-TV ALL-STAR GOLF MATCH

Hopes were high for thousands of Jackie Burke fans when he stepped up to the first tee at the Miami Country Club for his 18-hole match with Sam Snead. Said to say, Jack pushed his tee shot into the trees, around his second off of another tree to go out of bounds, and ended up with a triple bogie giving Sam a 3-stroke lead... and with the kind of golf Sam has been playing, this is fatal!

If there was any hope left in the breast of "Lightning" Jack Burke, it was smothered on the 6th. Burke hit a beautiful drive 250 yards straight down the fairway, and then placed his second about 6-feet from the pin for almost a certain victory. In the meanwhile, Snead's Sam poked his drive about 200, leaving himself 60 yards away from the pin. He studied the green carefully and then, with the showmanship of Babe Ruth at the plate calling his shot on a home run, he asked to have Burke's ball spotted and removed from the green. Snead then stepped up and hit a perfectly executed wedge shot which landed almost precisely where Burke's ball had been... from there it smoothly rolled the rest of the way into the can for an eagle 2 on a par 4 hole!

Snead's first round was a brilliant 31 against Burke's 38. On the back nine, Snead continued to hit a tremendously long ball from the tees, combining this with a precision game on the green. Burke, in the meanwhile, continued to have trouble with his putting and, as the match progressed, it was just a question of how wide the margin of victory would be for Snead. Snead had a sure 64 in his grasp, but he faltered on the 18th with his only bogie, ending with a 65. Burke, never recovering from his heart-breaking first hole, was forced to take a 75 for his day's play. Snead pocketed $2,500, bringing his total earnings on All-Star Golf to $24,000.

Next week, Stan Leonard, the Canadian pro, steps up to do his best against the invincible Snead. What can I say, other than... Good Luck, Stan... and be sure to check back at this same column next week when, as your Mainstream golf reporter, I will tell you in on all the details.

to forge a ring of steel

In a circle twenty-five miles from the center of Norfolk, batteries of Nike Ajax missiles point threateningly at the sky, ready to leap to the defense of the vital heart of Hampton Roads.

To weld this deadly chain into a unified striking force, the C & P Telephone Company helped design and install an intricate communications system. Using telephone lines and ultra-high frequency radio, it provides a centralized control for the Army Air Defense Command

Post. Over its circuits, firing orders can flash simultaneously to the waiting Nike batteries, turning the ring of steel into a rising ring of fire—a shield for you and all Virginia.

Your safety—your life—may depend on good communications in a national emergency. It is largely our duty to see that these communications are the finest possible and that they are always ready for action. It is a duty we accept with pride—to serve Virginia and our nation.

VEPCO BETTER LIVING DEMONSTRATION

ALL-ELECTRIC KITCHEN

NONE ADVISOR: You'll want many other electric servants. But here's how I'd pick a basic All-Electric Kitchen staff.

YOU: Which would you call most important?

NONE ADVISOR: That's hard to say, because the wonderful thing about an All-Electric Kitchen is the way the whole staff works together and works with you. But I'd start with the cooking team. A Refrigerator-Freezer to keep both fresh and frozen food. And an Automatic Electric Range. The range is a joy. It lets you cook better, more accurately. It gives you the world's easiest cooking. And the automatic boy cleans and clock-controlled oven save you hours of pot-watching and oven hovering.

YOU: But cooking's fun. I'd rather save on clean-up time.

NONE ADVISOR: Then you'll certainly want an Electric Dishwasher and a Food Disposer... backed up by an Electric Water Heater. Together they save at least five or six hours a week... give you cleaner dishes... magic away garbage down the drain.

Add your choice of smaller electric helpers: Exhaust fan, Mince, automatic Coffee Maker, Pop-Up Toaster. And you're all set from mixing to sizzling in an All-Electric Dream Kitchen!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Doc Didn't Pull His Punch

The other day Doc Williams got to talking about one of his patients.

"This fellow had a bad tooth," he explained, "but I felt that I could save it with a few prompt treatments. Then, after that one visit it was six months before he came back."

"What time?" Doc said. "This fellow came in again, to tell me that he had a new tooth. I said, 'I told you that you could save it with a few prompt treatments. Then, after that one visit it was six months before he came back.'"

From where I sit, trouble gets worse with neglect. That's why we should never have "toothache" in any form. Sometimes it crops up in little things like a pain in the ear, or telling him what kind of television program he should watch. Let's all respect our neighbor's preferences and... at each other's freedom.

News and Views of Aragona Village

By ELAINE HANLEY

RECREATION CENTER WILL SOON BE MORE THAN DREAM

Three years ago Aragona Village consisted of only a few dozen dwellings but, today, there are hundreds of modern homes, in a setting of gracefully curving drives and streets. There are homes, large and small, some with trees shading the yards and terraces, some with trim, sleek lawns to suit the modern taste, and a style and design to please every taste. There are conveniences of every kind for the homeowners. There is an excellent school. There are several churches, gas stations, a shopping center with an abundance of parking space. With all this bounty the residents and homeowners have felt a growing need for a recreation center, a community meeting place for the adult residents with civic interests to discuss, but, most of all, a safe and suitable place for the children of the Village to enjoy playground facilities and other sports activities.

There have been several groups, from time to time, which have devoted much discussion and taken action to stimulate the interest of the community in such a project. There is the Aragona Civic League, of which Mr. Earl Hagan is president, the Aragona Community Center, of which Mr. Harold Spilka is president, with the assistance of Mr. C. R. Hendon, a member of the board of trustees, the Rev. S. York, Pharr, and Messrs. H. Land and L. Marshall with many others, all of whom have given impetus to the program of providing a recreational center for the Village.

The modern Aragona Village recognizes the real advantages of having a playground and building where their children will be safe and off the streets, where with proper supervision, instruction and guidance there will be a haven of safety for the youngsters. The mothers have not been idle. Already there have been several projects sponsored by the women in the community where the projects realized from their efforts will be donated, in time to the project. The children, too, have done their part. There have been plays and activities of various kinds all helping to build toward reality the dream of every homeowner in the Village, namely, the Recreation Center.

Mr. John Aragona recently met with the civic leaders in the Village for the purpose of discussing the Recreation Center project. Definite plans are well under way. It is hoped that formalities will soon be consummated for the incorporation of the organization to legally accept the deed to the land which Mr. Aragona has graciously offered to donate for the use of the Recreation Center. Mr. Aragona has expressed an earnest desire to assist the group in every way and has offered many helpful ideas and suggestions as to the manner in which the project might be financed.

The hard work which has already been done to get the project well under way, and the enthusiastic response indicated by the families in the Village is really just the first step toward the important goal — the completed building and playground. The leaders of these groups, urge each and every parent and resident home owner to come out to the meetings and give suggestions and every possible help to put their suggestions into action. With the full cooperation and assistance of the home owners in the Village, it is felt that it will be only a short time until the Aragona Village Recreation Center will be a reality, but it means — not just talking about it — but going and assistance in doing something about it. Come out to the meetings, homeowners! Summer and play-time is just around the corner — and, too, a warm meeting place for those cold winter evenings could be fun.

GARDEN CLUB ACTIVITIES

The Aragona Garden Club is the very spirit of spring in the Village, as it is about to be. Their meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month, at 8 p.m., at the Christ Presbyterian Church. This month's meeting will be held April 14th. There will be judging of flower arrangements and critical analysis by Mrs. S. Romano.

On April 14th, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. there will be a flower clinic conducted by Mrs. H. Hagan. The fee for this activity is $1.00 per person for non-members. Baby sitting service will be provided and the ladies may bring their lunch.

In the midst of all the activity of construction equipment, road graders, and an assortment of workmen who constantly move about the Village, the Garden Club broke ground at the entrance to the Village recently with the definite plan of beautifying the entrance. With a few sunny days and the light rains of spring — there will soon be another beauty spot to which the ladies of the Village might point with pride.

On April 21st, members of the Garden Club and their guests will attend the show, "Your Boy, Roy," conducted by W.C.M.S. and will broadcast from Burroughs Restaurant, 10:30 a.m. to 11 a.m.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Mrs. V. R. Neill, leader of Girl Scout Troop 562, reports that on March 27th, three Girl Scout Troops, comprising about 30 girls from intermediate Troop 561, Brown Troop 562 and Brown Troop 601, enjoyed a "grand tour" of the giant Food Fair store at the Aragona Village Shopping Center. The manager of the store provided a guide to show the group around the magnificent store, where to the delight of all the girls there were many interesting things brought to light about the preparation and distribution of food. After the tour was completed each Girl Scout was presented with a baby chick.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Mr. Edward Rucka, Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 379 reported that a Court of Honor was held on March 20th, when several badges were awarded to George Dockstader, Dennis Baker, Dave Johnson, Vern Meyer, Douglas Smith, James Counts, Mark Gomez, and Richard Smith. Second class badge was awarded to Mike Moran and James Stancil was awarded Life Scout Badge and 10 merit badges.

Troop 379 is scheduled to go on an overnight hike to Camp Baker on April 18th.

BASKETBALL AND BOYS

Spring sunshine and warm days mixed well with a group of lively boys, sprinkled with an smattering of competition, and the shrill happy voices of admiring fans in the bleachers, makes for a real spring tonic enjoyed by all who have life in their veins and that spells Basketball and Boys.

Even the Dads in the Village are showing up on the sidelines. It's in the air — come out for the tryouts. Competition is keen, but there's room on the team if you get out early.

Tryouts for the Pony League and Pony Grad League will be held on Saturday, April 11th, at Aragona Elementary School. Boys eligible for Pony League and Pony Grad League may contact Mr. John Lewis, at GY 7-212 and boys interested in signing up for the Midlet League may contact Mr. Carl Annino, at GY 7-212.

The big boys, meaning the "daddies" of the Village, are invited to help with the teams as needed, so come on out and sit in the grandstand.

Texas Builder

Visits Tidewater

Texas builder, William Elliott visited the Tidewater area as a first-hand look at one of the nation's outstanding builders in the field of relocation housing. William E. Witt, currently president of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders and the Virginia Association of Home Builders.

Witt has specialized in "quality-budget" homes for people being displaced by highway, school and urban renewal programs since 1955, when the federal and local programs began moving into high gear.

"Economy in homebuilding, unlike that in the automobile industry, does not mean that we have to produce the 'small car' to get lower payments," said Witt. "We can provide good living space, quality design, neighborhood amenities and a lifetime investment at a very nominal cost as long as we obtain reasonable financing."

Elliott looked into land development and construction as well as financing techniques designed to give more people more home and neighborhood at less money."

He is also a member of the national realtor's Washington committee on federal legislation and Regional Vice President for the National Association of Home Builders.

Witt and Elliott both stated their conviction that the home building industry needed the Housing Act of 1958, now pending in the Congress, not only for new housing, but for Urban Renewal, Elderly Housing, Veterans and improved FHA programs such as that pertaining to Trade-In Housing.

DESTINATION: Church

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Matthew	43	1-4
Monday	Matthew	45	1-12
Tuesday	Matthew	46	1-12
Wednesday	John	21	1-13
Thursday	John	21	15-25
Friday	1 Corinthians	15	1-20
Saturday	Revelation	1	1-20

their heart. They go to church not only because they feel they should, but because they want to. Church, so then, is one of the most joyful decisions of the heart.

No one ever said that going to church had to be a grim, long-faced affair. Going to church isn't a chore. It's a privilege.

Make church your destination this Sunday and joyfully,

HARD TIMES

"What's the matter with you?" the wife demanded. "Monday you liked beans. Tuesday you liked beans. Wednesday you liked beans. Now Thursday, all of a sudden, you don't like beans."

LIME IMPORTANT FACTOR IN FARMING

"If I couldn't get lime, I wouldn't be a farmer."

That statement, made by the late VPI Dean of Agriculture, T. B. Hutcheson, is still being quoted by today's agricultural experts.

Neither fertilizer nor lime will give the best results when used alone. Farmers should use lime to correct soil acidity, and fertilizer to supply plant nutrients. Liming is as badly needed to day as when it was first done by farmers. One reason for this continuing need for lime is that more fertilizer is being used, and most of the fertilizer leaves an acid residue in the soil.

NATURAL RESOURCE CONSERVATION SHORT COURSE PLANNED IN STATE

Three two-week short courses in "natural resource conservation" will be held this summer in Virginia.

Designed primarily for public school teachers, the short courses also are open to other interested individuals. They will be held at VPI, June 15 to July 1; Virginia State College, June 29 to July 17; and William & Mary, July 27 to August 14.

A limited number of scholarships are available to public school teachers. Applications for scholarships should be sent before May 1 to the Virginia Resource Use Education Council, Box 1642, Richmond.

Subjects to be taught include geology, soils, forestry, and wildlife. Four and one-half quarter hours credit will be given for satisfactory completion of the course.

LANDSCAPE SHORT COURSE PLANNED IN MAY AT VPI

A landscape short course, featuring subjects of interest to highway landscape engineers, park superintendents, city managers, nurserymen, and others, will be held at VPI May 5-7.

This year the program will have split sessions on the opening day. One session will be devoted to highway landscaping, and the other will feature discussions on landscaping and maintaining parks and public grounds. A general session will be held on the second day. The final day will be a field tour to visit research projects and view equipment.

Individuals attending the sessions will be encouraged to present their particular problems, preferably in advance. No registration fee is charged. Further details are available from A. S. Beecher, Department of Horticulture, VPI, Blacksburg.

GREEN JUNE BEETLE TROUBLESHOOTER IN STATE

A springtime application of parathion will help control the green June beetle, a pest that can cause extensive damage to pastures and lawns.

The larva of the green June beetle is often a serious pest in ladino clover or ladino clover-orchard grass pastures. In several infestations, the top of the soil is so well pulverized by the grub that the root systems of the plants are severely damaged. The entire stand can be lost in hot, dry periods when the pasture is grazed heavily.

Parathion, applied anytime now before May 1, can be used in the dust, granulated, or spray form. In the spring it should be applied only on warm days when most of the grubs are active. Late afternoon is probably the best time of the day to apply the chemical.

Parathion is poisonous, and especially toxic to warm-blooded animals. Be careful when using it. Remove livestock from the pasture before the treatment and do not let them back on until one week after application.

VERTICAL INTEGRATION—WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

"Vertical integration" is a phrase that rolls frequently from the lips of agricultural experts. What does it mean?

Vertical integration means the linking together of two or more stages of production, processing, or marketing activities under one management. The key feature is that decision-making, risk-taking, and supervision are centralized.

It is a practice common in many non-agricultural industries, and many people think it will become a dominant force in agriculture.

RECORDS IMPORTANT IN EGG PRODUCTION

Egg production is becoming more and more a business enterprise with a smaller margin of profit per dozen.

And, says D. D. Bragg, poultry specialist at VPI, records are needed on daily and total egg production, mortality, feed use, pounds of feed per dozen of eggs, and other items which have a bearing on profit and loss. Records also help at income tax time.

Bragg advises egg-producers to form the habit of sitting down for a few minutes at the end of each day and recording each transaction. Record books and forms are available from County Agents and/or feed servicemen.

PRICES FOR FAT CATTLE HOLD UP WELL IN VIRGINIA

Prices have held up remarkably well throughout the winter months at the special state-graded fat-cattle sales in Fredericksburg and Richmond.

Sales began at Fredericksburg December 1 and at Richmond on January 15, and have continued at about three-week intervals since. The usual drop expected in slaughter cattle prices around February came with little force. A short-lived price decline on fat cattle occurred in mid-February, but cattle feeders have sold their cattle this winter about like they did in the spring of 1958. Most of them seem to be in the position that if demand for fed cattle is good and prices favorable, they will sell as their cattle are ready. On the other hand, if demand drops or if there are enough cattle going to market to reduce prices, the feeders cut back on movement to market and packers are forced to bid higher. When this situation prevails, prices don't usually drop very far.

At the Fredericksburg fat-cattle sale February 19, and at the Richmond sale February 20, prices were at or near the bottom for the winter, with the better end of the choice cattle topping at around 28c a pound. With cattle feeders following an orderly marketing program, feed-cattle prices have now about recovered to January levels.

At a mid-March Fredericksburg sale, the choice cattle sold around $29 per cwt, with one pen of 970-pound choice steers selling for $28.50.

Steer prices in general in Chicago for the week of March 9 moved to the highest levels since early last summer, and it has just been estimated that cattle prices are now back to 100% of parity for the first time in seven years.

NEW BULLETINS NOW AVAILABLE

Home owners and gardeners in Virginia can get many helpful tips from some new and/or revised publications of the VPI Agricultural Extension Service.

Now available from my office, the publications include:

Circular 605 (Revised) - Timely Control of Garden Diseases and Insects. Many people think the control of garden diseases and insects consists only of spraying and dusting. This leaflet also emphasizes the importance of good growing conditions, good seed and plants, and use of disease-resistant varieties.

Circular 639 (Revised) - Vegetable Gardening in Virginia. A feature of this circular is a planting chart which shows number of seed or plants to use per 100 feet of row, planting times, depth of planting, and estimated yields, per 100 feet of row. Also included is information on planning the garden; providing organic matter, fertilizer and lime; growing plants; and controlling diseases and insects.

Circular 790 - Ornamental Fruit for the Home Grounds. The grounds of many homes in the late fall or winter are often drab and uninteresting because plants with showy fruits or evergreen foliage have not been used. A partial list of plants with showy fruit is given in this circular.

Circular 802 - Controlling Lawns and Turfgrass Diseases. Lawn and turf grasses vary in their susceptibility to disease. Diseases are more likely to occur when lawns have been improperly established or maintained. This leaflet gives control measures for various turf grass diseases, including leafspot, brown patch, dollar spot, rust, powdery mildew, and algae.

Circular 819 - Raspberry and Blackberry Spray Calendar. Many growers consider anthracnose as the most important fungus disease of raspberries, dewberries, and blackberries. This publication gives a spray control program for anthracnose and offers suggestions for controlling certain other diseases affecting berries.

Also just off the press at VPI are these bulletins: Bulletin 223 (revised) - Forestry in Virginia. Used widely by 4-H club members, this bulletin discusses such topics as how a tree lives and grows, forest trees of Virginia, and enemies of the forest. Included are suggested studies on growth of trees, identification of trees, and planting trees.

Bulletin 499 - Swine Breeding. An experiment station publication, this reports the results of research in swine breeding at the Tidewater Research Station at Holland. Comparisons among three purebred stocks indicated that the Virginia Black Inbred line produced the highest number of pounds of pork at weaning.

FIRE DEPT. AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING

The Woman's Auxiliary of The London Bridge Fire Dept. will meet Tuesday, April 14, at 8 p.m. at the fire station.

Home Builders Association to Meet April 15

An indoctrination meeting for all home builders operating in the areas of northern and central Virginia, Washington, D.C., and parts of Maryland, including Baltimore has been scheduled by the Federal Housing Administration in cooperation with the Home Builders Association of Metropolitan Washington, to explain the new Minimum Property Standards of both the FHA and the VA. The meeting will be an all-day session at the National Housing Center in Washington D.C. on April 15 from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., according to Thomas C. Barringer, director of the Washington Insuring office of FHA.

The all-day indoctrination session has been called to enable builders who are constructing homes financed within this FHA and VA region to achieve an orderly transition in the application of these new minimum property standards which went into effect April 1st this year.

Changed provisions in the new MPS book will be explained to builders attending from this area by a panel of FHA and VA technical experts.

Home Builders Association of Metropolitan Washington is providing the facilities for this meeting which will be open to all industry people and not be exclusively for HBA members. Visual aids will be used and special information kits will be distributed to builders at the meeting.

The recently published minimum property standards apply to one and two-family living unit construction and must be applied in all housing constructed under either VA or FHA insured housing started in this area after the first of July 1958. The transition period will accommodate certain prefabricators and large builders who schedule design and planning far in advance of actual field construction.

An Irony of the Century

This has been a century of medical milestones.

Since 1900, life expectancy has risen from 47 years to nearly 70 years. Since 1900, the nation's population has doubled. But the number of Americans 65 years old and over has more than quadrupled—from 3,000,000 to 14,000,000.

Among Americans 65 and over, most killing diseases of the past have been effectively controlled. Since 1900, influenza and pneumonia deaths have declined nearly 80 per cent in persons over 65 while tuberculosis deaths have been reduced by 95 per cent. The cancer death rate, on the other hand, has risen 91 per cent since 1900. And unless this rate is checked, the annual death toll from cancer will double within the next 50 years. The disease already claims 255,000 Americans a year, half of them 65 and over. By 1975, the number of Americans over 65 years old is expected to exceed 20,000,000.

Must we be resigned to a formula which states that more life is equal to more cancer? Obviously not.

The problem of cancer has a solution.

This disease will be overcome as other dread afflictions have been overcome. If cancer has lasted longer, it is proof only that more must be done to conquer it.

More research is needed. That means more scientists, more equipment, more centers for training and instruction.

Public education must be stepped up. The cancer patient needs more and better care.

Our doctors need more information on the best means of diagnosis and treatment of cancer.

To achieve these objectives, the fight against cancer needs more money. How much more? As much as it will take to eliminate cancer as a major killing disease. That would be an attainment, cheap at any price.

The goal of the 1959 Cancer Crusade is a vital one. The goal is unlimited. No price should be put on the lives of the 40,000,000 Americans who will some day get cancer.

Let all of us give all-out support to the American Cancer Society for its unlimited drive against cancer.

Former Court Clerk to Face Theft Counts

A special Princess Anne Circuit Court grand jury Tuesday indicted George W. Halstead Jr. on charges of embezzling $9,800.50 while he was clerk of County Court and Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.

Halstead, who tendered $10,000 last Nov. 11 to cover the alleged shortage, was indicted on seven counts of embezzlement, one of grand larceny, and one charging misuse or misappropriation of public funds. The nine indictments overlapped.

The seven-man jury deliberated all day Thursday and half a day Tuesday before returning the true bills. A capias was issued for Halstead, and he was brought before Judge Robert S. Wahab Jr. by Deputy Sheriff D. J. Vaughan to arrange for bond.

Bond was fixed at $5,000, returnable June 1 at the next meeting of the grand jury.

Halstead, a Princess Anne County native, was named clerk of the Princess Anne County courts effective Dec. 1, 1956. A report made by State Auditor J. Gordon Bennett and released last Nov. 25 said: "When the existence of the deficiency was discovered with the clerk (Halstead), he stated that in as much as he had been charged by the judge (Judge J. Davis Reed Jr.) with responsibility for proper accounting of funds of the court he would assume financial responsibility for the deficiency."

The matter has been under investigation for some months by the office of the Commonwealth's Attorney, Both Commonwealth's Attorney, J. Edgar Hollander III, participated in the presentment.

Raymond F. Niemeyer Jr. and John M. Purcell, representatives of the office of the State Auditor of Public Accounts, went before the grand jury.

Said to be missing was $3,387.52 in public funds and $3,492.98 in accounts for the courts. The nine indictments charge that the shortages occurred between July 1, 1957 and Oct. 10, 1958. The latter date was said to be the last on which Halstead appeared at his office.

Halstead, who sat quietly in Circuit Court while the matter of bond was discussed, declined to comment on the case to a reporter. Later in the day, bond was posted, and Halstead was released pending further action.

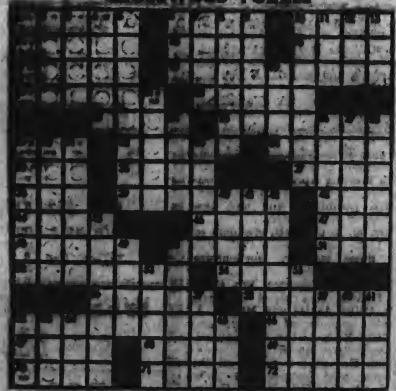

Lt. Zehner was foreman of the jury. Other jurors were: O. H. Buyn, James S. Ives, Lewis Thurston, John B. Land, John Dudley and James W. Halstead.

Miss O'Neill will spend Friday morning at the Friends School at Virginia Beach. She will speak to the children about books that have been written by her and by other authors. ## United Cerebral Palsy Outlook Is Bright

The 1958 report of United Cerebral Palsy's Research and Educational Foundation indicates that major breakthroughs in the field of cerebral palsy are not only possible but may happen in the near future, according to Thomas P. Dickinson, president of United Cerebral Palsy of Virginia, Inc.

Mr. Dickinson said the latest report, received by the local UCP affiliate today, notes that several important findings in research show considerable promise in determining the causes of cerebral palsy, finding methods of prevention and improving current treatment.

Among these findings is a series of studies directed toward treatment of maternal and paternal factors in blood which has made possible the virtual elimination of kernicterus as a serious problem in cerebral palsy. Kernicterus is an excess of bile pigment in the brain and spinal cord which injures nerve cells.

Another development, according to the report, is the clinical application of basic research findings which now makes it possible for the neurosurgeon to remove subdural hematomas relatively soon after their occurrence in order to eliminate the resulting brain damage. Subdural hematomas are areas of hemorrhage under the brain covering.

Mr. Dickinson said the report further shows that, because cerebral palsy is outside of the boundaries of a so-called cure, the universal goal of all research in cerebral palsy is to provide a means, or a series of means, of prevention.

Because the task is urgent and one which involves virtually every technique employed by medical scientists to date, United Cerebral Palsy and its Research and Educational Foundation are placing more and more emphasis on basic and applied research and training of professional personnel.

The report notes that in 1958, United Cerebral Palsy awarded 66 grants and fellowships and 56 training scholarships. Since its founding in 1948 United Cerebral Palsy has invested nearly $4,000,000 in research and training.

State Motor Boat Safety Regulations Under Study

Virginia has embarked on a voyage having as its announced destination a State law regulating motor boats primarily in the interest of safety afloat.

Pivoting the ship is a subcommittee of the State Commission on Interstate Cooperation headed by Miss Martha Bell Conway, Secretary of the Commonwealth and assisted by a large advisory group named by Governor Almond.

Following a "get together" orientation meeting in Richmond on April 6, at which many phases of the problem were discussed, the group appeared agreed that a State Motor Boat Law is necessary, in view of the tremendous increase in recent years of the number of small boats now in use and the absence of safety and other regulatory measures for most of them. The group decided:

1. To hold a meeting later in April with the commandant of the Fifth United States Coast Guard district primarily to clarify the question of jurisdiction between the Coast Guard and the State, on the assumption that a State law will be enacted.

2. To plan other meetings in Virginia at which motor boat owners and others interested may have an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the problem and discuss comments and suggestions as to provisions for a State law, such as the amount of the registration fee; what boats, if any, should be exempt; and what agency should administer the law.

3. To invite letters from persons in Virginia who wish to comment on any phase of the problem. Miss Conway said all letters should be addressed to her office in Richmond. Because of staff limitation, she said it will not be possible to reply to letters, but all communications will be carefully considered.

Virginia's interest in a State Motor Boat Law stems from the enactment by Congress of the Boater Act, which provides that in the interest of safety afloat, all boats powered by motors may be registered by an agency created by the State government.

Under the Boater Act, Virginia and the other states have until April 1, 1960 to enact State legislation. In this respect, the State law provides that the Coast Guard will number and inspect boats with motors of 10 or more horsepower. The Coast Guard will also collect an initial fee of $5.00 for every such boat.

However, where there is an effective State law, the Federal fee is not imposed. State regulations must be consistent with the Federal act and certain administrative regulations, but the State may adopt provisions which are broader than the Federal provisions, if it wishes. In drafting the State law, the General Assembly will not be limited in its consideration by the horsepower of the motor and the size of the boat and may fix the State registration fee at any amount, Miss Conway said.

Virginia is fortunate, Miss Conway stated, in that the State will have the benefit of similar legislation now in session. In its consideration of the best provisions for a Virginia law. As a result of its work, the Virginia group will draft a proposed bill for presentation to the General Assembly, to meet in January, 1960.

Rough estimates are that 200,000 or more boats in Virginia could be affected by the proposed State law—the number depending upon the unit of horsepower stipulated in the State law.

The proposed law will designate the agency to administer it; will provide for financing the program, which will include a boat registration fee; will designate safety devices for boats, accident reports and other regulations; will establish an enforcement division and will provide for a board to direct the program.

The subcommittee headed by Miss Conway includes Delegate Mrs. Inez D. Baker, of Portsmouth; Delegate Shirley T. Holland, of Windsor; and Senator Edward E. Willey, of Richmond. The Advisory Committee appointed to serve with the subcommittee include G. Alvin Massenburg, of Hampton; William A. Hall, of Norfolk; Lloyd R. Amory, Jr., of Hampton; Day Lowry, of Richmond; James E. Mays, of Norfolk; S. Claude Rogers, Jr., of Virginia Beach; Ben H. Bolen, of Radford; W. A. Page, Jr., of Richmond; Charles M. Lankford, of Frankfort; J. Fenton Jones, of Accomac; William Hunt, of Hampton; Eugene Jaeger, of Norfolk; W. M. Johnson, Jr., of Richmond. Additions to the advisory group may be made by Governor Almond, Miss Conway said.

Raymond V. Long, of Richmond, Chairman of the State Commission on Interstate Cooperation, met with the group at its first meeting. Long is Director, Virginia Department of Conservation and Economic Development.

The MIXING BOWL.. IT'S Fun TO COOK

Scoop a Summer Snowball!

Scoop ice cream into 8 balls. Roll balls in coconut flakes. Place in freezing tray of refrigerator for about 1 hour. Put about a tablespoonful of apricot sauce in individual dishes. Place a Coconut Snowball on each serving. Garnish with tender-thin flaked coconut.

Errata: Apricot Sauce

1 cup sugar
1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
Dash of salt
2 cups cold water
2 cups fresh apricots, pitted and quartered
Combine sugar, cornstarch, and salt in saucepan. Add cold water and blend. Add apricots. Place over medium heat and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Then cook 3 to 5 minutes, or until clear. Cool slightly. Serve on Coconut Snowballs.

It's good with strawberry sauce or just crushed and sweetened strawberries—frozen ones if you like. Bye now—and don't worry about the calories.

Jefferson enjoyed home-made vanilla ice cream as a delightful dessert on many, many occasions. It was none other than Thomas Jefferson, writer of the Declaration of Independence, a great Virginia, who penned the first American Ice Cream Recipe.

Most people know in a general way that, in addition to being statesman, philosopher, architect and naturalist, our first Democratic President was an epicure. But few realize to what lengths he carried his interest in fine foods.

While in France as Minister to the court of Louis XVI, Jefferson, then a widower, devoted himself wholeheartedly to learning the intricacies of Paris' haute cuisine. He explored particularly the art of making such elegant French desserts as vanilla ice cream (no takers for granted commonplace in those days), vanilla meringues and biscuits d'avoine. He copied the recipes by hand as painstaking as he did the terms of political treaties, and packed them for transport across the Atlantic in a precious document case.

In Paris Jefferson fell in love with the vanilla bean, which had taken the French culinary world by storm a few years before, and acquired the true Parisian's skill in distilling its exquisite flavor. When he returned to the United States he brought several hundred beans with him but ordered them used sparingly in the ice creams, pastries and macaroons served in his Philadelphia establishment that the supply ran short within the year. Jefferson, greatly perturbed, dispatched this SOS to his friend William Short in Paris: "It (vanilla) is unknown here. I must pray you to send me 50 pods (batons)". The pod, or baton, to which he refers is, of course, the scabbard-shaped vanilla bean.

Today's ice cream is adapted from Thomas Jefferson's original recipe. Thanks to such inventions as refrigerator freezing trays, troublesome steps with the sorbeterie (ice pills), salt and spatula are eliminated. And all the flavor richness of pure vanilla is added—but out of a modern handy extract bottle instead of by the time-consuming process of distilling from the vanilla "baton" (piece of bean) as directed in his recipe.

Sometime ago, this interesting information came from the Home Economics Department of Bernard L. Lewis Inc., New York and I knew you'd love reading about our great Virginian and having his recipe for making vanilla ice cream.

Navy Kiddie Day At Ocean View

On Saturday, May 2, during the hours of 1 and 6 p.m., Ocean View Amusement Park will be buzzing with the children of the Navy families residing in the Tidewater area.

Each child will be given a strip of tickets good for 5 FREE rides at the Amusement Center. 2,000 tickets will be distributed by the Norfolk Naval Station.

There is being sponsored jointly by Ocean View Amusement Park and the Navy Guide. This is an annual event and is presented as a salute to the Navy families who form a large segment of the local population.

Many special attractions are being planned for the occasion. Joe Brown, Director of the Navy Guide, will be master of ceremonies on the Outdoor Stage where contests for prizes will be staged and other suitable entertainment will be provided for the Navy children.

Bob and Chauncey, famous WTATV personalities, will be there too to help with the fun. Announcements of where tickets may be obtained will be made by the Naval Station through their usual news distribution sources.

Vanilla Ice Cream

(An adaptation of Thomas Jefferson's recipe)

1 rennet tablet
1 tablespoon cold water
2 cups light cream
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
3 egg yolks, beaten

1 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
Cup rennet tablet and dissolve in cold water. Combine remaining ingredients and heat to lukewarm, stirring constantly. Test a drop on the inside of the wrist frequently. When comfortably warm (110°F.) remove at once. Add dissolved rennet tablet. Stir a few seconds only. Pour at once while the mixture is still liquid into an ice cube tray. Do not disturb for 10 minutes while milk sets. Place in freezing compartment of refrigerator and freeze until almost firm. Remove from tray, break up with a fork and beat with a rotary beater or electric beater until fluffy and free from lumps, but still as thick as mush. Return to freezing tray and freeze until firm.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Vanilla Chocolate Sauce

2 squares unsweetened chocolate
1/2 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/2 cup sugar

1 cup dark corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
Melt chocolate and butter or margarine over hot water. Add sugar, corn syrup and salt. Bring just to boiling point, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in pure vanilla extract. Serve over ice cream cake or other desserts. Store in a covered jar in the refrigerator. If this sauce thickens on standing, thin with a little hot water to desired consistency, beginning with 1 tablespoon hot water.

Yield: 1 1/2 cups.

Vanilla Pound Cake

1 pound butter or margarine
2 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
2 1/2 teaspoons pure vanilla extract
4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder

Mix butter or margarine until fluffy. Combine sugar and salt and gradually blend into the butter or margarine. Beat in eggs, one at a time, and pure vanilla extract. Sift flour with baking powder and gradually stir into the mixture. Turn into an ungreased 10x4-inch tube baking pan. Bake in a preheated slow oven (325°F.) 1 1/2 hours or until done. Turn out onto wire rack to cool. Slice in a lightly oiled pan.

Yield: 12 servings.

VANILLA TIPS

Tips for Cupcakes
Here's a peanut butter-lover's special! Blend together a 3-ounce package cream cheese with 1 cup peanut butter, 1/2 cup corn milk and 1/2 teaspoon pure vanilla extract. Gradually stir in 2 cups sifted confectionery sugar and beat until smooth. Freeze 12 cupcakes in creamy swirls.

Apricot Biscuits and Compote

Drain juice from a large can of whole apricots and place in saucepan with a few pieces of lemon rind and 1 teaspoon pure vanilla. Simmer 15 minutes. Serve chilled.

Quick Pear Crumble

Arrange peeled pear halves in a shallow baking dish over which sprinkle a crumb mixture made with equal parts of soft butter or margarine and light brown sugar and tuck as much sliced all-purpose flour. Bake 30 minutes. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup raisins and 1/2 cup crumble and bake 15 minutes in a preheated hot oven (375°F.). Serve warm with soft vanilla ice cream.

Dancers Are Announced for Oceana Operetta

"A little knowledge can be a dangerous thing," is aptly demonstrated when Ralmon, as the Sorcerer's apprentice, portrayed by Walter Pittman in the operetta of the same name, which will be presented by the Oceana School in the School Auditorium this Friday, April 17, at 8 p.m.; finds himself unable to command the broomstick to fetch water, but unable to command it to stop. Also his inexperienced magical power fall him when he is urged by the taunts of his fellow Begonians to bring forth a dragon from a near by stump. For in place of a fearful dragon, winsome bunnies come jumping out!

The broomstick, bunny and village dances are under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Myers, as Dance Director, and will be danced by: Judy Strickland, Betty Ann Bailey, Marsha Harrier, Louise Rappold, Carol Nevins, Marcia Hammond, Suzanne Shoemaker, and Shannon Schwegler as Village Dancers; Judy Pappas, Anne Gibson, Phyllis Keidrelin, Sandra McNeill, Barbara Colley, Bridget Edwards, and Linda Havens, as Broomsticks; and Jennifer Camper, Susan Kadas, Jeanne Sue Ives, Carol Walton, Pamela Hogue, Ann Purtee, and Nina Flora as Bunnies.

Your Social Security

By EARL W. TRINKLE
Field Representative

Herbert Wise was bothered. For years he had heard stories about Government red tape and now he and his wife Helen were preparing to tangle with it. What would those social security people ask them when they would go to apply for their old-age retirement benefits? How many forms would they have to fill out in triplicate; what special papers, records and documents would they be required to produce? Just how far, Herbert pondered, would Uncle Sam look down his throat.

It was, therefore, a pleasant surprise for Herbert when his interview was completed at his local social security office to find that his experience was not an unpleasant one. Neither Herbert nor Helen had had any forms to be done in triplicate, they hadn't had any third degree. To be sure, they have been requested to provide certain documents, but as the social security man explained, these were kept to the minimum necessary to guarantee the correctness of the payments.

Herbert could not deny that a person claiming benefits when he becomes 65 should be required to submit evidence that he had reached that age. In the same way, it was not unreasonable that a woman who files for "widow's benefits" be required to submit evidence such as a marriage certificate to show that she is really the widow. After all, her entitlement to benefits would be based almost entirely on the fact that she is the legal spouse of the wage earner involved.

As a matter of fact, Helen had not been able to obtain a copy of her birth certificate because the town hall records had been burned in the great Shelsea fire of 1905. The social security man quickly calmed her fear that she would be unable to receive benefits because her birth certificate was unavailable. He told her that they were aware that for various reasons many people cannot obtain their birth certificates and for that reason they would usually accept other documents showing age, such as baptismal certificates, school records, naturalization certificates, marriage records, a family Bible, insurance policies, and the like, provided the document submitted was originally issued a good many years ago.

Helen did have an old family Bible which had an entry that showed her age but Herbert was not quite satisfied. What happens, he wanted to know, if a person just cannot locate any document showing his age. The social security man stated that if a person had trouble in finding a record of his age, he should seek the assistance of the social security office as there are many acceptable records of age which people don't generally know about and to which they could direct him.

It seemed to Herbert that this was indeed a cooperative attitude but he insisted, all this looking around for records would tend to delay payment of benefits. To this the social security man assented. In order to avoid delay, he said, a person coming in to file a claim should bring with him his social security card and evidence of his age as well as his last year's "Withholding Statement" if he is a wage earner or copies of his last year's Federal Income Tax Return if he is self-employed.

These documents, however, are only those usually needed in connection with a retirement benefit claim. There are cases where other papers are required. For example, when a widow files for survivor benefits for herself and her children under 18, she may have to submit a death certificate, and birth certificates for the children. In view of the different requirements, potential claimants are urged to find out just what papers are needed before and to bring them along when coming into the office to file the application for benefits. This could mean a substantial saving in the time it takes to start the checks coming in.

BARBELLA BEAR wins once more...

Barbella Bear was a champion weight-lifter—she'd even beaten the big Russian bears at the Olympics. As she held Hubert Manager. "I just couldn't have done it without my phone."

"Aw, come on, that's crazy," said Hubert. "You sound like a C & P commercial!" "No, I'm serious," said Barbella. "Since the phone has saved me all the time and energy I need for practice."

"What's more," concluded Barbella happily, "it doesn't cost very much—and it's worth an awful lot more than it costs." "Why, just look at me, Hubert—just what the phone's done for me!"

"My dear," said Hubert, "you have brains to match your beauty. Will you do me the honor of becoming Mrs. Manager?" "I sure will!" replied Barbella, beaming, raising him in a smooth one-arm lift.

Short cut to middle age

From washboard to automatic washer. From hands-and-knees scrub brush to power scrubber and polisher. One by one, within VEPCO's fifty-year memory, electricity has ended the short cuts to middle age that once opened to each bride at the threshold of her new home.

The knowledge that a richer, more enduring young womanhood flows out over the wires is one of the many satisfactions which over 5,000 people of VEPCO can take in their jobs. For each of them has a part in it.

The VEPCO power station operator may make the electricity. But the VEPCO lineman must keep the wires ready to carry that electricity to your home.

The System Controller can dispatch VEPCO's 1,872,000 kilowatts where they're wanted. But it's up to the planning engineer to see that the whole VEPCO system grows fast enough to meet your future electrical needs.

Yes, each member of the VEPCO family needs the teamwork of all the others to get the job done. The big, proud job of helping you LIVE BETTER—ELECTRICALLY.

Extra Care Means

Longer Wear

For Towels

Here are some practical hints for the homemaker who wants to prolong the wear-life of her towels.

Have plenty of cleaning cloths or extra washcloths in the bathroom and kitchen so that when something spills on the floor one can't be tempted to mop up with a towel.

Provide the men of the family with a special cloth for drying razor blades. According to the best analysis at American Institute of Laundering, research and education center for the professional laundry industry, many mysterious cuts and tears in towels can be traced to inadvertent sitting while cleaning a razor blade.

Do not use good towels for removing make-up. Some beauty aids, particularly lipstick, can leave damaging stains in fabrics and even the professional laundress might find them difficult to remove.

Avoid using the same towels over and over again. Distribute wear evenly by rotating towels.

Refresh your towel supply at regular intervals. This avoids having all the towels wear out at the same time. With plenty of towels in the household, wear is spread over all instead of concentrated on one. Have enough to allow for several sets in use, several at the laundry and some ready to use.

Terry towels and wash cloths

last longer if laundered before becoming too soiled. For that soft,

COW PSYCHOLOGY

My curiosity was aroused when I saw Andy Hershberger placing hay along the edge of a shed roof. "Why are you doing that?" I inquired. "Well," he said, "This isn't very good hay, and if I put it in the manger, the cows won't eat it. But if I put it up here where they can just barely reach it, they'll think they're stealing it, and they will eat every single bit."

SPRING TIME - SHEEP TIME

With the coming of warm weather our farm friends really get busy. Last week was a busy time for twenty-eight farmers who have sheep. The three sheep shearers that were here from the Valley of Virginia sheared 428 sheep in two and half days and needless to say they put the rush on these twenty-eight folks.

This is about one half of the sheep that we have in the county leaving about 400 still to be sheared. Getting sheep sheared is quite a problem for some folks and for those of you who still wish to get the job done I would like to suggest that you contact Elmer Hershberger, Route 2, Princess Anne, Va. Elmer lives just off Holland Swamp Road going toward Oceana Jet. Base. Elmer does a very satisfactory job and will be able to shear many flocks of sheep for you. Let me again suggest that you contact him as early as possible so that you will get your sheared this year.

Regardless of who you get to shear your sheep the wool should be put in wool bags. These bags will hold from 30 to 35 fleeces and makes the handling job a lot easier for the people handling your wool after you sell it. It is advisable to tie the wool in clear of burrs. If not clear it will not pay you to tie the wool. Wool bags and twine can be secured from Alvin Jones at Princess Anne, Va. between 7:30 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Mr. Jones, through the Farmer's Seed and Fertilizer Corporation, will again be our wool agent for the county. The date of Wool Pool has not been set at the present time, however, we are thinking about the first of June as a tentative date. We want to give everyone an opportunity to sell through the pool, so be sure you get your sheep sheared by that time.

MORE MONEY FOR YOUR LAMBS

Farmers who have sold through the lamb pools have realized the top dollar for their lamb crops. There will be three lamb sales this year—May 8, June 12, and July 17. These sales will be held in the Sales Pavilion at Currituck, Va. and farmers from Princess Anne are requested to have their lambs at the yard by no later than 11 a.m.

The sale will start at 1:30 p.m. The lambs will be sold by state grade. The sale has been moved from Smithfield to Currituck in order to provide farmers who are selling better facilities. They will not have to compete with other kinds of livestock in getting their lambs handled. The distance may be somewhat greater, however, the time involved and the loss from driftage should be much less. I hope farmers will take advantage of the opportunity of selling their lambs for more money.

A FREEZER FULL OF 4-H BEEF

April 30 is not far off in fact two weeks from today, when 30 4-H club members from Princess Anne and Norfolk Counties will have 30 grain-fed steers to sell at the Tenth Annual Portsmouth Baby Beef Show and Sale. The show and sale will be held at the Portsmouth Stadium at Portsmouth, Va. The show will start at 10 a.m. and the sale at 1:30 p.m.

How would you like to have a freezer full of choice 4-H beef for only 60¢ per pound? Sounds good? Well, it is good. Based on an average sale price of 34¢ per pound and adding to that the cost of killing, agency, cutting, and wrapping a person can expect to receive approximately 36 pounds of steak, 25 pounds of roast, 60 pounds of stew beef and hamburger, and 5% trimmings for a total of 136 pounds of beef for a total of $19.20. This is one-fourth of one steer.

We would be delighted for you to fill your freezer with this choice beef by coming to the show and sale and buying one-fourth, one-half, or one steer. However, if you cannot find it possible to attend the sale then we would be very happy to have you place your order by filling out the form below. The Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce will make all arrangements to have the beef prepared as you desire, ready to be picked up for your freezer.

There are three places that you can get to handle your beef—Metz's, Harrell Bros., and Puritan Foods. We get the persons to handle the beef that you choose.

For further information regarding the purchase of this 4-H beef you can contact me by either of the following phones: Day—Princess Anne 2521; Night—Princess Anne 3181.

Send the form below to E. R. Cockrell, Jr., County Agent, Princess Anne, Va.

Please order for me ( ) 1 steer, ( ) 1/2 steer, ( ) 1/4 steer.

SOYBEANS NEED FERTILIZER, LIME

The yield of soybeans depends on the right combination of many producing practices.

Adapted varieties, time of planting, rate of planting, fertility, lime, and weed control are some of the more important practices in soybean production.

The fact that soybeans do not generally respond to direct-fertilizer application does not mean that the soybean crop requires a small amount of plant food. Actually, a good soybean crop will remove from the soil more plant food than an equivalent corn crop. It is therefore important that adequate fertilizer be applied through sound "rotation fertilization" to grow all crops in the rotation, including soybeans, efficiently.

Fertilizer for soybeans can be applied on any crop in the rotation, such as corn, small grains, or even on cover crops. If fertilizer for soybeans applied in this manner, it is not necessary to fertilize the soybean crop directly. If adequate fertilizer is not applied in the rotation for soybeans, the soybean crop should be fertilized with 200 to 300 pounds of 2-12-12 or 0-14-14.

APRIL BUSY TIME FOR GARDENERS

The time has come for the home gardener to dispense with winter dreaming and be up and at 'em.

Seed for early planting, and fertilizer, should be on hand; and tools and equipment should be in top condition. The part of the garden to be planted this month should be ready, and the rest of the garden to be planted later should be plowed.

Some of the vegetables to plant for the early garden include asparagus, beets, broccoli, cabbage, carrots, collards, green peas, kale, head and leaf lettuce, mustard, onions, potatoes, radishes, spinach, turnips, and turnip salad.

Plant together vegetables that mature at about the same time. Spinach, mustard, kale, leaf lettuce and turnips mature in about 45 to 50 days. Beets, peas, and carrots mature in about 60 to 70 days. It may take 75 to 80 days for collards, head lettuce, cabbage, and broccoli to mature.

Just before planting be sure to have well-worked, smooth, clean seed bed, fertilized according to suggestions in VPI Circular 630, "Vegetable Gardening in Virginia," available from my office. This circular also has a planting chart, listing tips on rates and depth of planting and other information for the home gardener.

TREAT SHEEP BEFORE THEY GO ON PASTURE

There's more to putting your sheep on spring pasture than just opening the gate.

Give all mature sheep a dose of phenothiazine to get rid of internal parasites before turning them on permanent pastures. Otherwise they will infect the new pasture with worm eggs. If sheep are allowed to drop worm eggs now where they will graze later, a few blades of grass will carry enough worms to infect 100 sheep. Treat early and turn clean sheep on clean pasture.

LAMB, WOOL MARKETING REASON NEAR, OUTLOOK GIVEN

Lamb prices during the quickly approaching marketing season in Virginia should be near 1958 levels, predict agricultural economists at VPI.

Generally, lamb prices in Virginia begin to advance after February and continue to advance into May. After this May peak, prices drop into the latter part of the year. Through February and early March of this year, however, prices recovered only slightly from their late winter lows. Delayed fall marketings and marketings at heavier weights created discounts on the heavier animals. The market now has begun and should continue to rise during the next two months with the peak again coming in May. Lamb prices probably will average about $23 to $25 during the May peak.

Wool prices for the 1958 marketing year average slightly more than 36¢ per pound compared with more than 35¢ during the 1957 marketing year. Much of this price decline will be offset by larger incentive payments.

The Agricultural Act of 1956 provided for the extension of the wool incentive program through the 1961 marketing year ending March 31, 1962. It made more funds available for payment, and it continued the incentive price for shorn wool at 62¢ per pound.

Prices for wool have advanced a little in foreign markets since mid-January of this year, but it is still too soon to tell if this is the beginning of a cyclical rise or just a temporary halt to the decline which began in May, 1957. In either case, wool favors a future of increasing competition from man-made fibers, increasing foreign production, and decreased fill usage. In the next few months, prices may rise from their present levels, but increases will probably be slight.

Cash receipts from the sale of sheep, lambs, and wool, provide Virginia producers with an average annual income of over $5,000,000, the economists point out.

Cape Henry Day Services Sunday

This coming Sunday — Cape Henry Day in Virginia — two services will mark the landing of the first settlers here on April 26, 1607.

The first will be at 11 a.m. at Christ and St. Luke's Episcopal Church, during the regular morning service, and will be conducted by the Rt. Rev. David S. Rose, suffragan bishop of the diocese, and the Rev. Peyton Williams, rector.

At 5 p.m., the annual pilgrimage to the granite cross at Cape Henry will be made. A wreath will be laid at the site.

The day was proclaimed Cape Henry Day in a recent message by Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr., which said:

"The landing of the first permanent English settlers at Cape Henry on April 16, 1607, becomes more pronounced and more apparent in significance each succeeding year. The role played by the voyagers aboard the Susan Constant, the Godspeed, and the Discovery in establishing this land of freedom is one that must never be forgotten by the people of Virginia.

"Now, therefore, I, J. Lindsay Almond Jr., governor of Virginia, do hereby proclaim April 26 as Cape Henry Day and do call upon the people of Virginia to join in the observance of the occasion with appropriate ceremonies and with firm determination to protect and to perpetuate the ideals upon which these United States of America were established."

Mrs. Franz Naylor, president of the Order of Cape Henry, said W. Ludwell Baldwin will be master of ceremonies for the event this year.

Babe Ruth League Tryouts Saturday

Tryouts for the Virginia Beach Babe Ruth baseball league are scheduled to be held Saturday, April 25 starting at 9 o'clock. The tryouts are for boys aged 13 to 15, who have not played in the league prior to this year.

project chairman for the Virginia Beach Kiwanis Club and the auction sale is one of the many projects sponsored by the club. According to Jaffe, the sale will not be confined to the auction of cattle. Also included in the list of animals to be auctioned are live pigs, puppies and kittens, tropical fish, children's sport items and clothing and household appliances.

Scott to Speak Tonight in Audubon Tour Lecture Series

Emerson Scott of Caro, Michigan, will be the distinguished guest lecturer at the Virginia Beach High School auditorium on Thursday, April 23, at 8 p.m. Sponsored by the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County and the National Audubon Society, he has traveled over most of the globe and is a member of the Audubon's Club of Chicago, the International Platform Association, and the Photographic Society of America.

On Thursday evening, Mr. Scott will take his audience on a big game hunt in the spectacular Rocky Mountain country, armed only with a color motion picture camera and his knowledge and understanding of wildlife. "Bobby Mountain Rambles" has as its cast bear, elk, bighorn sheep, ptarmigan, prairie dogs, bison, birds and antelope, and its background is rugged country where dinosaurs once roamed the river canyons between snow-capped mountain ranges along the shores of an ancient sea.

Mr. Scott began his adventuring soon after attending George Williams College and working for the YMCA by making two trips to Alaska. During the second World War he was an Army sergeant fighting in the European campaign. After he was wounded in Italy and hospitalized for eight months, he worked for the American Red Cross. Later he served as chairman of the Board of Trustees of Michigan's Veterans' Trust Fund.

For a number of years he has devoted his time to travel, and as an especially talented wildlife photographer and lecturer he has become a most popular Audubon Screen Tour speaker.

Come and bring your family to see the "living color" that is unforgettable Colorado captured by his color motion pictures, and hear this experienced outdoors man tell about his experiences. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

James Hives, at a point said to afford the finest view of the James River to be obtained from any of the old plantation sites. It stands on a bluff 100 feet above the water.

The original house had been remodeled and enlarged by wings of a later period. The central and old portion of the house is of the usual type of the modest home of the 18th century, being rectangular with a central hallway from door to door. A small dwelling of a story and a half with dormer windows is adjacent to the main house and recalls its early origin, as does the group of old paper mulberry trees. A small garden bordered with boxwood connects the two buildings. The lawn on the river side provides a wide stretch of green, and nearby at the head of the ravine is a lovely rock garden in a setting in its naturalness. From this, one may descend by the sandy beach below, one of the best along the James.

The Organization presented a solid front for its political battle with anti-organization foes in the July 14 Democratic primary in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach this week with the withdrawal of one Organization candidate in favor of another in one race and the issuance of a statement of unity by Organization candidates for the five constitutional offices.

Henry R. Hartley, who had announced with Organization support for the Board of Supervisors from the Seaboard District of the county withdrew Tuesday in favor of incumbent S. Paul Brown, who serves as chairman of the Board. ## Democratic Club Will Support Organization; Richardson Head

A group of young men have formed the Democratic Club of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach and have elected Aubrey Richardson, a young Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County businessman, as chairman of the group.

According to a resolution adopted by the club its formation is prompted "in the interest of good government and continued progress and subscribing wholeheartedly to the principles to support the policies and principles of the Democratic Organization . . . to inform voters and to study issues and avail ourselves of full information regarding candidates . . . and to actively support the candidates we feel give the good democratic spirit."

The club's resolution went on to praise the growth in building of schools, the zoning and planning to protect values and promote orderly growth, affording increased services throughout the area, and many other improvements.

Without reservation, the resolution states, "we offer our full support to the Organization candidates under whose leadership continued progress can be assured."

In addition to Richardson as chairman, other officers of the Democratic Club are Ray White, head, vice chairman; Bruce Murphy, secretary; and A. M. Randolph, treasurer.

A spokesman for the Democratic Club stated that one of its first acts will be to inform the voters in the near future of a public meeting at which meeting the club will present the Organization candidates for election in the forthcoming July 14 Democratic primary in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach.

The resolution, adopted by the Democratic Club further states that "it is our considered opinion that these objectives will best be served by the election of the Organization candidates who have given so unflinchingly of their efforts in promoting the fantastic growth of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach."

Organization Displays Solid Strength

Despite political attempts to the contrary two significant developments this week presents the Democratic Organization candidates and supporters in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach as a smooth functioning organization that has given the county and city, honest and progressive government through the years.

The developments came in two separate actions during the week. First the Organization candidates for the five constitutional offices issued a statement jointly deploring the mud-slinging tactics of their opponents and re-establishing their solidarity as a team and as a unified group of public servants working for the public good and the further growth and development of the county, city and area.

The reference to mud-slinging and innuendoes contained in the Organization candidate's statement undoubtedly had reference to an attempt by opponents to present a distorted picture of division among the Organization candidates. The statement released by the Organization, we feel, completely destroyed any misconception that might have been created.

A second significant development on the political scene was the formation of a Democratic Club of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach by a group of young men.

This group adopted principles upholding the Democratic Organization and resolved to work for the re-election and election of Organization candidates in the forthcoming July 14 primary election.

In a resolution adopted by the young men it was pointed out that the Organization candidates were best qualified to continue the fantastic progress and growth of the area and that it is this organization that has given the people honest and progressive government.

Both developments take on added significance since they each represent highly divergent segments of our citizenry. In one case we have candidates speaking out in unison and the other—a group of young, aggressive businessmen, who are not aspiring for political position, but are solely interested in the future growth, prosperity and development of their county and city. These men believe the Organization candidates and their leadership will best insure the continued progress and growth of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach.

We believe the people of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach also feel as these young men do and will give their answer on July 14 by electing the Organization candidates so that we may continue to grow and prosper.

New School to Open At Corolla, N.C. July 6 for Summer

Corolla Academy, a comprehensive summer school for boys, is scheduled to open at Corolla, North Carolina, July 6, 1959. Five miles of sand beach and 3000 acres on the Outer Banks at Corolla, N.C. provide the physical setting for this unique experiment in summer schooling. New owners of the plush hunting and fishing lodge, formerly known as the Whalehead Club, have made the mansion available as headquarters for Corolla Academy, a non-profit foundation for secondary education. Other buildings are being transformed into air-conditioned classrooms, reading, recreation, dispensary and boating centers.

Corolla Academy combines the academic opportunities of a selective private school with the recreational activities of a well equipped camp for boys. Curriculum is geared to development of the skills of communication for boys of high school age. Implementing this goal, a Reading Center is being established on the school campus by Baldrige Reading Services, Inc. The operation of a Reading Center in conjunction with a summer school is unique in the field of secondary education. This combination affords an opportunity for students to improve their reading speed and comprehension while pursuing academic work in credit courses of their choice.

A group of educators, business and professional leaders, headed by Hatcher C. Williams, Asst. Headmaster at Christchurch School, Christchurch, Va., have established the Academy in response to the growing demand by parents and educators alike for "continuity" in education and comprehensive recreation.

The Faculty has been drawn from outstanding independent schools with a ratio of students to teachers of seven to one. Rigorous grounding in fundamental courses of English, math, languages, history and basic science are provided. At the same time, developmental reading and writing will share major emphasis with balanced recreation and sports of all kinds. The desire to learn is stimulated by developing sound study skills and habits.

The school structure has been based on recommendations in Dr. Jean Piaget's nationally recognized treatise on secondary education, "The American High School Today." Dr. Conant advocates individualized programs, ability grouping, English composition, speech instruction for the academically limited as well as the academically talented and highly gifted pupils.

Corolla has extensive plantings—begin in 1947—that make the campus the principle experimental station for the 300 miles of coastline along the outer banks. The 3000 acre campus is bordered on one side by the Atlantic Ocean and on the other by Currituck Sound.

Facilities include a boat basin opening on the Sound; a swimming pool; skills, sail boats, launches; landing strip for small aircraft; air conditioned classrooms, private homes for teachers, a large dining hall for formal and informal dining; formal and informal dining halls for 180 people; five miles of white sand beach for safe ocean swimming; tennis and badminton courts; separate dormitories and numerous other buildings.

Complete privacy with easy accessibility—15 minutes to Norfolk airport; 35 miles south along the coast from Virginia Beach; 25 minutes by boat across the Currituck Sound.

Principal landmarks: Currituck Light House and main lodge. Operation of a Reading Center in conjunction with a summer school is unique in the secondary education field. Affords students improved reading speed and comprehension while pursuing credit courses of their choice.

Central curriculum focus on communication skills for high school boys. Developmental work for average and exceptional students and remedial work for those having difficulty in these basic skills.

Challenge for good students—special scientific vocabulary study; third and fourth years of foreign language, honors in math and English, marine biology.

Lecture series by outstanding men in science, English, education, and marine research.

Planned and implemented mosquito control and reforestation—over 200,000 plantings to make hiking and forestry a major interest.

Robert Burgess, Curator of Exhibits at the Marine's Museum, Newport News, Va., has visited the Outer Banks every year for the past eight years, refers to Corolla as "the gem of the Outer Banks".

Lioness Tour Hoppersville

Mrs. Caroline Anderson guided the Lionesses on a delightful tour of Hoppersville, where Carline's Cultured Cottontails are, Monday night at the home of Mrs. William Ferrell. The cottontails, about 60 in number, arrived in their big red bus and entertained the group as they subtly pencilled many acquaintances known in real life.

They met many interesting citizens, Judge Ketchum, G. Hangam and his wife, Donna Hangam; the famous Doctor I. M. Finney, who has just published his report on rabbit health and the town politician, I. Fuller Offit. Fuller is quite poetic as are many of the cottontails.

Carline had dressed each rabbit in suits, dresses, hats and shoes giving added touches that help to further personify each individual—telephones for the gossip sisters, a watch for the busy housewife and a telescope for the critic.

As she tells her story Carline gives her philosophy through her poetry which is sometimes humorous, sometimes serious but at all times enjoyable.

Carline is writing a book about her citizens of Hoppersville and she has programs that can be given to any age group and any type of audience.

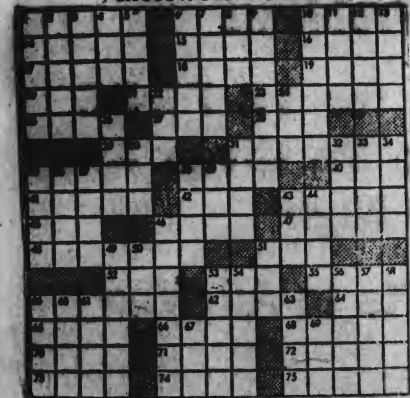

Since this was the regular monthly meeting of the Lionesses, the program was followed by the business meeting, which included final plans for Community Club Awards Contest, presentation of state of officers for next year and plans for the May Pot Luck Supper. The meeting was adjourned and each member enjoyed the refreshments served by the hostesses.

Norfolk Artists In Show Here

Two Norfolk artists of national renown will show many of their recent paintings in a guest artist at the Spring Show of the Virginia Beach Art Association. The exhibition will be at the Convention Center April 27th through May 1st and will be open to the public from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Charles Sibley is head of the Art Department of the College of William and Mary in Norfolk. His large semi-abstract paintings are executed with a forceful technique and a discerning eye for the meaning and beauty in the familiar. Graduating from Ohio State with a degree in commercial art, he switched to creative painting and studied at the Chicago Art Institute, Columbia University and Iowa State. The winner of numerous awards in national shows, he has a strong influence on young artists whom he has taught at Duke, the University of Texas and at William and Mary. No stranger to art lovers of Virginia Beach, he has held classes here for two years and has exhibited his work at the annual Boardwalk Art Show.

L. D. Durham, too, is associated with the College of William and Mary in Norfolk as an instructor. Also a master of the semi-abstract, he sometimes works in a more conventional form in a wide range of media—water color, gouache, lithography, ceramics and encaustic painting as well as oil. Holding a Masters Degree in Fine Arts from the University of Georgia, he has exhibited in many art-known shows in the South as well as New York. His fine drawing in the XVII American Drawing Annual in the Norfolk Museum of Art was outstanding and his oils and water colors have an exquisite dreamlike beauty.

Mr. Durham will give a lecture Tuesday afternoon, April 28th at 3 p.m. at the Convention Center. He will discuss his own work and Mr. Sibley's modern art in general and give demonstrations of composition as it is used to express the ideas of the artist. There is no admission charge for this lecture or the show and the public is cordially invited.

Howard H. Gordon Heads Southern States Co-op

RICHMOND—Howard H. Gordon has been named the new General Manager of Southern States Cooperative, succeeding the late O. E. Zacharias Jr., who died April 7.

The announcement was made by W. N. Stinson, of Virginia, president of the statewide regional cooperative, following a meeting of the organization's Board of Directors.

Gordon, 50, has served as assistant general manager of the cooperative since 1948.

In January 1953, Gordon was selected by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson to serve as head of the Production and Marketing Administration. Later he was made president of the Commodity Credit Corporation and administrator of the Department of Agriculture's Commodity Stabilization Service.

Gordon resigned his Washington appointment in January, 1954, and returned to Southern States Cooperative.

A native of Jamestown, N.C., Gordon joined Southern States in 1943 to become director of personnel and public relations. In mid-1945 he was named director of the cooperative's newly created marketing division and in January, 1947, was named director of the general services division. This division included such functions as membership relations, information, advertising, personnel, farm home service and legal. As assistant general manager, he continued to head this division.

Your Social Security

By EARL W. FRANKLIN
Field Representative

If you are between 50 and 65 years of age, have had work under social security, and are now too disabled to do any more gainful work, contact your nearest social security office at once. You may be eligible to collect social security benefits because of your disability.

People eligible to receive these payments will get the same amount as they would if they were already 65. When they reach age 65, their disability benefit will be automatically converted to their regular old-age insurance benefit.

To be eligible for disability insurance payments, the disabled person must have worked under social security for five years out of the 10 years before he became disabled.

If the worker feels that he meets this second requirement, he will then ask the question: "How disabled must a person be to collect disability checks?" A bit of the background in the social security law will help explain the answer to this question. Twenty years ago when social security began, its purpose was to partially replace earnings lost when the worker became too old to continue working or died. The lawmakers realized that people who became disabled also lost earnings and so disability protection was added to the Social Security Law in 1954 and 1956.

To be eligible for this protection a person has to be so severely disabled that he is not able to do any regular substantial work and for that reason is losing earnings. The condition must be so serious that it is expected to last indefinitely, and the person must have been under the disability for at least six months. It is felt that any improvement in the condition will show up after that period.

In addition, the disability must be such that it can be determined medically.

Since checks can be paid beginning with the seventh month you are disabled if you are at least age 65, it is important that you contact your social security office immediately if you feel that you meet these requirements.

News and Views of Aragona Village

By ELSIE HARVEY

STEADY PROGRESS REPORTED ON RECREATION CENTER

Mr. Harold Spilka, president, and Mr. Lawrence E. Marshall, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the proposed Aragona Community Recreation Center, report steady progress toward fulfillment of the plans long under way for a recreation center to serve the community of Aragona Village. A great deal of time and work have been expended by many of the residents of the Aragona Village community in bringing to a successful conclusion the building and playground facilities which it is believed will be so beneficial to the welfare and happiness, particularly of the children of the Village. Yet if plans already made are carried through to completion there will be a portion of the proposed building set aside for community meetings for both civic meetings and entertainment. At the meeting held this week, more careful study and analysis were made of the By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation by members of the board. Mr. Robert Lee Simpson, Commonwealth Attorney for Princess Anne County, has given most generously of his time and advice in preparation of legal papers necessary to incorporate. It is expected that early approval will be made of the By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation, after which steady progress should be made and actual construction begun. Regular reports thereon will be made from time to time, but it is requested that all residents and homeowners in the Village give this worthy activity their support and work to accomplish the completion of the recreation center which will benefit all residents of the community.

SCIENCE FAIR SPONSORED BY ARAGONA SCHOOL 6th GRADE

Mr. E. L. Land, principal of the Aragona Elementary School, announced that there would be a Science Fair held at 7:30 p.m., April 28th, at the school, which will be sponsored by the Sixth Grade pupils and teachers. This Science Fair is to be presented on the same evening as the Parent-Teacher Meeting which will give an excellent opportunity for the parents to observe results of study and experiments executed by the pupils. There will be specimen exhibits displayed and arranged in an attractive manner in the front corridors of the school. These exhibits have been constructed by the pupils themselves with the aid and assistance of their teachers, Mr. A. L. Scarborough, Mrs. Madeline Cooley, Mrs. Elsie Tereskerz, Mrs. Ruth Pharr, Mrs. Ann West and Mrs. Patricia Severin.

PARENT-TEACHER ACTIVITIES

Agenda for the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Club of the Aragona Village Elementary School, to be held 7:30 p.m., April 28th, promises a series of interesting activities and discussions. All members are urged to attend as, in addition to a nominating committee to be selected for the nomination of officers for the ensuing year, several matters of importance to the school will be brought before the meeting.

BASEBALL TAKEN OVER IN ARAGONA VILLAGE

Midwest Team — Mr. John Tereskerz, one of the organizers of the Aragona Village junior baseball team, announced that he and his assistant coaches, Mr. Hooper, Mr. Forbes, and Mr. John Fry, have received such a great number of applications from boys who would like to play on the midwest team that there will be at least two midwest teams set up for play this season.

One of the most popular teams of former seasons, the Lamson Cardinals, sponsored by Mr. Lawrence A. Sanclio, president of the Larason Realty and Insurance Corporation, of Aragona Village, will play this season. Mr. John Tereskerz will serve as manager and coach of the Cardinals with Mr. Hooper and Mr. Forbes as assistant coaches. Tentative line-up is as follows: Hunter O'Brien, Charlie Coulborn, Philip Lewis, Joe Peccia, Don Peccia, Richard Spence, Irving Sparrow, Freddie Culpepper, Terry Tereskerz, Jimmy Puryear, and Bobby Lord.

The second midwest team which is being organized will be sponsored by Mr. Emil Mouthot of the Universal Construction Company, Inc., builders of homes in the Aragona Village area. Mr. John Fry will manage and coach the team.

but names of his assistant coaches have not yet been announced. Selection of the name for this second midwest team is now under discussion and will be announced later, as will the line-up of the team.

BOY SCOUTS OF ARAGONA CUB PACK 479

Mr. George D. Johnston, Cubmaster of Pack 479, announces that the pack has been working during the past several weeks on the theme of "down on the farm" activities. Several trips have been made to farms and dairies in Princess Anne County where the boys have been able to observe and participate in the every day activities taking place. There has been instruction as to how to perform certain chores on the farm, such as milking, tractor operation, animal feeding, poultry tending and, in general, life on the farm. The boys have enjoyed their visits and have been permitted to ride on tractors and various farm implements and participate in some of the dairy and farm activities.

Cubmaster Johnston reports that at the termination of the spring schedule of Scout work, he will be organizing, with the assistance of Mr. Blake Moranville, Mr. Paul Holder and Mr. Carl Tignor, several Cub Scout baseball teams. Great enthusiasm has been shown by all the boys in the pack and a good turnout is expected for try-outs on the field.

BOY SCOUT TROOP 379

Scoutmaster, Mr. E. T. Rucker, of Troop 379 announced that his troop took their first overnight hike and camp-out to Camp Baker, on April 18th. There were 25 boys who enjoyed this trip and each of the Scouts passed at least one requirement for their next highest rank. Joseph Hedgepeth earned his tenderfoot badge at the camp fires. The Scouts camped out in tents Saturday night, and pitched camp with all facilities for preparing their own supper Saturday evening. Some tasty specimens of campfire cooking were enjoyed, and, afterward, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stancil arrived with a kit full of ice cream which made for a very special surprise of the evening. Although it rained during the evening it did not dampen the spirits of this lively group of Scouts—after a good night's entertainment before the camp fire and a healthy night's sleep the scouts prepared breakfast and indulged in a round of the usual camp fire talks—then, noon broke camp and proceeded home, their minds and hearts filled with happy memories of a full weekend.

GARDEN CLUB ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Philip Krome, publicity chairman and corresponding secretary of the Aragona Village Garden Club, reported that the regular monthly meeting was held Tuesday, April 14th. Flower arrangements and specimens were displayed by the members and judged by Mrs. S. Romano and Mrs. W. G. Smith. Mrs. S. Romano presented a very interesting and entertaining critical analysis for the benefit of those present.

Hostesses for the meeting were

Mrs. M. J. McCarthy, Mrs. P. A. Klucz and Mrs. L. B. Karanka. After the morning session the ladies opened their box lunches and coffee was served. Later, the ladies set to work creating from materials brought with them, their own separate arrangements for individual observation and analysis. Ribbon winners for arrangements were Mrs. E. W. Hansen, Mrs. L. N. Davis and Mrs. W. G. Womble Jr.

Mrs. C. S. Tate, beautification chairman, presented the club with a check for $75. This check represented second prize won by the club in the Federation-Chamber of Commerce Contest, Beautification of the grounds of the Christ Presbyterian Church were selected by the club as its subject project. Special landscaping, and profuse arrangement of plants, shrubs, and flowers created an effect which won not only the admiration of judges but by all who have observed its beauty.

Armed Forces Day Celebration Being Readied

Plans for the gigantic Armed Forces Day, which is to be held in conjunction with the opening of the Virginia Beach tourist season, came a step closer to reality on Wednesday, April 15, when Frogmen from Little Creek Amphibious Base tested the types of explosives at Virginia Beach which will be used on Armed Forces Day, May 16.

Commemorating the 9th anniversary of Armed Forces Day and with the cooperation of the City of Virginia Beach, the Armed Forces are planning the largest Armed Forces Day celebration ever to be held in this area.

Included in the plans are a Business Men's luncheon on May 13 at NAS Oceana and an exhibit for all school children in the Princess Anne County on the afternoon of May 13, which includes a tour of this installation with exhibits from all branches of the service.

Demonstrating this year's theme for Armed Forces Day, "Power for Peace," activities will commence at 10:00 a.m. with a full hour-and-a-half parade down Atlantic Ave., in which bands, both military and civilian, will be present, along with floats, crack drill teams, and other marching units.

At 1 p.m., a small scale amphibious landing will be held in front of the Coast Guard Station at Virginia Beach. Participating in this assault will be ships of the fleet, troops and landing craft from Fort Story, frogmen from Little Creek and the Coast Guard Unit from this area.

In addition to the landing, demonstrations of the latest methods of air-sea rescue will be made with the use of helicopters.

Upon completion of events at Virginia Beach, NAS Oceana opens its gates to the public where they will see the latest in fighter and bomber jet aircraft, missile displays and static displays.

Cooke School Menu

Monday - Baked beans with sausage, steamed tomatoes, pineapple salad, milk, biscuit.
Tuesday - Barbecue, cole slaw, milk, blackberry pie.

Normandie Cafeteria Opening Here Friday; New Role for Kontopanos

Virginia Beach will welcome a new cafeteria this Friday night when the newly re-modeled Normandie Cafeteria opens for business at 2118 Atlantic Avenue.

James G. Kontopanos is owner and operator of the new cafeteria. The new cafeteria is in the same location formerly occupied by the Normandie Restaurant, which Kontopanos has operated for the past 21 years.

The new cafeteria is completely modern throughout with the latest serving equipment being utilized. The Normandie Cafeteria will feature breakfast, luncheons and dinners.

Pre-School Clinic, Registration Set At Cooke School

On April 30 all children living within the city limits of Virginia Beach, who will be six years of age on or before October 1, 1959, are expected to attend the Pre-School Registration and Clinic. It will be held in the W. T. Cooke School cafeteria from one to three o'clock.

All children will need birth certificates. A copy of the certificate, for school files, is needed by a child born out of the state of Virginia. Those with Virginia certificates will need to present the certificate for pertinent information, but they will be returned.

A physician will be in charge of the clinic and will be aided by Public Health Service nurses. Every child should have a physical examination before entering school. This examination may be done by the child's family physician or it will be done free of charge at the clinic. Immunizations, if needed, and are requested by the parent will be given free.

P-TA members will assist the school with the registration. A school official has urged all parents of city children expected to enter the first grade next year to take advantage of this service. If a child is ill and unable to come on Thursday, April 30, the administration is urging that the child be registered by a parent during these hours.

Hot Hors D'Oeuvres To Go With Petit Cafe

For Americans everywhere, there's nothing so complete without a cup of coffee. Of course, we always think of serving coffee after dinner... but, nowadays, the fragrant brew is also being served before dinner.

Pre-dinner coffee, served in dainty demitasse cups, is actually an old European custom called Petit Cafe. Those who have adopted the idea find that it's especially welcome to those who don't take cocktails. The tiny cups of coffee, along with a plate of pretty canapés, help to fill in the hour before dinner is served, setting the scene for a long, sociable evening.

Hot hors d'oeuvres are always wonderful before dinner... and since many of them are heavenly, it's no wonder that they're miniature versions of the main course. Some are filled with a delicious mushroom blend, and others with a savory watermelon mixture. Just be sure to make enough canapés — they're a good substitute for an appetizer course — and be sure the demitasse coffee is strong, piping hot and freshly brewed.

SAVORY TARTLETS
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup vegetable oil
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
1 cup melted butter or margarine divided

Mocha Choco-Bloc
1 lb. sweet cooking chocolate
1 cup strong coffee
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 pkg. lady fingers (12)
Melt chocolate over hot water. Add coffee and stir until smooth. Pour a little chocolate mixture on egg yolks and blend. Return to remaining chocolate mixture. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened. Cool to room temperature. Split lady fingers. Place 3 halves close together and spread halves placed crosswise to best layer and spread with chocolate mixture. Repeat until lady fingers are all used. Spread remaining chocolate mixture on sides. Chill. Cut in 4 to 6 slices and top with coffee ice cream. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Brown Sugar Lemon Loaf
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
divided

1 cup diced roasted almonds (optional)
Combine blueberry mix, 1 cup brown sugar and spices. Stir to mix well. Combine milk, egg and 1 cup melted butter and stir into dry ingredients. Combine remaining sugar, lemon peel and almonds. Shape dough into 35 small balls, about 1 inch in diameter. Place 3 rows of six balls each in greased loaf pan, 8" x 5" x 3". Brush with some of the remaining butter and sprinkle with lemon peel mixture. Repeat. For the third layer, make 2 rows of six balls each, and for the top layer place 4 balls down center. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, 50 to 60 minutes. Serve hot, pulling apart with 2 forks.
You'll love it with a cup of steaming coffee! Bye-Now—

Princess Anne Garden Club Holds Meeting

The Princess Anne Garden Club met Monday afternoon, April 13, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Rock King, Virginia Beach.

Mrs. P. A. Agelasto, Horticultural chairman, warned the members to be on the lookout for Petal Blight on azaleas. A spray of Dithion will control this. She also advised fertilizing bulbs at this time.

Mrs. H. Gray Parker gave a review of the Conservation Forum held recently in Richmond. It was given by the Conservation Committee of the Garden Club of Virginia. Mrs. Arthur Hall, Jr., Chairman for Historic Garden Week gave final plans for the Club's participation on Saturday, April 25, from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, Curator for the Adam Trenchard House, gave an interesting account of the history of the house and some of the people who had lived there. She brought it up to date by describing the 17th Century garden which is being restored as the current project of the Garden Club of Virginia. Proceeds from Historic Garden Week will be used in this restoration. Mrs. Dawson said the actual planting is progressing very rapidly and should give added charm to an already charming spot.

Magic Easy Does It

Little Pinky Roberts was so fond of her two baby rabbits Easy didn't have the heart to tell her they had died. "Just had to explain those rabbits before Pinky came home from school," Easy said. "Trouble was the only two available were full grown."

"I figured they'd have to do," he went on, "so I just hoped for the best. Then, when Pinky saw the rabbits she ran into the house, yelling, 'Wait! You see my rabbits! Those pirates made them twice as big!'"

From where I sit, children see things as they'd like them to be, but adults ought to see things as they are. For instance, we can't close our eyes to intolerance and call ourselves "good neighbors." We must respect your choice of tea or coffee and you don't respect mine for beer. That's intolerance and no wonder. On the other hand, tolerance makes good friends "multiply."

Trading Stamps

Merchants Green Trading Stamps, redeemable for more than a thousand useful and valuable gifts, are being given free with purchases at the three Food Fair Stores, Inc. in the Tidewater area starting this week.

Shoppers will receive one stamp with each 10-cent purchase in the Food Fair supermarkets at 2420 E. Little Creek Rd., Norfolk; 8020 Virginia Beach Blvd., Arlington V.H. 44, and 1421 W. Pembroke Ave., Hampton.

"Merchants Green Trading Stamps offer another special dividend for Food Fair shoppers in addition to low prices," said Mark Silverman, district manager of the retail food chain, in announcing the plan.

A center for the display and redemption of stamp premiums has been opened at 2408 E. Little Creek Rd., adjacent to the Food Fair supermarket, Mr. Silverman said. This center will service all three stores.

Prior to the introduction of Merchants Green Stamps last week, the Food Fair supermarkets used a plan whereby cash register tapes were saved and redeemed for gifts. These tapes now can be exchanged for Merchants Green Stamps at any of the three Food Fair supermarkets, according to Mr. Silverman.

In addition to redeeming Merchants Green Stamps for gifts, the redemption center also will sell the gifts at discount prices. Merchants Green Stamps will be given with all such purchases at the center, Mr. Silverman said.

SUNRISE GARDEN CLUB MEETS
New officers of the Sunrise Garden Club were installed at the club meeting which was held Tuesday night, April 14, at the home of Mrs. S. M. Tarkenton, 410 Sunrise Dr.

The officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. F. H. Jacobson; first vice president, Mrs. J. H. Kenney; second vice president, Mrs. S. M. Tarkenton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William A. Bralson; recording secretary, Mrs. E. G. Parrel; treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Dixon; historian, Mrs. C. R. Cornic.

Only for her creation featuring a large straw hat, decorated with garden tools and green thumb gloves. Mrs. H. V. Leasure received a blue also for her hat which was a doll with a huge straw skirt, which formed the trim. It was tastefully decorated with flowers and fruit and according to the reporter would look perfectly alright to wear on the street.

During the business session the club voted to send Mrs. Leasure and Mrs. Only to the Tidewater District meeting of Federation of Garden Clubs which will be held at Virginia Beach April 29. Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. Tarkenton were elected alternates.

The club will hold their annual banquet May 15 at the Fort Story Officers Club. Cocktail hour will be 6 p.m. followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Women's Clubs Support X-Ray Machine Project
The Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs threw its support today behind a project to obtain a two-million volt x-ray machine for important medical research and the treatment of cancer and leukemia. It also will make possible further research in whole-body irradiation in relation to transplantation of organs, as well as provide facilities for conventional x-ray treatment of localized cancer.

The equipment, with additional financial support from other sources, would be installed at the Medical College of Virginia to further the work already in progress there and elsewhere in the country on new techniques in the treatment of cancer and leukemia. It also will make possible further research in whole-body irradiation in relation to transplantation of organs, as well as provide facilities for conventional x-ray treatment of localized cancer.

Dr. R. Blackwell Smith, Jr., President of the Medical College of Virginia, told the Federation at its annual convention here that "This is a project which we believe holds great promise and the potentialities for one of those rare 'break-throughs' in medical research of truly exciting dimensions."

The body irradiation research to date indicates the possibility of developing methods of successfully treating patients with cancer disseminated throughout the body, and also patients with leukemia or cancer of the blood. Dr. Smith emphasized that installation of the equipment did not mean assurance of the results hoped for but developments to date fully justified prompt efforts to follow through with the project.

The cost of the machine, installation and housing is estimated at approximately $160,000. Miss Anne Doble Peebles, of Sussex, President of the Federation, expressed the hope the organization could contribute a substantial amount toward the project during the coming year.

NEW CORN HYBRID RELEASED BY VPI

A promising new yellow corn hybrid, VPI 639, has been developed by the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station at VPI and is being released for seed production. Seed should be available for planting in 1960. Meanwhile, arrangements are being made for demonstration plots of the new hybrid to be set out in certain counties, where farmers can observe the plantings.

VPI 639 is a close relative of and similar to VPI 648, which has been a popular variety in Virginia for several years. The new variety is somewhat lower-eared than VPI 648, and in 29 official tests has averaged 1.6 bushels higher in yield. It has the same maturity and slightly better grain quality, and seems to be less susceptible to lodging and breaking. The new hybrid also has "reasonable" resistance to blights and stalk rots.

DON'T SELL CORN SILAGE SHORT

This is the first of a series of three articles on forage harvesting and feeding, a timely topic in Virginia dairy farms.

Good corn silage should hold a prominent place in the feeding program of every dairyman. Corn silage represents about two-thirds of all silage fed to milk cows in the United States. During the winter feeding period ending in May 1958, corn silage accounted for 68% of all the silage fed, compared with over 80% 10 years ago.

A rather phenomenal increase in the production of grass silage accompanied the decreased use of corn silage. In 1949 only 6% of the total silage fed was made from meadow crops. Last year grass silage accounted for 19% of the total.

The rate of feeding corn silage in Virginia is higher than for the country as a whole. In the winter feeding periods from 1947 through 1957, 84% of all the silage fed in Virginia was corn. Last year, however, the figure dropped to 75%. This drop in Virginia was not accompanied by an increase in the use of grass silage, but by an increased production of "other silage" such as sorghum or mixtures.

Corn silage should not be sold short. It is one of the most economical sources of nutrients. With recommended silage yields, a yield of 15 tons or more per acre can be expected. Such silage contains 18 to 20% total digestible nutrients (TDN)—a per acre yield of about 3 tons of feed nutrients. Some of the sorghum may give a higher dry matter yield than corn, but over half the sorghum plant is stalk, and the other half consists of the seed head and leaves. In the corn plant, over half of the total weight of the plant is ears. This can make a big difference in the yield of TDN.

Haycrop silage will give about the same per acre yield of digestible protein as corn silage. However, the dry matter and TDN yields are considerably lower.

Corn silage gives high feeding value. Well-sorted corn silage contains about 70% digestible nutrients on a dry matter basis. This approaches the TDN value of corn and cob meals, and compares with about 60% for high quality hay ## crop-silage.

In almost all cases where corn silage has been compared with grass silage for milk production, considerable amounts of grain have been fed. These comparisons have shown grass silage to be equal in feeding value to corn silage supposedly because the large amounts of grain fed prevented the grain in the corn silage from showing its effect.

Workers in Michigan have data which indicate that the failure of earlier workers to show a superiority of corn silage over grass silage was because of high grain feeding levels. Since in the Michigan work each 100 pounds of corn silage contained about 13.5 pounds of grain, the scientists concluded that allowance should be made for the grain and that good corn silage should not be considered a true forage but rather a mixture of forage and grain.

Corn silage as the only forage gives satisfactory growth in dairy heifers, and may also be used as the sole forage source for young calves. U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists have found that dairy animals can be successfully raised from birth through several lactations on a ration in which corn silage was the sole forage. Growth, production, and reproduction were normal in these animals.

SEEDSMEN'S SHORT COURSE

HE HELD AT MOUNTAIN LAKE. A short course for seedmen, and the annual meeting of the Virginia Seedsmen's Association, will be held at Mountain Lake in Giles County, May 31-June 2.

Registration and registration are planned for Sunday afternoon, May 31. Monday the seedmen will tour research plots at VPI and will lunch on the VPI campus, with Dean of Agriculture L. B. Dietrick as the luncheon speaker.

Agricultural topics of interest to seedmen will be discussed Tuesday. Details of the program will be announced later.

GENERAL-PURPOSE SPRAYS

CONFUSED ABOUT WHAT SPRAY OR DUST TO USE TO CONTROL THE ARMY OF INSECTS AND DISEASES IN YOUR GARDEN AND YARD?

A general-purpose spray or dust mixture may be the answer to your problems. Such a combination spray or dust will control most of the common insects and leaf diseases affecting the home fruit and vegetable plantings and flower gardens.

If you are not sure just what to use, buy a combination dust or spray. The label shows on the label ingredients such as zineb or captan for leafspot control, karathane or sulfur for mildew, DDT or methoxychlor for chewing insects, malathion for red spiders, and malathion or pyrethrum for aphids. A good combination spray or dust should contain a mixture of zineb, captan, karathane, and malathion and DDT; or maneb, karathane, malathion, and methoxychlor. If powdery mildew is not a problem, karathane may be left out.

It is not practical for commercial formulators to prepare a mixture of all of these materials because they deteriorate when mixed and allowed to stand for several months. It therefore is necessary to buy these materials separately and mix them just before using, or to prepare a combination of the chemicals at the beginning of the season. Remember that if the mixture stands for a month or two it will be a little weaker, and slightly more material must be used to give satisfactory control.

CROSSBREEDING HOLDS PROMISE FOR HOG PRODUCER

A systematic crossbreeding program holds great promise for the hog producer.

This has been brought out by extensive research, both at the Tidewater Research Station at Holland, and at experiment stations in other states.

There seems to be increased interest in crossbreeding in recent months, and "right so." An increase in the number of pigs farrowed and weaned, increased growth rate, and vigor are results that can be expected in a crossbreeding program.

In general, it has been found that the less related the breeds or strains, the better the performance of the crossbreds. It also has been found that the top-performing lines of hogs produce the best crossbreds. Therefore, attention to the selection of breeding animals is extremely important in a crossbreeding program.

In a recent test at the Tennessee Experiment Station, scientists found that crossbred sows raised more pigs per litter—15% more at both weaning and market. Crossbred pigs gained from birth to market and were about 8 to 10% heavier than the straightbred pigs at weaning time. The day the hogs were marketed, the crossbred litters weighed about 25% more on the average than the straightbred litters. Litter weight of pigs on crossbred litters totaled up to an average of 300 to 400 pounds more at 154 days of age than the straightbred litters.

The scientists conducting the study said that productive purebreds were used in their crossbreeding, and that purebreds must form the basis for an effective crossbreeding program.

EARLY SHEARING, PROPER HANDLING MEAN MORE PROFITS

Early shearing of sheep and proper handling of wool will mean more profits to sheepmen.

It's important to harvest all the fleece before the weather gets too hot. Early shown ewes will gaze on hot days and produce more milk for their lambs than late milkers. Early shearing also assures enough new wool growth to protect the sheep from many of the bothersome insects that arrive with hot weather.

It's a good idea to pen sheep and give them no feed or water the night before shearing. Sheep with a fairly empty digestive system

STEPHEN F. HINNANT COMPLETES RECRUIT TRAINING

Stephen F. Hinnant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Hinnant, of 408 33rd St., Virginia Beach, Va., is scheduled to complete recruit training April 18 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

Relatives and friends of many of the new Marines will be on hand to witness the graduation ceremonies.

The 12-week training schedule includes drill, bayonet training, physical conditioning, parades and ceremonies, and other military subjects. Three weeks are spent on the rifle range where the recruits fire the M-1 rifle and receive instruction in basic Marine infantry weapons.

will be more flexible and comfortable during the shearing process. Shear only dry sheep. Wool packed damp will rot.

Be sure not to mix dead, black or gray wool, or tags, with the clean, white wool.

Pack as much wool in each bag as possible. Some growers will pack less than the standard 200 pounds in a bag, but the not-full bag takes up the same floor space as a full bag.

SCREW WORM ERADICATION PROGRAM SHOWS PROGRESS

Excellent progress is being made in eradicating the screwworm, a serious pest of livestock, in the southeastern states.

Dr. J. O. Rowell, entomologist at VPI, passes along this news from officials of the Animal Disease Eradication Division, U. S. Department of Agriculture. But Dr. Rowell says there is always the possibility of reinfection, and he alerts farmers and professional agricultural workers to the necessity of reporting any suspected cases.

Complacency now on the part of the livestock industry or others involved in the eradication program could result in serious setbacks at a time when complete victory seems to be in sight, Dr. Rowell warns.

In recent weeks, screwworm cases in the southeast eradication area have been limited to a relatively few cases in south Florida, Dr. Rowell says.

COMMITTEE PROPOSAL 'RIDICULOUS' — KELLAM

AAA Warns of Hazards Among Pedestrians

The pedestrian who walks in the roadway with his back to traffic is about as safe as a blindfolded boxer, the Tidewater Automobile Association warned today.

In announcing distribution of a new safety poster on this subject, Frank Cox, local director, urged school youngsters to "walk on the left facing traffic," whenever the absence of sidewalks makes it necessary to use the roadway.

"Hundreds of urban pedestrian accidents are caused each year by the violation of this simple safety rule," he said. "It is obviously impossible to remain alert to oncoming cars when the pedestrian walks with his back to traffic. The only youngsters who can safely ignore this rule are those with eyes in the backs of their heads."

"By walking on the left-hand side of the road, it is possible to see approaching cars and thus avoid danger," the AAA Club official said. "Parents should stress the importance of this fact on their children."

Nineteen per cent of all rural pedestrian fatalities occurred while the victim was walking in the roadway, he said. A majority of these deaths undoubtedly involved violation of this rule.

Mr. Cox said the safety poster illustrating the theme, "Walk on Left Facing Traffic," is being distributed to schools in Virginia Beach as part of the regular monthly safety education program of the Tidewater Automobile Association.

The poster, designed by Mike Borge, nine-year-old student in the third grade of Fleming Garden School, Indianapolis, Indiana, was a first prize winner in the American Automobile Association's 1958 National Traffic Safety Poster Contest. The prize was awarded by a panel of nationally-known judges, and the poster will be reproduced and distributed by AAA Clubs throughout the nation.

Princess Anne County Building Boom Continues, According to Latest Report

The number of building permits issued so far in 1959 in Princess Anne County is 15 per cent greater than they were for the same period of 1958, Superintendent of Building E. M. Williams told the Board of Supervisors Monday.

The board heard bids ranging from $17,502.28 to $95,671.55 to dig a drainage canal from Salt Pond to North Bay.

The board approved purchase of a $23,949.90 patrol boat to be used by Princess Anne police on Broad Bay, Linkhorn Bay and Lynnhaven Bay and its tributaries.

The board heard representatives of residents along Route 809 pre-test what they termed lack of action by the State Highway Department to correct a bad flooding condition on the road.

Despite annexation last January of 124 square miles of Princess Anne County by the City of Norfolk, building is on the increase in the county, the board was told. So far this year, 823 permits have been issued, of which 673 are residential. The buildings will cost an estimated $8,481,890 and return fees of $35,956 to the county. The average permit is for a residence to cost an estimated $11,500. This average figure is slightly higher in Lynnhaven District.

The board received six bids for the drainage of farm lands north of North Bay. They were recorded but action on them was deferred temporarily for further study.

The bids were as follows: Higginson-Buchanan Inc., $20,011.91; D. F. Mason Crane Service, $25,379.80; E. V. Williams Co., Inc., $95,671.55; Eastern Clearing and Grading Co., $17,502.28, and Elizabeth River Sand Co. Inc., $19,137.33. A bid for part of the work of $27,257.83 was submitted by Carpenter Construction Co. Inc. No award was made Monday.

The police patrol boat will be 17 feet long, have a covered cabin and be used to patrol waters adjacent to Lynnhaven Bay to reduce boating hazards. The boat will be in operation this summer. Residents of Bay Island, Broad Bay Point and Broad Bay Colony asked if the board could help them in ending tidal flooding of roads serving the area. The three areas are entered by Route 809 off Route 615. Route 809 lies between Long Creek and Long Creek Canal. A State Highway Department spokesman said the flooding hazard in this area would be given priority. He didn't say when he thought the problem would be eliminated.

Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond Helping Statewide

Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond holds out a helping hand to children in our State who otherwise could not have the prolonged hospital care which they need. It is the only free hospital in Virginia devoted, entirely to helping children in need of orthopedic or plastic care. It is Virginia's hospital, operated by Virginians for Virginians, and Virginians can take pride in its accomplishments.

It all began during the 1919 epidemic of poliomyelitis when Dr. William Tate Graham, originally from Wythe County, began holding clinics for the afflicted children in the basement of his Richmond home. By 1928 the work had grown and developed into this free hospital for needy handicapped children, and our State's comprehensive program for such children resulted. Crippled Children's Hospital with its unique service, continues to cooperate with the Crippled Children's Bureau of the Virginia State Health Department.

The Hospital has no relationship with the more recently established Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, which is part of the National Society of the same name, and which has no hospital of its own.

Support for Crippled Children's Hospital comes from interest on a moderate endowment, some assistance from Crippled Children's Bureau, and funds from the National Foundation for the few polio patients. To meet its operating expenses it also depends on generous gifts from individuals, organizations and counties. Practically all of the up-to-date equipment and even an addition to the building have been given to the hospital by those interested in helping with the work. Crippled Children's Hospital is constantly busy building brighter futures for many children in Virginia.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB TO MEET HERE TONIGHT

The Democratic Club of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach has scheduled a meeting at the Prince Charles Hotel tonight starting at 8 o'clock, according to Aubrey Richardson, chairman.

It will be the first meeting for members of the club since the group organized earlier this month. The club has gone on record as offering its "full support to the Organization candidates under whose leadership continued progress can be assured."

Democratic Leader Pledges Full Support To Organization in July 14th Election

Incumbents, Along With White, Label Anti-Organization Suggestion as High-Handed Political Move of Desperation

A proposal that a five-man board be set up to recommend political "candidates most qualified to serve" made by anti-organization candidates was promptly and flatly rejected by Sidney S. Kellam Wednesday and Organization candidates in the forthcoming July 14 Democratic primary election in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach termed it the "most high handed political move ever advanced by any group running for political office."

Kellam, a respected business leader here and one of the leading figures in the Democratic Organization in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, offered his rejection to such a proposal in a statement issued in reply to a letter from the anti-organization candidates published in part in a newspaper article in a Norfolk paper. He said "it is the most ridiculous suggestion I have ever heard."

June 15 Auto Deadline Near

Richmond — Captain R. R. King, State Police Safety Officer, today warned motorists that the deadline for the red inspection sticker on passenger cars, issued in the fall of 1958, expires at midnight June 15.

Captain King explained that the old system of two six-week inspection periods a year for passenger cars and an additional month for trucks is being permitted to "die a natural death." The red sticker received during the last inspection under the old system would have expired June 15 for passenger cars and July 31 for trucks had the system not been altered, so no change is being made in these expiration dates at present.

While noting that about 600,000 of the state's 1.1 million vehicles have been checked under the new system, he cautioned that there is still the risk of crowded stations between May 1 and June 15, which was the normal spring period under the former system.

"We have set up this new procedure in order to cause car owners the very minimum of inconvenience and delay," he said, "but its success must rest upon a great majority of motorists taking advantage of the earlier months and not waiting until the last few days."

President

In his statement Kellam stated that "my unqualified support of the Organization Candidates and the type of government for which they stand is well known and I feel confident that I could present their cause to any impartial group and that by reason of their experience, ability and devotion to their duty the Organization slate would be unanimously selected."

The proposal that the anti-organization or independent candidates, according to the newspaper report, stated that "this committee shall then, by interviewing and studying all the candidates for various offices as to their background and ability to do the job, decide on the candidates best qualified to serve the people." Claiborne R. Bryant, a banker, was also suggested to serve with Kellam.

The full text of Kellam's statement follows:

"The suggestion from the Independent Candidates that a Committee of five be named to select the candidates who will be the public officials and serve the people of Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach is the most ridiculous I have ever heard."

"The request of the Independent Candidates that I serve on such a committee is immediately rejected. My unqualified support of the Organization Candidates and the type of government for which they stand is well known and I feel that I could present their cause to any impartial group and that by reason of their experience, ability and devotion to their duty the Organization slate would be unanimously selected. For any committee to try to take or deprive the people the right to select their own officials is the most undemocratic thing ever proposed. For a group of candidates to suggest such a Committee would certainly give the people of this county no trust in the people."

"I have an abiding faith in the ability and the integrity of the people of Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach to select their own officials, knowing full well that they will make a decision that is best for all of the people."

"I will not be available to serve on any such committee."

Signed: Sidney S. Kellam.

The Organization candidates issued the following statement:

"The open letter of the so-called Independent candidates stating that a committee of five be named to select the officials of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, and thereby depriving the people of the right to elect their own officials, is the most high handed political move ever advanced by any group running for political office."

"We have seen the statement of Mr. Sidney S. Kellam and are delighted to know that he has flatly refused to serve on such a committee. We have the greatest confidence in Mr. Kellam and feel that he is as well qualified as anyone to serve on such a committee. However, we agree with him one hundred per cent that the election of public officials is a matter in which all of the citizens of the County and City should participate. We are at a loss to understand how any candidate running in a Democratic Primary could advance the name of Claiborne R. Bryant who has been, and so far as we know still is, an official of the Republican Party. To suggest that such a man serve on a committee to select the Democratic nominees is on its face obscene."

"The suggestion of the Independent Candidates that such a committee be named, clearly demonstrates that they expect to be rejected by the people at the polls on July 14th and are trying to get around their defeat by getting a group of five people to select the candidates."

"In this campaign we present a solid organization slate—we consider it a privilege to present our qualifications and our records to the voters."

News and Views of Aragona Village

By ELSIE HARVEY

ARAGONA COMMUNITY RECREATION CENTER

At the meeting of the Aragona Community Recreation Center, further study was made of the final legal requirements for acquisition of the land, and requirements necessary for obtaining funds for construction of the building and playgrounds. Tentative plans call for a rather large community building which might cost approximately $40,000.00. Several suggestions have been made at previous meetings as to the manner of raising these funds from within the Aragona Village community itself and already quite a few of the active residents have participated in projects for this purpose. However, at the last week's meeting a Ways and Means Committee Chairman, Mr. Carlo Azevedo, was selected and definite action will soon be taken toward obtaining funds for construction. It has been suggested that any resident interested in assisting in this progress might get in touch with the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, or Mr. Harold Spilka or Mr. Lawrence E. Marshall.

ARAGONA CIVIC LEAGUE

The Aragona Civic League, has been working hard in hand with other civic leaders in Aragona Village who have been giving their time and effort toward creating the Community Recreation Center. Cooperation between these civic workers has been such that it is difficult to determine where the line of demarcation is. If there is one, because from the casual observer it would appear that all have given unselfishly, of their time and efforts and with such splendid teamwork some very worthwhile result is bound to materialize.

The Aragona Civic League will hold election of officers for the ensuing year, at its next meeting to be held the second Thursday in May.

Plans are being formulated by members of the Civic League for its annual banquet which will be held early in June. All members are urged to come forward with suggestions and give of their time to make this event a successful and enjoyable one for all.

MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS DRIVE

Mrs. Chris Wright, Chairman of the Multiple Sclerosis Drive in the Aragona Village area, has announced that she and the numerous mothers in the village who have volunteered to help in this drive, will call upon their neighbors for donations to this very worthy cause, on Sunday, May 3.

Cubmaster George D. Johnston, of Pack No. 479, announced that the climax of spring activities of his pack took place last week at the monthly pack meeting where a grand party was enjoyed by the pack under the theme of "Down on the Farm." The boys and their parents attended dressed as farm families might dress, ready for work down on the farm. Various amusing types of entertainment was provided, several skits about farm life were performed by the boys, and a prize of a 30 pound sack of potatoes was presented to the boy and family which best depicted a typical farm family. This particular meeting was believed to have been one of the most enjoyable of those held this year.

Cubmaster Johnston stated that the scouts are anxiously looking forward to the organization of the six proposed teams of the "Cub League," which will consist of boys between the ages of eight and eleven years, with 12 to 15 boys to each team. Mr. Blake Morganville, Mr. Paul Holder and Mr. Carl Tignor are scheduled to assist and participate in the coaching of these Cub teams and additional assistants will be announced later.

BOY SCOUTS OF ARAGONA VILLAGE

Announcement has been made that there will be a Boy Scout Camporee held May 23, 1959, which will be participated in by the Tidewater Council of Boy Scouts, comprised of scouts from Aragona Village, Princess Anne and Virginia Beach. Of particular interest will be the contests between all patrols and announcement will be made later as to other planned activities.

MIDGET TEAMS

Mr. John Tereskers, manager and coach of the Larasan Carolinas, announced that there would be four practice games played by the midget teams, scheduled for May 2nd, 6th, 13th and 23rd. The results of these practice games will not be counted in League competition ratings. Workouts and games being played Mondays and Saturdays already give promise of real competition. Be on the ground to give your team your support.

PONY TEAMS

Mr. John Lewis, Coach of one of the Pony League Teams announced that The Tidewater Amusement Distributors, Inc. will sponsor one Pony Team this season. And although work-out and play are progressing just fine, so far, no name for the team has not yet been selected but will be announced shortly. All games of the Pony League will be played on one of the Kempsville fields, at night, and on a well-lighted field directly across from the Kempsville School. Walk for news as to time and date of scheduled games. There will be seating capacity for about 150 persons, concession stands, refreshments for sale, etc.

ARAGONA VILLAGE GARDEN CLUB

Members of the Aragona Village Garden Club are formulating plans for the last meeting of the Club before summer vacation, which will be held with a banquet and a showing of original hats created by the members early in June. The publicity chairman, Mrs. Philip R. Rone, enumerated several projects completed by the club during the past year which were a challenge to the enterprising efforts of the members and among which were counted several significant achievements, two of the most recent, being beautification of the grounds of the Christ Presbyterian Church, which brought praise from those who observed its beauty, as well as having won second prize of $75.00 presented to the club by the Federation Chamber of Commerce Contest held recently; and the beautification of the entrance to Aragona Village which was accomplished in the midst of construction equipment being used at the corner intersection. However, as Spring goes into Summer the work done by the club will grow in beauty and with it a lasting reminder of the energetic efforts of so many of the already busy mothers in the Village.

It has been announced that Mrs. J. E. Norton, Mrs. R. Wear and Mrs. R. B. Lehart will serve on the nominating committee and that election of new officers for the ensuing year will soon take place.

ARAGONA VILLAGE LITTLE THEATRE

The second and last play of the season will be presented by The Aragona Village Little Theatre at the Aragona Village Elementary School building, Thursday evening, April 30, and Friday evening, May 1, curtain time 8:15, admission $1.00 for adults and 75c for students. This second play, "Murder, She Says," a three-act mystery comedy by James Beach, is neither morbid nor depressing, but is light-hearted throughout with rowdy, fast moving comedy. The entire action of the play takes place in an isolated cabin in the north that has an evil reputation of having had three murders in three consecutive years. Between the murders and the unmasking of the culprit this mystery comedy will undoubtedly prove to be great entertainment for all to see.

Those who have worked behind-the-scenes and observed the cast in rehearsals, under the able direction of Mr. Al Stein and his production staff, among whom are Delores Barton handling the staging effects, and the lighting being handled by Maynard Allen, report that there is every reason to believe that this second play will be a wholesale success and genuine entertainment for all.

GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITIES

The meeting held by Girl Scout Troop No. 361, Wednesday, April 22, was conducted by Mrs. Frances Fraser, Troop Leader, with general emphasis being given on subjects related to hiking, camping, etc., with the view to their proposed visit to Delhaven Gardens. Mrs. Shirley Emerson, Neighborhood Chairman, and Mrs. Percy, program consultant were guests at this meeting, as was Mrs. Grace Formyduvall, Co-Leader of Troop No. 361, who gave a talk on Japan.

Several members of Troop No. 242 reported a pleasant and enjoyable visit with their "adopted friend," an elderly Swedish lady, Mrs. Alfrid Carlsen, aged 78, who

Tidewater Oil Co. To Purchase Delta Oil Co.

One of the largest petroleum distributing firms in Virginia will soon come under the banner of the Flying A, it was announced today. Delta Oil Company, Inc., of Petersburg, Va., has agreed to sell its assets to Tidewater Oil Company, which has been expanding southward during the past several years.

Delta has been marketing petroleum products in 17 counties of southeast and south-central Virginia for the past 30 years.

Involved in the transaction between Delta and Tidewater are 28 service stations; nearly 100 dealer outlets; a great many commercial and farm accounts; bulk plants and warehouses at Petersburg, Emporia, South Hill, Ford, Farmville, and De Witt, 15 tank trucks and other rolling stock, and miscellaneous equipment.

Tidewater—the Flying A Company—is no stranger to Virginia. Several years ago, the expansion of its operations in this territory made it feasible to establish an independent, marketing district under the direction of Frank A. Guerin, who maintains his headquarters in Richmond.

Slide Rules To Be Presented to Outstanding Students in Area

Kiwanis Club of Virginia has announced the sponsorship of a project to present slide rules to outstanding students in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne High Schools. This is in line with the vocational guidance objectives of the club and the desire to be of service to the community.

A learners slide rule packaged by the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics will be presented to each student who obtains an A grade in any Plane Geometry class during the present six week period. This slide rule can be used for multiplication, division, proportion, squares, square roots, cubes and cube roots.

Young men are daily being encouraged to pursue college courses in science and mathematics. Slide rules are a standard part of an engineer's equipment. It is considered a distinct advantage to learn the use of this instrument before entering college.

Principal J. Warren Littleton of Princess Anne High School and Principal James A. Johnson Jr., of Virginia Beach High School upon being contacted promised their complete cooperation. Principal Johnson stated, "This is a fine project and will encourage our students to do even better work. This exemplifies the community spirit of the Kiwanis Club and they should be commended." Principal Littleton stated, "The Kiwanis Club shows vision and interest in our youth in sponsoring this project. I feel our students will respond enthusiastically to this announcement."

The awards will be made the latter part of April after the period grades have been computed.

Miss Betty Murden Becomes Bride of R. K. Michelson

The bride in the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph David Murden and Mr. Michelson is the son of Mrs. Edward Walter Jafeman of San Mateo, California and Mr. Charles Deane Michelson of San Francisco, California.

In a setting of palms, urns of white flowers on white pedestals, ferns, and lighted taper candles the ceremony was performed by the Reverend Edward Hughes. The organ music was provided by Mrs. William Greene and Mr. William Chance who sang The Lord's Prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white peau-de-seoie, fashioned with a portrait neckline applied with alencon lace, seed pearls and sequins. The princess line gown sweeps into a full length cathedral train. She carried a cascade bouquet of royal bouquet orchids and stephanotis.

Linton Brooks, of Stewartville, N.J. is the director of the play. Miss Price, a junior at Duke, is the daughter of Cmdr. and Mrs. H. L. Walsh, Abington Rd., Virginia Beach, and has a supporting role.

Horse Traded In ... Elephant Next?

HORSETRADER—The old saying "get a horse" has been reversed by 19-year-old Larry LaFave (left) of Detroit who traded in his 1952-model home for a 1959 Rambler. Dealer Charles Record of Groves Pointe Rambler allowed $650 for the horse. "Next thing you know," Record said, "somebody will be coming in with an elephant." Record, who plans to use the horse on his farm, told Larry he could visit him anytime to ride. Entering his new car Larry said: "I doubt whether the car's much-touted mileage will compare with the distance King got from a bucket of oats, but the seats sure are more comfortable." He then drove home to change his cowboy boots.

we'll advertise the Land of Plenty to over 100 million readers! *

The Norfolk and Western means business ... new business that could be for you and your community. This year N&W industrial development advertisements in national magazines and business newspapers will reach a total of over 100 million readers. And every ad will describe the industrial potentials of the railroad's territory and urge businessmen to investigate plant sites in communities along our line.

Top officers at the road's headquarters in Roanoke, Va., and key traffic men in 39 strategic cities across the nation are working hard to promote and establish new plants in the growing and progressive territory in the six states we call the Land of Plenty. The N&W's Industrial Department is intensifying its work with Chambers of Commerce and other civic groups to promote local industrial development. In short, industrial development is being emphasized with all the vigor and "go" spirit of today's Norfolk and Western.

Help your community grow. You can play an important role in helping your community grow and prosper. By supporting civic-minded groups, by making your town more attractive to industry, by constantly emphasizing its desirability as a plant site, you can help bring more business — and dollars — to the community.

We of the Norfolk and Western are glad to be associated with you in this important activity. We pledge ourselves to pursue our industrial development program with increased vigor and determination — in aggressive advertising, personal solicitation, and other means, in an all-out effort to bring new industry to the area we serve.

Better railway service is a vital factor in helping to attract new industry. Today, the N&W operates the nation's newest and most modern fleet of diesel locomotives, more freight cars per mile of track than any other Class I U. S. railway 250 miles or more in length, expanded, up-to-the-minute terminals, advanced signal systems, and other top facilities. From every standpoint, this railroad and its alert Railway Family are modern and on the go.

The MIXING BOWL.. IT'S TIME TO COOK

By LUCIE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food tips and tidbits... for practical, down-to-earth cooking that saves both time and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucie Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

The enthusiasm for Italian foods that took our country by storm a few years ago continues to gain momentum. American restaurants are adding more and more variations of pastas, risottos — stracciotto, pizza pie and veal scallopine. And, at home, no cook — not even the beginner bride cook — would dare be caught without at least one Italian "specialty" in her repertoire. All in all, it's a fine trend because Italian dishes reflect the warmth and charm of Italy's climate and colorful character of Italian nature — and they "transport" to the American table inexpensively.

The secret of most of these Italian delicacies' goodness lies in the seasoning — the knowing use of such herbs as excellently pungent Oregano (the flavor-heart of pizza pie), delicate rosemary and aromatic basil.

There's no reason why the clever American cook couldn't capitalize on this herb magic in all sorts of foods — in Italian adaptations, yes, but in just plain USA foods, too.

Consider for instance, the savory possibilities of crumbled Oregano added to a grilled cheese or hamburger and tomato sandwich. Or a sprinkling of ground oregano on an omelet or creamed eggs. Or in a fish dish or fish sauce.

Oregano, the herb of the velvety gray-green leaves and hauntingly provocative taste, may be purchased either in crushed or ground form.

The American Spice Trade Association offers these recipes that use

Oregano's interesting, distinctive flavor in a variety of Italian recipes adopted to American ingredients and cooking techniques.

ALL-ELECTRIC KITCHEN

HOME ADVISOR: An automatic range-top element is a star of your All-Electric Kitchen. If you like to try recipes from all over the world, you've probably discovered that many need long, slow cooking. Well, this element takes the pot-watching right off your hands... with never a scorch or a boil over!

YOU: But what about every day cooking?

HOME ADVISOR: The automatic electric element is a real help there, too. It lets you fry chicken to perfection without standing over the range. And on hot-cake mornings, there's no griddle fiddling. The surface stays exactly right for batch after golden batch of cakes.

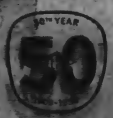

YOU: Just how does it work?

HOME ADVISOR: There's a little thermostat right at the center of the element. It feels the temperature of the pan—turns the element up or down automatically to keep the pan and the food at the precise temperature you want, as long as you want. It's one of the nicest features of the new Electric Ranges.

Prayer and Bible Study

In His Image
The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a stewardship of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, society's democracy has no foundation. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Please to go to church regularly and meet your Bible daily.

How small man seems, compared to a mountain or even a tree. And yet, how great is his potential! Man can fashion a tree into a chair, a boat, or a house. And he can, if he wants, tunnel through a mountain. Man has been created in God's own image; he has been given dominion over the earth and over all other creatures on the earth. Among the many gifts which God has given to man are intelligence, initiative and will power. But the use of these gifts must be motivated by the love of God if man is to be rewarded with peace and happiness.

Down through the ages, the Church has been teaching man that the misuse of intelligence and power brings on sin and self-destruction, while love-motivated use of God's gifts brings joy, peace of mind and salvation.

Church attendance, prayer and worship will help anyone understand the proper relationship between God and man.

MARRIAGE COUNCIL

Troubles in marriage often begin when a man is so busy earning his salt he forgets his sugar.

END OF THE ROAD

Today marks the end of a long journey for 4-H Club members in Norfolk and Princess Anne Counties who have been engaged in the Baby Beef Project. Today these boys and girls will have their Tenth Annual Baby Beef Show and Sale at the Portsmouth Stadium. The show starts at 10 a.m. and the sale starts at 1:30 p.m.

These 4-H club members will have 29 steers to show and to sell. These steers are of both Angus and Hereford breeding. The steers will be judged on the basis of finish or fatness and body type. The judge will be Dr. J. Cassett from VPI. L. B. "Pop" Wilkins will be master of ceremonies.

SPRAYING BEGINS

FOR WEVIL CONTROL

Alfalfa weevil infestations are varying from light to severe in the county now, and spraying has begun on some farms.

Farmers who did not use granulated heptachlor or fertilizer-heptachlor mixture should be ready to spray as soon as about half the alfalfa plant tips show feeding injury.

If a few weevil larvae or adults are found where granulated heptachlor or the heptachlor-fertilizer mixture has been used, it is not a sign that the treatment has failed. With a little more time for the weevils to come in contact with the insecticide, control will be about complete. Shep Smith has had excellent results with heptachlor-fertilizer mixture.

Meanwhile, another alfalfa pest is appearing in some areas. Pea aphids have been found in a few fields. Farmers should watch their fields for pea aphid infestations. Controls may be needed on some farms.

PRE-EMERGENCE 2, 4-D SPRAY ON CORN CALLS FOR LOW-VOLATILE ESTER FORM

Some farmers seem to be confused about what form of 2, 4-D to use as a pre-emergence spray on corn.

The low-volatile ester form is the form to use. There are some good reasons for this recommendation. It is not as much of a hazard to nearby crops as the volatile form, and is not as easily leached as the water-soluble amine form. If the volatile form is used, it may drift and severely injure other crops, or the fumes may escape at milking or storage points. If the amine form is used as a pre-emergence spray, and heavy rains occur before the weeds come up, the effectiveness of the material may be reduced.

The low-volatile ester form should be used at planting time at the rate 14 pounds actual material per acre. Lower rates may sometimes give satisfactory weed control, but you can't depend on them for consistent results.

The amine form is satisfactory as a post-emergence spray.

SWEET POTATO TRIALS PLANNED IN VIRGINIA

Problems of sweet potato growers are claiming the attention of scientists at the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station and Truck Experiment Station.

Researchers explain that more detailed information is needed about sweet potato varieties introduced in recent years, and about lines which may merit introduction in the future. Growers and buyers need information on yield, resistance to cracking and serious disease, root shape, size, skin and flesh color, storage qualities, and other factors.

The study will be conducted in conjunction with and will supplement the sweet potato studies being conducted at the Eastern Shore Substation of the Virginia Truck Experiment Station.

In the study, several varieties will be tested. They include Puerto Rico, Allgold, Carogold, Early Port, Goldrush, Jersey Orange, Nema-gold, Okla-gold, Sunnyvale, etc.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU PAY FOR FEEDER PIGS

How much can a farmer afford to pay for feeder pigs?

Rolie M. Godsey, swine specialist at VPI, says this depends on the value of the finished hogs, cost of raising them, and death loss. Here is a hypothetical case which farmers can use in figuring out how much they can profitably pay for feeder pigs.

To determine the finished value, Mr. Jones first estimates the price at the time he will sell the hogs, and their probable weight. If he wants to buy 35-pound feeder pigs in late May to sell in October, he may estimate the October weight at 225 pounds, the price at $16 per cwt. The weight is based on experience in the rate of gain; the price is a forecast. His expected income or net value at the farm is 225 pounds times $16 per cwt., or $360.

He then should estimate probable costs. Figures vary from year to year and from farm to farm. But experimental results show the average farmer uses 350 pounds of corn and 50 pounds of protein supplement to add 100 pounds weight. This would be a total of 650 pounds (about 12 bushels) of corn, and 100 pounds of supplement to increase the weight of the pigs from 35 to 225 pounds.

With corn at $1.14, the cost for 12 bushels would be $13.68. With supplement at $5 a cwt., total cost would be $18.68. Feed is the largest cost item, but labor, shelter, equipment, interest, and veterinary costs count too. Usually these amount to one-fifth of the feed cost. This would be $3.76, bringing total production costs to $22.36.

Difference between income and total cost is the first estimate of the price a farmer can afford to pay for a feeder pig. This is $13.44. This figure should be adjusted for death loss. Probable survival rate is multiplied by the margin over cost per pig. The fictional Mr. Jones expects a death rate of 5% or a survival rate of 95%. This is based on his own records. Multiplying margin per pig ($13.44) by .95 gives price per pig—$12.77 in this instance.

If Mr. Jones pays this price for a feeder pig, he can expect to get market price for his feed, average wages for his labor, and to cover all his costs for shelter, equipment, and other items. If he can buy a pig for less than $12.77 the difference is profit.

SILAGE GOOD WAY TO PRESERVE FORAGE

Silage may be the answer to the problem of forage preservation on your farm!

Making silage from the hay crop has many advantages. It is a good way to handle heavy, first-cutting crops that are ready to harvest during unfavorable haying weather. At least as compared to making hay under field-curing conditions, making silage offers a way to preserve feed nutrients more efficiently. Furthermore, silage is palatable and high in feeding value.

In tests designed to study the relative merits of different methods of harvesting and preserving alfalfa forage for dairy feed it was found that leaf loss averaged 47.5% for field-cured hay (varying from 35.5% when none of the hay was wet to 74.5% for hay wet by three showers), 28.2% for barn-dried hay, and 17.8% for wilted silage. On an average, the leaf loss for the field-cured hay was 1.7 times as much as that for barn-dried hay, and 2.7 times as much as that for wilted silage.

In these studies dry matter losses were larger in the field than during storage for all methods of preservation except ensiling. With silage, the losses during storage were higher than those in the field. Total dry matter losses ranged from 15% for hay barn-dried with heat to 36.6% for weathered field-cured hay. About 17% of the dry matter was lost when the forage was stored as wilted silage.

More total digestible nutrients, digestible protein, and carotene were preserved for feeding in wilted silage than in either field-cured or barn-dried hay. The silage also was lowest in crude fiber.

Overall changes in composition and quality from cutting to feeding were smallest for silage and increasingly greater for barn-dried hay (heat), barn-dried hay (no heat), field-cured (no rain), field-cured hay (light rain), and field-cured hay (heavy rain).

When the forages were fed it was found that the wilted silage was more palatable than any of the other forages. Hays that were barn dried with and without heat and hays that were field-cured without rain damage were all about equally palatable, but slightly less palatable than silage. Field-cured hay damaged by rain was the least palatable.

The different forages were all found to be of about equal value for milk production on an equal dry matter basis (along with corn silage and grain), except the badly rain-damaged field-cured hay which was of lower value.

More nutrients were preserved by making silage or barn-drying the hay crops than by field curing, even when weather conditions were favorable for field curing.
